talexioners.

Wednesday evening, October 2, to be the guests of Ploneer council. The Fidelity de-frace team, which has the reputation of be-ling one of the best in Iowa, will perform the rites of initiation, after which there will be a big spread. There will be danger of some of the at-torneys being punished for contempt when they come around the federal building today. They may not discover that they are in the presence of Judge Woolson until it is too late. He has shaved off his mustache since the adjournment of the last term of the federal court, and his most intinate friends will not know him.

Harle to the office of school treasurer is regarded by every- body as a knockout for the Citizens' State bank, which was McGee's backer during the last year. It consequently caused a good deal of glee among the anti-Hannan people, and was pointed to by them as an indication that possibly William Arnd, who is also a Citizens' bank man, may not have a walk- away in his aspiration to be county treasurer this fall. The fact is, however, that Harle's election could almost be termed an accident, since one of the men who voted for him did so with the thought that another man who had voted for him before would not do so that time, but he turned out to be mistaken. There is consequently some doubt as to the Citizens' bank having lost its grip as much as some would like to have it. The Hardman piano wins many friends. There were three of them. Two were so gloriously full that they lay limp as dishrage head above his heels and to realize that meclusion was the proper place for dead drunks. So he picked each one up by the shoulders and draggid them off into the willows 100 yards or so south of the bridge. A farmer passing yesterday afternoon saw this sight, and at once made up his mind that one of the hold up he had based of heremine in the hold-ups he had heard of happening in cities was being enacted before his eyes. He telephoned at ones to the police station and Chief Scanian, with Officers Murphy and Weir started out on the double quick to pre-vent the robbery. They searched for some little time among the willows and finally found the gang. All three of them were ly-ing there, two of them sleeping off their targe and the third on watch. All three were ing there, two of them sleeping off their jags and the third on watch. All three were literally covered with sandburs and dirt, al-though they had been well dressed when they started out on their spree. Investigation proved that they were Omsha bloods, al-though they looked a good deal like tramps. They were allowed to stay until their sizeta

Suing 'Si Danforth.

F. H. Evans brought suit yesterday in the superior court against Josiah Danforth for $7,700, that being the amount he invested in April, 1894, in $40,000 worth of stock in a new-fangled fire escape project. The pro-ject failed to bring in the millions as fast as had been anticipated. Evans, in the peti-tion, alleges that Danforth represented that he held the controlling interest in the com-navy when as a matter of fact he did not pany, when, as a matter of fact, he did not. Had he owned it, the stock would have been of great value, but he didn't, and it isn't.
