ATLANTA'S FAIR IS OPEN Large Number of Notable Personages Present to Witness the Ceremony. BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS ALL FINISHED. Big Cotton States Exposition Formally Thrown Open to the Public in the Presence of an Immense Concourse of People.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 18.—The morning of the opening day of the south's great show, the Cotton States and International exposition, dawned auspiciously bright and clear, affording to the thousands of northern visitors in the city a sample of typical southern September weather. As the day wore on the heat threatened to pass the limit of comfort, but the frequent crowds on the streets did not seem to mind the temperature, and good humor reigned supreme.

During the night the finishing touches had been put on a number of the buildings and every effort had been made to get the grounds in good shape for the opening, and those who left the park yesterday found a great transformation this morning. From the tops of 318 flagstaffs about the grounds there floated the pennants and flags of the nations of the earth, and the doors of the buildings which have been closed for several days were thrown open.

As the day grew older the crowds that had been admitted to the grounds gathered around the gates and anxiously awaited the arrival of the military and the nations of the world. PREPARATIONS FOR THE PARADE. Down town preparations began early for the parade to the grounds, and the uniforms of United States troops and local militia lent a martial tone to the multitude that congregated in the neighborhood at the corner of Broad and Marietta streets, where the marching forces were mobilized.

At high noon every steam whistle in the city broke forth into noisy chorus, the crowds in the streets cheered long and loud, and the festivities of the opening day were fairly begun. At 1 o'clock the procession under command of W. R. Kellogg of the United States army, as marshal, began to move. In the line were the Fifth regiment, United States army, the Washington artillery, New Orleans' crack company, commanded by Colonel John B. Richardson, the Fifth regiment of Georgia volunteers, and various visiting state troops, making twenty-five companies in all. Fifty bands, including Gilmore's famous organization, headed by Victor Herbert, furnished music for the tramping column, which swept its brilliant length out toward the exposition park, between lines of admiring and cheering spectators.

As the head of the column passed the gate the companies were halted and the directors and their guests in carriages passed into the gates. The military companies stopped on the plaza, stacked arms and were taken to the barbecue stand, where they were the guests of the exposition for a short while. The guests and directors entered the auditorium, where the formal opening occurred. The speakers were seated on a small stage, the crowd was still gathering, Victor Herbert's band played his new and original "Salute to Atlanta" amid great applause. Ex-Governor J. Bullock, as master of ceremonies, presented Bishop Cleveland Klineck Nelson, who offered the opening prayer. Bullock introduced President Howell, who read the Exposition ode, written by Frank L. Stanton.

Then Mr. Bullock introduced President Collier, who delivered the opening address. President Collier was followed by Mrs. Joseph Thompson, president of the Board of Women Managers of the exposition, and George B. Brown, speaker for the city, and George B. Brown, speaker for the city, and George B. Brown, speaker for the city.

COLLEBSON WILL STOP THE FIGHT

Judge Hurt's Decision Has Little Weight with the Chief Executive.

AUSTIN, Tex., Sept. 18.—Governor Culberson was seen this morning in reference to Judge Hurt's opinion in Dallas yesterday favorable to prize fighting. He refused to express himself, but it is evident he will ignore the opinion and prevent the fight. To be prepared for an adverse opinion he has been looking up Governor Ross' action on the Fitzsimmons meeting in Texas, but was unable to find the records, which have been misplaced. An Associated press correspondent, however, this morning furnished him with an official copy of Ross' order to the sheriff, wherein he cites laws still in force and commands him to enforce them. Governor Culberson has had copies of the order and it is certain he proposes to prevent the fight.
