Texas Baker Carved. During a democratic assembly at the Metropolitan hotel last night "Texas" Baker was seriously hurt and John and Vic Webster alightly wounded. Just how the row started the casualties were reckoned up it was found that Baker had been stabbed in the back of the head, that there was another cut in the back of his neck, and still another on his nose. The two Webster boys were beaten about the head. The knife which inflicted Baker's wounds was found afterward. He was removed to the Women's Christian association hospital shortly after midnight.

TOOK A SHOT AT HIS MAN. Captains of the Government Steamer

Mandan to Be Investigated. SIOUX CITY, Nov. 4 .- (Special Telegram.) -William Gillam, employed on the governnent steamer Mandan, now in winter quarters here, has preferred charges against Captains Todd and Leeds and Mate Newman, concerning the manner in which order is maintained on the steamer, which promise to lead to an investigation by the War department. According to Gillam's story, he became involved last Friday in a dispute with the mate over some minor matter of discipling, during which the latter draw hi revolver and fired several shots at his subordinate, by way of emphasizing his views Gillam rushed to the pilot house, where he found Todd and Leads, and, on begging for protection, says he was assaulted and terrib! beaten by the captains. He does not think the case warranted such drastic treatment and proposes to make a test of the matter before the proper authorities.

OPENING OF THE AUSTIN REGATTA

Unbear and Haines Qualified for the Finals in the fingle Sculls-Poggy Won the Texas State Champiosship.

AUSTIN Tox. Nov. 4 - There was an extra large attendance present today at the opening of the great international regatta and they were favored with a fine round of sport, though there were only three races entered for today. The first race was trial heats, three miles with three jurns, over a threequarter mile course, participated in by Englishmen only. Entries: Bubear, Barry, Haines and Wingate. Bubear was in fine shape and won the race by five boat lengths, pulling an easy stroke of twenty-eight. Haines pushed him some in the last quarier by spurting with a stroke of twenty-nine. Barry came in a fair third, but Wingate was not in the race at any time, falling away behind from the start. Bubear and Haines, having won the race in one, two order, will pulling an easy stroke of twenty-eight. now row in the final against two Americans for the championship of the world. The two Americans are to be selected tomorrow

The second race, one and one-half miles with turn, for the amateur championship of Texas, was won by Ed Poggy of Austin, his only contestant being J. Martin of Galveston.

The third race was a trial heat, double scull, first crew in to row in the final against England's best crew for the championship of the world and a purse of $1,000, thre miles with turn. Peterson and Hanlon Gaudaur brothers and Telmer and Rogers started. This was a beautiful race, all boats The Gaudaurs got away from the flag first, but Termer and Rogers, pulling long, steady strokes of thirty-five, soon pulled up with them and forging shead passed over the line with a five-boat lengths lead. Time 17 171 with a five-boat lengths lead. Time, 17:47%. The last race was a magnificent one and foe Vendig Says Fitzsimmons' Affairs Have Been Mismanaged.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Three of the Hot prings fighting contingent, Joseph H. Venig, manager of the ill-fated Florida Athetic club; James Kennedy, manager of the Empire Athletic club, and "Charley" White of Fitzsimmons' trainers, arrived i New York tonight, All of them were greatly disgusted with their western experiences, and Verdig laid the blame for the flasco upon Julian, who, he said, had managed Fitzsimmons' affairs from the beginning. He asserted his belief that Fitzsimmons was not affaild to meet Corbett, and that the fight would have taken place but for Julian's poor work. He blamed Julian for the failure of Fitzsimmons to take a special train for Hot Springs and thus evade the officers. Vendig said there was yet hope that the fight may be pulled off at El Faso, where Stuart has gone to make arrangements. Forfeits for the original match will not be paid.

and Geigerich, in general term of the court of common pleas, have disagreed in the suit brought by Henry Judson against the Flushing Jockey club. It was expected that the decision of the general term would have decided the constitutionality of the Percy-Gray racing law.

The suit was originally brought before Justice Lynn in the first district judicial court in a suit brought by Judson to recover a sweepstakes from the Jockey club. Justice Lynn decided that a sweepstakes was a lottery and threw out the case. Judge Bischof holds that Justice Lynn's decision should be affirmed. Judge Geigerich holds that it should be reversed.
