One of the only two leading bankers present was Mr. Charles D. Rose, the late challenger for America's cup. The great majority of those who accepted were, it is pleasant to note, men identified only with the Kaffir speculators.

The opinion is growing that the Kaffir crewmen are not the only speculators of the despots' efforts to sustain the market. Out of the 225 movements recorded in mining shares yesterday, not one was a rise. The Economist of today points out that the market shows conclusively that neither French nor English naval bids performed. Investors seem to have concluded that the great majority of the dealings have been effected by speculators and financial institutions alone. The trouble in the Imperial Ottoman bank is credited to ex-service transactions on K. M. & W. THAN ZOLA'S WORST.

Emile Zola has scored a hit by pointing out that the trial of the Marquis de Navey trial which sounds so dreary and tame. The French provincial life is worse than anything told in his novels. The judge, after the acquittal of the marquis, sought further revenge by holding him over on a charge of maltreating his sons. Public opinion in France has been so stirred by the trial that the majority of the dealings have been effected by speculators and financial institutions alone.

British Fleet Near Turkey Greatly Strengthened.

ALL SIGNS POINT TO SERIOUS TROUBLE

SITUATION IN ARMENIA DAILY BECOMES MORE CRITICAL AND STUPENDOUS EVENTS ARE LOOKED FOR AT ANY MOMENT.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 9.—It is understood that the British fleet has been reinforced by a number of battleships and that it is intended to bring it up in point of strength to the fighting power of any combination of fleets which can be formed in the Mediterranean. The British fleet, it is also reported, will shortly be reinforced by several Italian war ships.

The news from the provinces today is decidedly bad. Advice from Syria tell of the massacre and pillage of Armenian villages in that province and the need of military reinforcements is being strongly felt.

Shakir Pasha has gone to Khonass in order to arrest the Kurdish movement there.

The news from Syria is alarming. A rising of the Druses is reported from Damascus and all the relicts of the Armenia corps stationed at Damascus and Erzegovina are being mobilized.

Now the like importance comes from other parts and everything tends to confirm the fact that anarchy prevails throughout Asiatic Turkey.

The new Turkish cabinet is being most adversely criticised on all sides here. It is regarded as a retrograde by ministers as likely to lead to the most grave consequences.

Members of the diplomatic corps in more or less difficulty, who have been ordered to leave their posts.

Afghanistan, who has given no sign of disengaging his conduct in the de Nava household.

Mrs. Craig (John Oliver Hays) sailed on the Campania today for a short visit in New York. She has been so long away from her former home that she feels homesick.

Her literary popularity is certainly greater than that of any other woman, perhaps greater than that of any other writer here, while her beauty, social qualities and wealth have given her an exceptional position in London society. She is about to publish a new novel.

Miss Bistoni, the Marquise Carandino del Griffon has attracted public attention anew by a grand reception in Paris to introduce into society her beautiful daughter, Bianca. A French writer today recalls an episode in Bistoni's career in which she was the victim of the Spanish Chapado, a notorious Spanish soldier condemned to death. The actress flung herself upon her knees in her dressing room before the duke of Valencia and the soft-hearted Queen Isabella. Chapado is now a prosaic green grocer in Madrid. He never fails to set a basket of oranges each year to the memory of his victim.

Eleanor Duey will publish this winter a romance dealing with the Italian stage.

HENRY AUTHORITIES LOOK FORWARD TO NEXT YEAR'S AQUATIC EVENTS.

(Copyright, 1895, by the Associated Press)

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The Henry authorities are eagerly anticipating the coming of a crew from Yale to compete at the next regatta. All parties on this side of the water who are in any way interested in the aquatic contests in the next year, Henley-on-Thames would most ardently welcome the arrival of a crew from Yale. Falling in this, the British oarsmen would be pleased to see a crew from any other American university.

Secretary Cooper of the Henry regatta committee, on the subject by a representative of the Associated Press, said he would be glad to see Yale have another trial at Henley with the oarsmen of the English universities.

The publication by the London Times, of a threatening manifesto extract from the pamphlet which Lord Dunraven is just issuing as a reply to the report of the American cup committee, a synopsis of which was cable to the Associated press last night, has caused a renewal of the anti-American talk in all circles, which began after the publication of the manifesto of the sultan for the America's cup this year.

It is understood that the sultan is to be succeeded by the ex-grand vizier, Kamil Pasha, who was dismissed in consequence of the representations of the United States minister to Turkey, Mr. Alexander W. Terrell, because the vault refused to permit the United States consul agent at Aleppo to visit a naturalized American citizen, Guendjiam of Armenian origin, who had been dismissed from the grand vizier's service.

General Manderson, with Mrs. Manderson, left for Philadelphia tonight to spend Sunday with his aged parents. He will leave for Omaha Sunday evening.

Following Belinda postmaster, M. N. Myers, vice J. F. Spiker, resigned; Faunsdale, Guthrie county, Mrs. L. M. Lewis, vice W. B. Lewis, dead; Winslow, Black Hawk county, W. L. Rule, vice C. F. Black, resigned.

GOVERNOR MILES' REPORT SUBMITTED.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Special Telegram.—Franklin Holland of Iowa has been promoted from clerk at $1,200 in the pension office to special examiner at $1,200 and Oregon. His wife, Mrs. Anna, was dismissed in consequence of the publication of the sultan's report to Constantinople.

Until the secretaries have finished the work, none of these reports will be given to the public. Meantime it is stated by Miles that his report is intended to outline the report in advance, are purely speculative and so necessarily inaccurate.

MANY ARMENIANS ARRESTED.

Over 100 Armenians were arrested yesterday. Strabane, Ireland, and all the inquiries made as to the cause of the imprisonment have failed to obtain a satisfactory answer.

It is presumed, however, that they are charged with having taken part in some conspiracy against the sultan.

To impress today that the dismissal of Kamil Pasha from the post of grand vizier was due to the sultan's objection to his policy of conciliation toward Armenia, the cabinet council on Wednesday last held for the conclusion of the meeting and the presidency was then assumed by Hall Riffat.

Upon arriving at his home, Kamil Pasha was taken ill, but on the following day, Thursday, he was able to take up again the Valsipash of Aleppo, and a special steamer was prepared to convey him to his post the same day. The Kamil, however, refused to go on board the steamer, declaring he was too sick to travel. This caused the cabinet council to send the sultan to the grand vizier, reading a telegram urging him to go on board, threatening to remove him by force if he did not do so.

Kamil thereupon sent messengers to the representatives of the powers and otherwise protested so strongly that the Turkish command of the steamer was afraid to cross the river and enter the Matanzas district.

GOSSIP OF LONDON PLAYHOUSES.

Popular Ovation Tendered by an Enthusiastic Audience.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The theatrical interest of the week centers in the first performance at the Criterion theater on Tuesday last of "The Squire of Dames," an English version of Dumas' "L'Ami des Femmes," in which Fay Davis of Boston made so instant a success. It is said to be a rare occurrence for an actress to spring directly into popularity.

As the result of this success, Charles Wyndham seems likely to have a good share of the general boom in the English theatricals which are now in progress here.

The play "Liberty Hall," at St. James theater on Thursday evening by Mr. George Alexander, who was recently unmercifully arraigned by the police for talking to a woman in the streets, was the occasion for a scene of excitement seldom witnessed in a London theater. It was a protest against ten o'clock upon the stage.

The police, who entered upon the stage was the signal for cheering which lasted for several minutes.

In addition people stood on their seats and frantically waved their hats and handkerchiefs.

Mr. Alexander was so affected that tears ran down his face.

Mr. Alexander, judge of the high court of justice, and Lady Jeune, one of the recognized leaders of London society, and their daughters. All the actor's friends evidently desired to testify to their belief in his innocence.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The Vienna correspondent of the Chronicle on the rejection by the emperor of the election of Dr. Lieutzen as an anti-semitic, as burgomaster of Vienna. The premier's explanation gave rise to unprecedented scenes. Lieutzen and Prince Lichtenstein made violent and abusive speeches agains the anti-semites. The public galleries were crowded with anti-semites, who joined in the noisy demonstrations which were made and who were ejected for that reason. The house finally approved the rejection of Dr. Lieutzen's election by a majority of fifty-four.

COLUMBUS, O. H., Nov. 9.—Allen W. Thurman says of ex-Senator Thurman's illness: "Father is very much better. It is perfectly astonishing to see his improvement. If he does not have a relapse I would not be surprised to see him get up. His vigorous countenance gives me all cause to feel very hopeful." Mr. Thurman will be 82 old next Wednesday.

COMPETITION IN GUN CARRIAGES.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 9.—The Buffington-Crozier disappearing gun carriage, erected as an experiment, was shipped on three cars from Cramps ship yard to the Pier 40. The Buffington-Crozier carriage is suspended in a system of leather weights. Another disappearing gun carriage, however, has been invented by the Hon. H. H. Huntzinger's invention. This latter is pneumatic in its action, and is intended as a competitor to the Buffington-Crozier carriage.
