

GREAT FIGHT IN KENTUCKY

Hottest Campaign in the State Since the Close of the War.

BOTH SIDES CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

Louisville the Storm Center of the State—Legislature Set to the Democrats on Account of Holdovers.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 4.—One of the hottest campaigns known in this state for many years has elapsed, and if the weather is fair Kentucky will tomorrow poll the largest vote ever given.

At the close of the battle royal, the victor is between Harding, democrat, and Bradley, republican, for first honor—the office of governor. The leaders named have been on the stump for two months, while all others of the respective tickets have been doing more or less public speaking, and now, at the finish, each side claims the victory.

Harding's party claims that he will come to this city with 15,000 majority, while the friends of Bradley claim that this city will be in their favor, but the chances are that the leaders will be elected in their own districts.

Both Parties Claim the State by About the Same Figures.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Nov. 4.—New Jersey will tomorrow vote for a governor to succeed George Werts, the present democratic incumbent, seven members of the senate and one member of the assembly.

BADLY MIXED IN MARYLAND.

Issues Too Involved to Intelligently Predict the Outcome.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 4.—The eve of a critical political battle finds the issue embroiled in doubt. Both sides are claiming victory, but the tones in which they make their boasts and the figures they cite as a basis for their alleged belief to carry conviction are not to the mind of an unprejudiced onlooker.

PROSPECT FOR A HEAVY VOTE.

Both Parties Complete Their Arrangements.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The forecast for this state tomorrow is for clear weather in the eastern part of the state and showers in the western.

Japan's Attitude Toward Korea Further Explained by Minister Kurino.

ITS FINANCIAL INTERESTS ARE LARGE

Disturbed Condition of the Country a Menace to Both Life and Property—Hope Soon for a Better Condition.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The telegram from the Japanese government to its minister at Washington announcing authoritatively the policy of Japan in Korea has created a great deal of interest in diplomatic circles.

Recent events in Korea, said Mr. Kurino, "have unfortunately given the impression in some quarters that Japan is seeking to exercise exclusive control over that country; in other words, to establish a protectorate. Nothing could be further from the truth than this supposition.

In dealing with Korea, Japan has but one object, the establishment and maintenance of the independence of the Korean kingdom. In holding to this purpose the Japanese government is not actuated by any wish to control Korea, or by any motive of purely selfish benevolence.

DEATH OF EUGENE FIELD

Was Actively Engaged in Work No Longer Ago Than Saturday.

EXPIRES SUDDENLY FROM HEART DISEASE

Distinguished Journalist, Author and Poet Succumbs to an Unexpected Attack at an Early Hour Yesterday Morning.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 4.—A private telegram from Buena Park, Ill., says Eugene Field, the poet, died suddenly at 5 o'clock this morning after an illness of but a few days.

For some days Mr. Field had been ailing, but it was supposed he was suffering from an ordinary cold, and no serious turn was anticipated. Dr. Frank Reilly, who was summoned this morning, pronounced the death to have been caused by the formation of a clot of blood in the heart.

Although Mr. Field was feeling so ill that he telegraphed to Kansas City cancelling an engagement which he had there for tonight, he sat up until a late hour chatting with Mr. Yenowine of the Milwaukee Illustrated News.

When the family reached the bedside they found Eugene Field was no more. His body was lying in an easy, natural position, the head of the body not yet rigid and a peaceful smile on his face.

LOU MAY'S CHANCES BRIGHTEN.

Nebraska's Export May Yet Head the National Fish Commission.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—(Special Telegram)—Within a week or two, at best, it is expected President Cleveland will appoint a United States fish commissioner to succeed the late Marshall McDonald.

From entirely trustworthy sources The Bee ascertains today that the president had decided to go outside the present commission to find a suitable successor to the dead commissioner. This decision narrows the field of applicants and it is thought here increases Lou May's chances of appointment very considerably.

The president has been greatly impressed by Mr. May's fitness for the place, and it is thought to look favorably on his application for the place, which is becoming more and more important as the fish products grow in volume and variety.

The president, it was learned, is anxious to have this matter settled as early as possible, and the president's business of state has not had time to take up the claims of the various candidates.

Secretary Morton, who will remain at his post here instead of adding one more vote to the sound money democratic nominee for the supreme court, will renew his efforts to have the fish commission attached to the department of commerce.
