He gave fair notice that if such a case came to his notice again he would not only refuse to allow the sheriff to receive pay for hearding the United States prisoners, but would direct the grand jury to take action upon the Jaller's criminal > spite of this notice Peterson has let King roam about as a true and tried friend instead of keeping him locked up as a con-vict. Peterson, Dolph Hooker, another of Sheriff Hazen's deputies, and Lon Kendall sheriff Hazen's deputies, and Lon Kendall were playing cards in the jail office when suddenly there came a great drouth. King was sitting in the office as an interested speciator of the game. When the drouth manifested itself one of the three men, supposed to be Kendall, pulled a $5 bill out of his pocket and handed it to King with a request that he spend it for the good of the order. There was nothing uncommon about

It has been commonly understood that the reason the federal grand jury was not allowed to consider the case against Stuhr was that Judge Woolson was a republican and he did not care to be accused of trying to prejudice Stuhr's chances, the latter being candidate for sheriff on the democratic ticket. No such reason for a refusal to act exists in Peterson's case, and speculation is rife as to what Judge Woolson will do when he hears of this deliberate case of malfeasans

When asked for his version of the affair yesterday Peterson said that Kendall wanted some cigars and gave King the bill to get them. He, Peterson, was not there, having just stepped out of the room. If he had been he would not have allowed King to have so much money or to leave the fall, although he had frequently been allowed to go to the butcher shop or the grocery store, about two blocks away. When asked as to whether it was customary for King to bring back cigars in a tin pall he made an evasive reply. Later on in the conversation he admitted that King was well known in the Creston house bar, but explained that it was only because the bar is next door to the butcher shop, not because King had been there to

Peterson also admitted that he had made a practice of having beer brought into the jail building, but thought it was no one's business. It has been a matter of common talk about the court house that one of the saloons in that neighborhood stood in no danger of financial embarrassment so long as it kept the county jail trade. In the after-noone, when the baker's wagon calls to de-liver goods, it has been the common practice to send out the 'growler' a few times and entertain the baker-man. The "trusties" have been known to hold up passersby and ask them for the price of a "growler." When the passerby proved accommodating one of

of Gregory's blacksmith shop on Fourth street, and identified by the jailer as his property. It is supposed to indicate that the $5 bill went to pay King's lodging at some Pierce street mansion, instead of toward buying liquid cigars.

King failed to take advantage of the op-portunity he had of skipping the country with Kendall's $5, for he turned up last night about 8 o'clock and tried to steal a bundle of brooms from in front of John Sullivan's grocery store on Broadway. He was detected in the act and caught by a young man named Langdon, who turned him over to Deputy Sheriff Nick O'Brien. George Roper, it is said, was around with him, and was keeping watch while he committed the theft. Jailer Peterson, who had informally offered a reward of $25 out of his own pocket during the afternoon, welcomed him at the door of county jail as he would a long lost brother.

Yesterday morning Mrs. Edmundson found Yesterday morning Mrs. Edmundson found her girl was not on hand to get breakfast, and stepping to the girl's room to see if she was sick, found her stretched upon the bed unconscious. The room was filled with a deadly gas from the furnace, which showed plainly what had occurred. A search was then made in the basement, when Buchanan was also found in bed, his breath coming in short wasne. Both were carried out into the short gasps. Both were carried out into the fresh air, and Dr. Macrae was called to attend them. In an hour or so the girl regained consciousness and had apparently suf fered no ill effects, excepting a severe head-ache. Buchanan lay for hours unconscious, and was finally taken to the Women's Christian association hospital for treatment.

Mr. Edmundson was at a loss to account for the affair, as Buchanan had been with him for more than a year, and understood the workings of the furnace perfectly. The gas had worked its way up the stairway t the hired girl's room, but a closed door pre-vented it from going into the rest of the house, so that Mr. and Mrs. Edmundson escapid a similar unpleasant experience.
At midnight last night the Drs. Macrae were at the bededee of the young man, giv-ing him oxygen gas in the hope of bringing him back to consciousness. Not once during the entire day had he shown any signs of returning animation, and his recovery is regarded as doubtful. (4) Rubber goods. Even if you don't buy,

Young Men's Christian Association Knocked Out by a Score of 6 to 4. The Council Bluffs Field club and the Young Men's Christian association foot ball trams met on the former's grounds yesterday afternoon, and the Field club won in twentyninute halves by a score of 6 to 4. The Association team is the heaviest and most husky the All-Council Bluffs eleven has yet met, and yesterday's game was just the sort of practice necessary to put the Field club team in good form. The game was marked by considerable fumbling, the Association's four points being made on a fluke, and two of the Field club's points being made by a safety. The Association was twice penalized, once for off side play and once for holding in the line.

The Association took the wind and gave their opponents the initial kick-off. The Field club took the ball to within a yard or two of the Association's goal line, and then lost it on downs. The Association picked up a few yards, and then lost the ball. The Field club's center then snapped the ball just as some one shouted "hold." The um-pire didn't hear it, though, or wouldn't allow it, and Baldwin made a touchdown, while the Field club was standing still, watching him run. The Association man who took the ball out for a try at goal transferred it to another man, who was promptly downed before a kick. No goal. Score, 4-0.

The Field club then worked the ball down toward their opponents' goal, and lost it on downs, the final down being within a foot of the goal line. The Associations touched the ball down for safety when the same contents to the contents of the goal line. ball down for safety and the ball was taken on: to the twenty-five-yard line. Score, 4-2. DES MOINES, Oct. 26.—(Special Telegram.)
—In United States court today the jury returned verdicts of guilty against Gabriel and George Johnson, Mrs. George Johnson and John Collett, indicted for shooting United States Marshal O. D. Wray at Albia a year ago. The Johnsons moved into the wild mining country in Monroe county, and there engaged in moonshining. George Jehnson was caught with an illicit still, and when being taken from the Albia jail to Council Bluffs for trial there the rest of the gang attacked Wray to release the prisoner. He opened fire on them and they in turn emptied the contents of shotguns into him. They will be sentenced Monday.

Protest Avniled Nothing. DES MOINES, Oct. 26 .- (Special Telegram.) In the United States court tonight the minority bondholders of the Omaha & St. Louis road, a portion of the old Wabash system, appeared and asked that an order to the re selver authorizing him to issue $310,000 of receivers' certificates against the road to buy rolling stock and locomotives made some time ago be set aside on the ground that the road is to be sold soon to a reorganization company composed of bondholders, and that they should buy the rolling stock. The application was denied and the order to issue the certificates formally entered. stated in the argument that the bonds are nearly all held by the Goulds, who have perfected the organization of the new company and want the rolling stock purchased at this time, and that it is intended by them to buy in the road under the decree soon after January 1 and perfect their reorganization.

Appeal of Iowa Democrats. DES MOINES, Oct. 26 .- (Special Telegram. -The democratic state committee today issued a long address to the voters of the state. It sets forth that this is essentially a state campaign, and that the corporatio and liquor issues are the ones demanding the attention of the people. It declares that on account of the revision of the state code by the next legislature the corporations have desired to dominate that body; that the nomination of Drake was part of the plot, and that the greatest lobby ever known in the state will be at the capitol while the code is under consideration next winter. The voters are called upon to oppose Drake as the monopoly candidate. On the liquor question it sets forth that the democratic position, in favor of license and maunfactur ing, is well known, and that it holds forth the only hope of a settlement of the question, Rock Island Head-End Collision. ATLANTIC, In., Oct. 26.—(Special.)—There was a head-end collision of two Rock Island freight trains in the yards here this morning, caused by an open switch. A Chicago a crash. All hands jumped and nobody was hurt. While neither engine left the track they are badly wrecked. Four cars of the Chicago train were entirely demolished, three of which were filled with freight, which was scattered over considerable territory. Many cars on both trains were badly damaged in many ways, and it will prove an expensive wreck to the road.

A Result of Chronic Catarrh Existing Since Childhood.

Mr. W. H. Jones of 1012 Pacific street is switchman for the B & M. railroad. Be-

W. H. JONES, 1012 Pacific St. "Yes, the treatment that Drs. Copeland and Shepard gave me proved to be wonder-fully effective, not only restoring my health and strength, but getting me nicely out of a whole batch of abominable catarrhal allements.

"You see, I have been troubled with catarrh as long as I can remember—for fifteen years at least. Everybody knows something of the nastiness and misery of the disease and of its deeply injurious effects upon the system. In my case the complete stoppage of the nose caused a steady drip of vile matter into the throat, thus occasioning that incessant nervous hawking and spitting that makes the burden of symptoms told by victims and which almost wore the life out of me.

"Then somehow or other the poisons seemed to work their way into the stomach and tubes in the liver, bringing on billious snells. At these times I would have horrible nausea and hoadaches, with vomiting of a sour and bitter discharge. For years I had these regular old-fashioned sick headaches, with suffering and agony altogether too horrible to be put in words.

"The result of all these disorders was a runed appetite and weak digestion, distention and bloating of the stomach and bowels, with loss of flesh and no ambition or strength to perform my work.

"As opinion is that when I first went to els, with loss of flesh and no ambition or strength to perform my work.

My opinion is that when I first went to Drs. Copeland and Shepard my whole system was giving way under the poisons of catarth. But under their treatment I began to pick up right away, and I kept on improving until I get rid of the whole trouble. I can't remember when I have had so good health as I now enjoy, and for these radical and genuine results I give all the credit to Drs. Copeland and Shepard."

DRS. COPELAND & SHEPARD,

couldn't eat well nor relish my food. My kidneys were sore and diseased and their imperfect action filled my blood with poisons. In short, I was an invalid woman through and through. After treating with different doctors for two years with only little spells of relief, I took a course of Home Treatment with Drs. Copeland and Shepard. They straightened me out in a way that gave me splendid health and I am permanently cured. I finished with these physicians two years are and I have been all right ever since. cashed. That sort of bank business used to work in Arizona in the good old days, but has been played out for several years. Utah Bill meant well, but was way behind the date. About the time he asked for cash he got a bullet in the shoulder from the cashier, and as he ran out of the bank the president shot him in the leg. Nobody on the street knew just what Bill had been up to, but about a dozen men had a crack at him on the off chance, and when the smoke cleared away he was dead, with seventeen bullet holes in him, and an hour later was resting in his zerrow grave. His being shot saved him from being hung, and so he had nothing to complain of on that score. He looked like an intelligent man, and how he came to be man, Major Gilroy, lost control of himself while speaking of Colonel Baker, another esteemed citizen, and characterized him as flar and a horsethief. When the colonel a list and a norsether. When the colonel heard of this language he lost his usually placid temper and called the major a cowstealer and a bigamist. Then both sent word to each other that they would shoot on sight, and during the next ten days the public momentarily expected to hear of a tragedy. We sildom meddle with such affeirs, but in this case we were requested by numerous friends to endeavor to bridge the numerous friends to endeavor to bridge the chasm. Three days ago we bridged it. We got the colonel and the major together in Jim Buck's saloon and disarmed them as a starter. The major had called the colonel a liar and a horsethief. We have the records of both men, and it took us only a minute to convince the colonel that he store a horse together in 1877. Indiana in 1887, and that his general equiation around town was that of a liar. We then turned to the major and satisfied im that he stole a cow in Illinois five years go, and that he married a second wife in Nebraska last year without getting a divorce rom his first. Both gentlemen had told the Wilkinson to answer to the gram and the fact was apparent they shook manus manslaughter. Miss Hattie Marsh died last fact was apparent they shook manus made up.
