ROSE CONFIRMS THE REPORTS

Cables the New York Yacht Club Personally Concerning His Challenge.

HIS COURSE NOT LIKED IN ENGLAND

Presumption of an Unknown to Attempt Where a Sporting Earl Has Failed Provokes a Rebuke.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 .- The following cablegram was received at the New York Yacht club rooms this afternoon;

NEWMARKET, Sept. 21.-J. V. S. Oddie. Secretary New York Yacht club, New York: Your message received. I confirm person ally challenge sent through Royal Vic-toria club in my name. Confirmatory letter will follow immediately and I make no restrictions as to conditions. CHARLES ROSE.

LONDON, Sept. 24 .- The Times says today that there is no ground whatever for the assumption which has been hastily made by a portion of the American press that Mr. Charles D. Rose intended by his challenge for the America's cup to in any way convey the impression of disapproval of the course of the earl of Dunraven in the matter of Defender-Valkyrie races.

The Evening Standard says: "The announcement that Mr. Rose has challenged for America's cup will create the same dis-atlifaction here that it is said to have produced at New York. There was every reason to hope that no British yachtsmen would issue a challenge for this trophy until the unfair and illegal deed of gift should be cancelled. It is extraordinary that a challenge should be so hastily dispatched by a gentleman who is so little known in yachting circles, and it seems to be a reflection on Lord Dunrayes. No one grudges the notoricity that is to be gained by building a yacht when the owner confines himself to racing in Brit's water. but when It comes to a claim to represent British vechting in an international contost, and the challenge is given under the existing croumstances, the verdict of English yachtsmen must be unanimously

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—There were two statute in parti materia, enacted at different times, to be in effect at one and the same time. Therefore Judge Hurt's reference to the statutes in force at the same time, though conflicting, is not supported by any legical reason. He also holds that the "statute" was always void, in that it was contrary to public policy, if not to the ensitution. "If you license to fight—that is to say, a fight between man and man, the statute does not even seem to give you the privilege of saying whether the fight will be with bare knuckles, with gloves, with knives or with pistols. Tonight they applied to Associate Justice Denman of the supreme court for a writ of mandamus to secure a license. If Judge Denman refuses a writ of mandamus it will be a case of loggerheads between a supreme court associate justice and a chief justice of the criminal court of appeals, with the matter still undecided as to which is the most authoritative. It is probable, however, that Judge Denman will ask the full supreme bench to sit with him and hand down an opinion that will be bigling for all time.

ROUKPORT, Tex., Sept. 21.—Congressman David Culberson, father of Charles Culberson, governor, is spending a few days here and today talked freely of the decision of Judge Hurt on the prize fight. Congressman Culberson said that the young governor would have to back down from his position. Congressman Culberson is regarded as a great constitutional lawyer, and in his opinion the governor was purely executive and not judicial, and that the decision of Judge Hurt as chief justice of the court of criminal appears cannot be questioned by the supreme court.

LESS WORK OF THE KIND THAN USUAL

Figures Showing Paid Attendance of Almost 65,000s-Total Number Passing Gates $6,000-Share Brought by | Railroads,

The alleged enormous steal of the state fair ticket sellers and gate keepers as announced in their efforts were devoted to saving the ada total sheet last night was denied almost in toto by the managers of the fair. The large number of tickets stolen and sold by these men dwindles down, upon close investigation, to just $2.50, and the facts in the case as stated by Szcretary Furnas and other members of the board are about as follows: On Thursday of the fair one of the ticket and saunter up to a water barrel. When he reached it another man was waiting for him, and the two held a short conversation and the second party then passed out of the ticket seller's gate with whom he had been talking. A close watch was kept on the man at the gate, and in a short time he made another trip to the water barrel and met the same man with whom he had formerly talked. During the conversation that ensued the ticket taker was seen to pars a couple of tickets to his confederate and the two were immediately arrested and taken to headquarters, where they were examined by the board. Only two tickts were found in the possession of the man who had worked the outside of the grounds and the usual number on the person of the ticket taker. Both men testified that they had only sold two tickets, which had been obtained on the first trip of the man on the outside into the grounds. The fact that only a short time had intervened between the two trips congrounds vinced the board that the men were telling the truth, and after they had been confined a few hours they were escorted from the grounds and seen no more.

SOLD THEIR OWN COUPONS. The other case was that of two ticket sellers, who sold three of their own coupon railroad tickets early on the morning of the same day. Both men lived out of the city and in buying their transportation they received three tickets which they had no use for when they reached the grounds. A party of four people arrived at one of the gates before the offices had been opened. went into one of the ticket seller's toxes and Find the club ended, as did Saturday's, in a fluke, because there was not enough wind to finish within five hours. At 1 o'clock the boats were sent away. Ethelwynn was a little quicker than her rival, getting over the line two seconds in advance. Spruce crowded the Yankee so closely that Ethelwynn was unable to set her spinnaker immediately. She did not altogether lose her advantage, however, and was ahead one minute and eleven seconds at the end of the first leg of the first round. The second legs was a reach, and here again the American boat showed her superiority, for when the second mark was turned she had increased her lead by forty-six seconds. Now began the beat to the starting point, and here the Britisher outsailed the Yankee on every point and passed her. It was 2:29-98 when the British boat turned the mark. Eilhelwynn won the spar at 3:26:10 and common more did in the second was specially and the second that spruce was leading. The official time at that point was: Spruce, 4:137-45; Ethelwynn, 4:28:29.

On the reach from the fourth turn to the fifth Ethelwynn decreased the distance between herself and her rival, turning the mark but live minutes and thirteen seconds behind. The time here was: Spruce, 4:55:12; Ethelwynn, 5:90:25. This gave the boats almost an hour to run the last leg, but as the wind began to die out it was seen that there would be little chance of flinishing within the required limit. Ethelwynn began to pick up at this time and was constantly nearing Spruce when the time limit expired and the race was departed off until tomorrow.

TRACK TOO HEAVY FOR FAST TIME. Yacht club ended, as did Saturday's, in a encountered the two men just opening up fluke, because there was not enough wind for the day's business. FIRE IN THE PACTORY DISTRICT. Several Large Warehouses Gutted at Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 24.—Shortly after 8 o'clock fire was discovered in the six-story brick building at 11 Chestnut street, occupled by Charles J. Webb & Co., dealers in yarns and wools, and in half an hour no less than six adjacent buildings were in flames; The district is given over almost wholly to large woolen dealers and warehouses, and the Webb building was flanked by the fivestory chemical works of Charles Lenning at 112 South Front street. The inflammable substances with which the structures were stored spread the blaze with amazing rap-idity, and a general alarm was sent in. The Webb building had been gutted before the firemen had put their first stream upon it and joining houses. The flames first spread t 118 Chestnut street, occupied by H. B. Hes ton & Co., commission merchants, and burns through to Engles, a narrow thoroughfare The braze then extended on right to the buildings of Buckingham & Partleson, dealers in cotton yarns, 120 Chestnustreet, and James E. Mitchel, woolens, 122 and on the left Richard Ably and Keyser Foston & Co. at 110. In these buildings, how takers at a gate was seen to leave his post ever, the flames were largely confined to the rear. At 10 o'clock the fire was still burning, but the work of the department prevented its further spread.
