COMES TO GARFIELD'S DEFENSE,

Ex-Senator Sawyer Adds Something to the Current Discussion.

DULUTH, Oct. 22 .- Ex-United States Senator Sawyer is in Duluth today. An Associated press reporter asked him his opinion of Senator Sherman's book. In reference to the part referring to ex-President Garfield, Mr. Sawyer said: "Mr. Sherman is totally in the wrong in saying that ex-President Gar-field broke faith with him. I remember that the day before Garfield was nominated I lunched with him. At the table I said: 'Mr. Garfield, I am sure you are going to be nominated.' He replied: 'I would rather be shot than to be nominated, for I could never per-suade Sherman that I kept faith with him.' I went back to the Wisconsin delegation, and we were the first to swing hilo ling for Garfield.

Attempted Assassination. SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Oct. 22 .- (Special.)-Word has reached here of a dastardly at tempt made on the life of Edward Hughes, living in the country north of Rapid City. Hughes was returning home after dark and was accosted by two men who asked him if he wanted to trade horses. He said no, but as the men insisted that he look at their animals anyway, he got out of his wagon to do so. He no sooner struck the ground than he was attacked by the men. One of then struck at him with a dirk knife and hi atruck at him with a dirk knife and nit him in the arm, inflicting a painful wound. The other came up behind him and reach-ing around drew a big knife across Hughes' breast. Fortunately Hughes had on a heavy buckskin vest, and the knife but slightly scratched the skin. No. 1 again attacked him, and in warding off the blow Hughes him, and in warding off the blow Hughes received another bad cut in the wrist. He finally got into his wagon and escaped. Hughes says he feels shife he knows who at least one of his assailants was, as he has a neighbor who has threatened to take his life. The wounded main will recover all right and go armed to meet such men in the future.
