

CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP

The Continental Clothing House to Go Into New Hands January 1.

THE REDUCTION SALE BEGINS SATURDAY

Freeland, Loomis & Co. Have Sold Out Conditional Upon the Stock Being Reduced $50,000 Before the Transfer Takes Place.

AN EXTRAORDINARY SALE.

The announcement last Friday that the Continental clothing house would change hands within a few weeks, and that the terms of sale required a reduction of $50,000 in the stock, was sufficient cause for the big rush at the store Saturday.

To reduce rapidly a big stock of clothing these times means drastic price cutting. The Continental management knows this, and the Omaha public knows what Continental clothing cut prices mean.

The suits selling at $5, $6 and $8 are the most unusual values seen in Omaha for many a day, and, though this demoralization of prices right in the early part of the season may be a thing to be regretted in the clothing trade circles, it is a mighty good thing for the thousands who will take advantage of the break in the market.

Freeland, Loomis & Co. have sold out, and the new proprietors take possession January 1. The $50,000 reduction takes place between now and Christmas, just five weeks.

The men's, boys' and children's hats and furnishings of every description are included in this sale, which continues every day without interruption at the old location, Fifteenth and Douglas streets.

CALLED INTO THE COURTS

Three Electric Lighting Companies Parties to Two Suits.

CHARGES AND COUNTER CHARGES MADE

Ancient History Concerning Electric Light Matters in Omaha Will Constitute Many of the Issues in the Fight.

By reason of the two suits which were filed in the district court yesterday the relations hitherto existing between the Northwestern Electric Light and Power company, the Omaha Illuminating company and the New Omaha Thomson-Houston Electric Light company are to be thoroughly aired.

One suit is against the Omaha Illuminating company for $45,550 and the other against the Thomson-Houston company for $10,000. The plaintiffs in each being the Northwestern Electric Light and Power company.

These are the parties named as plaintiff and defendants in the suit, but it is understood that the fight will be squarely between the Clarkes of this city and the officers of the present electric light company. The issue in the cases, stated briefly, will be a fight for damages over the absorption of three electric light companies which had a foothold in Omaha a number of years ago and which became merged into the present New Omaha Thomson-Houston Electric Light company.

As detailed in the suit, the number of years the Omaha Illuminating company was furnishing the city and residents with electric light. It was unable to obtain a charter and therefore it operated under a charter granted the Northwestern Electric Light and Power company, which was in effect until the suit against the Thomson-Houston Electric Light company, when it was taken over by the latter company.

From this time on it is charged that officers of the company and others of the Thomson-Houston company conspired to absorb both that company and the Northwestern Electric Light company and in course of time succeeded in obtaining the Omaha Illuminating company in the city, and in effecting a merger of the two companies.

The suit against the Thomson-Houston Electric Light company is to recover consequential damages it has alleged that it has sustained by certain officers of the other companies to divert the customers of the Omaha Illuminating company to the Thomson-Houston Electric Light company, and succeeded. The question of the conversion of the property of the latter company also enters into the suit.

The plaintiffs allege that the suits are expected to be amicably settled and therefore are not willing to speak about them. President Wiley of the New Omaha Thomson-Houston Electric Light company says, however, that so far as his company is concerned the suits will be fought to a finish. He says that his company in course of time did succeed in obtaining the Omaha Illuminating company, but that it got them from the fact that it offered a better light and not through any conspiracy.

CROWDED CONDITION OF THE JAIL. Many Prisoners in the County Jail Now Awaiting Trial.

There are more prisoners awaiting trial in the county jail on the charges of murder, robbery and grand larceny than at any other time in its history. They number in all thirty-five, and, however, there are thirteen who are members of the so-called Brant gang, who are charged with grand larceny and robbery. It is expected that the trials of these will be disposed of in a week.

The charge of burglary against two members of this gang, James Smith and Bruton, has been withdrawn. The men were arraigned on the charge of grand larceny alone. The trial of these men will probably occur after the coming winter trial, which is to be held on Monday morning.

Asks for a Receiver. The Lee Chamberlain company of Columbus, O., has brought a suit against the Davis & Cowgill Iron works and the mortgages of the company to recover on a judgment for $494. The plaintiff alleges that the mortgages on the property were given to secure certain preferred creditors and to leave others out in the cold and therefore an application is made for the appointment of a receiver for the property, in order that it may be divided pro rata among all the creditors.

Hunting for the Cash. Hobart Williams has confessed a judgment for $200 in favor of the Steele-Smith Grocery company. The company is preparing to begin garnishment proceedings to obtain possession of money due on the judgment, from the Omaha National bank, in which it is alleged Williams has funds.

Minor Matters in Court. Mrs. Hilda Swanson has been appointed administratrix of the estate of John Swanson, deceased.

Herman Kountze has begun foreclosure proceedings against some property belonging to the Charles F. Goodman estate, on which a mortgage was given by Goodman to secure contracts aggregating $2,000.

Frank Gallagher has been acquitted by a jury of the charge of highway robbery, for which he was on trial last Thursday and Friday. He, together with Pat Ford, Jr. and F. J. Jeron, was accused of holding up August Volter on the night of September 29 and robbing him of $20. Ford and Jeron were found guilty.

Cradle and the Grave. The following births and deaths were reported at the health office during the twenty-four hours ending at noon yesterday: Births—Howard Thatcher, 314 South Twenty-third street; boy; Joseph B. Waring, 539 South Thirty-third; boy; James W. Seward, boy; Thomas White, Fort Omaha; Frank Ellis, 4147 Erskine; girl; Fritz Knapp, 3817 Mission; boy; W. W. Wallis, 604 North Seventeenth; boy; George Fitzgerald, 1813 North Fortieth; girl; W. H. Adams, 4228 Maple; boy; John Alperston, 3420 Leavenworth; boy; George C. Pugh, 1321 North Eighteenth; boy; Andrew Olsen, 1123 North Twenty-third; girl.

Deaths—Maggie Dungey, 1 year, Thirty-first avenue and Half Howard, pneumonia; St. Mary's cemetery. B. P. Angus, 64, 1314 Hickory; Forest Lawn. Belle C. Orley, 55, 2430 Parker, drops; interment at Booneville, Ind.

Says Her Husband Tried to Shoot Her. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16.—A special to the Examiner from Great Falls, Mont., says: Mrs. J. K. Emmett, who is playing here with the Stockwell-Cushman company, says that through relatives, who are lawyers, she has commenced divorce proceedings against her husband, J. K. Emmett. The case will be tried at San Francisco, but the papers have not been served, as Emmett is traveling in the south with his company. Mrs. Emmett says the divorce is the result of the trouble she has had with her husband in San Francisco last summer, when he attempted to shoot her.

Life Boat Rescued the Crew. PLYMOUTH, Nov. 16.—The bark reported ashore during the gale at Wembury bay turns out to be the August Smith, a Norwegian vessel, Captain Fjorvrensen, from Buenos Ayres on September 2, for Rotterdam. The crew took the rigging and were eventually rescued by a tug and a lifeboat after they had tried for hours to reach the stranded bark.

Took Poison With Fatal Intent. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16.—Mrs. W. B. Shirk, the wife of a Kansas City coal dealer, died this morning at the house of Dr. Eddy, 323 Geary street. Mrs. Shirk came here two weeks ago and had been boarding at Dr. Eddy's house. It is thought that she took poison with suicidal intent.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS' MEETING.

Fort Crook Road Again a Subject for Discussion.

The regular meeting of the Board of County Commissioners was held yesterday at the office of the board. The feature of the meeting was the seating of J. J. Breen of South Omaha, who had been elected as commissioner of the Fourth district to serve until January 1. He fills the place occupied by A. L. Sutton, whose term of office expired the middle of this month.

Mr. Breen was introduced by Commissioner Jenkins and in response spoke briefly. He said that he hoped that he would be able to fill the office as well as it had been filled by his predecessor.

As the first act of his official career in the position of South Omaha, who had been elected as commissioner of the Fourth district to serve until January 1. He fills the place occupied by A. L. Sutton, whose term of office expired the middle of this month.

Chairman Williams explained that the matter of the Douglas county line. This was in accordance with a resolution passed last winter which was before the county commissioners, but upon which they had taken no action. Williams said that Douglas county was willing to grade the road as soon as the county agreed to do its share of the work.

This did not satisfy Breen and he said that at the meeting of the board yesterday he would be a delegate of South Omaha citizens present to address the board upon the subject. This brought Stenberg to his feet and he said that he did not think the board wanted to have another public meeting on the matter, because it would be a waste of time, as the members of the board were of the same opinion, and no action was taken on the matter, but Mr. Breen said that the South Omaha delegation would be present.

In response to a letter from County Treasurer-elect Heindel, his bond was fixed at $100,000 by the board. It is said that $700,000, but this amount is considered excessive.

A communication was received from the judicial committee of the city council to the effect that the city would not pay or remit the taxes on the property of J. L. Britton, $200, but would not give a clear title because of $300 taxes standing against it. He has been paid for the amount and obtained a judgment, which has been satisfied by the city, but it was considered that the city ought to pay it.

County Treasurer Irely was authorized to employ two extra men to make out tax certificates until December 3 at $3 a day each.

CHICAGOANS VISIT THE PARK. Take the First Ride Up the Lookout Mountain Cable.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Nov. 16.—A perfect November day, with bright sunshine and blue skies, greeted the Chicago hosts on their arrival here this morning. This was very different from the pouring rain which marred the day at Nashville last Saturday. The first section of the trains arrived at 9 o'clock and the Chicago companies of soldiers, who were on duty at the city, were in the city at 11 o'clock, and the others were still later.

A large reception committee met the visitors at the Lookout mountain and Chattanooga National Military park. Missionary societies, churches and clubs, and the city view is to be had today on account of the light weather.

The new double cable incline up Lookout mountain, which the projectors intended to have had running during the Chattanooga National military celebration, was in operation for the first time today. It is the steepest incline in the world, having a gradient of 45 per cent on a portion. The Chicagoans were delighted with the ride, and the train of the party will leave tonight for Cincinnati.

The Times gave the visitors an agreeable surprise, its first page this morning containing only Chicago local news, resulting in special high interest in the city. The paper was eagerly read, and Mr. Adolph Ochs, the proprietor, was warmly thanked for his thoughtfulness, and praised for his enterprise.

The Cleveland O. Chamber of Commerce also is spending the day here. It arrived early this morning and went to Lookout inn for breakfast.

FIGHTING PRUSSIAN COMPANIES. Insurance Men Attempt to Shut Them Out of American Business.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Many life insurance company officials from different states were at the Fifth Avenue hotel to discuss the advisability of taking measures to exclude Prussian insurance companies from doing business in this country. This step is taken as a result of the action of the German government, which about a year ago notified the New York Life and the Equitable and the Mutual Insurance companies that it had changed its requirements for foreign companies. The Equitable soon after withdrew from Germany. The action begun by the American companies today was initiated by an application made about three weeks ago by the Hamburg-Maddeburg company asking insurance Superintendent Perse permission to do business in this state.

There are about six German fire insurance companies doing business in this city. After the meeting, which was an informal one, Stuart Brown made a statement that an understanding had been arrived at that since the Prussian companies had been forced to withdraw from Prussia, they would make every effort by asking legislation and otherwise, to see to it that Prussian companies were given the same privileges in some states, he said, the authorities had power to refuse to release the companies.

August Volter, he said, only on the concerns having their heads in the kind of Prussia, as that power, and not the entire German government, had discriminated against the American institutions.

FEW PROTESTS ON ASSESSMENTS. Reductions in Valuations May Have Been the Cause.

The Board of Equalization on the general tax assessment session yesterday. Chairman Kennard says that an effort will be made to finish it as rapidly as possible and the board will probably finish its work in about ten days from the date of beginning.

There are comparatively very few protests being received. The valuation had been properly made, he said, many property owners have had their assessments reduced, and there is more than a usual tendency to refrain from protests. The assessment rolls present the usual features and are severely criticized by some of the board. One member of the council said this morning that he had noticed one case in which a local business man had reported the value of his stock at $10,000. To his positive knowledge the same stock was insured for $250,000 under the 80 per cent clause, thus indicating that its actual value was not less than $310,000.

The work of considering protests has been relegated to a special committee—Kennard, Lemly, Taylor and Gordon—which will meet at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Work of Checking Up Bolla's Books Nearly Completed. It is now proposed that a task of checking up the books of ex-City Treasurer Bolla, which has been in progress since June, will be completed some time next week. Two of the experts have been demitted, as their services could no longer be utilized, and the other two are now checking up the bonds and coupons. This will require three or four days longer and it is expected that the final report will be submitted to the city council one week from next Tuesday night. It was stated this morning that the report would be substantially verify the figures that have previously been published relative to the shortage. They will show that the city is about $200,000 out of pocket, with a $10,000 deposit in the Midland State bank.

FORGOT TO SETTLE HIS BILLS.

Several People Who Mourn the Departure of Mr. Hill.

E. M. Hill, a prominent light in the late dervish campaign, left town suddenly a few days ago, and in the haste of his departure forgot to leave his address. He leaves several friends who mourn his absence for various reasons.

Mr. Hill posed as manager of a local paper for nine days, and in the rush of business due to his political speeches failed to liquidate the expenses incidental to carrying on the business. Coal bills and other items are coming in for payment to the paper, and the shortage promises to run up to a goodly amount. Hill stated to some friends that he intended to go to Montana, but it is said

Cannot Make Traffic Agreements.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 16.—Judge Kelly today filed his decision in the important case of the state of Minnesota against the Great Northern Railway company and the state. The Great Northern and Northern Pacific may not enter into traffic arrangements and Judge Kelly grants the writ of injunction as prayed.

Representative Carroll Restates. FRANKFORD, Ky., Nov. 16.—The resignation of A. J. Carroll, representative-elect from the Louisville district, has been received at the executive office.

Tried to Seize Claus Spreckels. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16.—Claus Spreckels, the sugar king, was visited by an insane man today, who demanded $500,000 in gold. The man, who gave the name of C. Lockyer, called at Spreckels' office and demanded that the money be given him in return for damages sustained while working of a railroad of which Spreckels is president. By a subterfuge he was induced to leave the room and was immediately arrested. Lockyer is a well-dressed young man and was a guest at the Palace hotel.

When

We make a statement it means literally what it says—there is no loophole left to escape from the consequences—there is none necessary—everything is open and above board here. We take the people into our confidence—we put the facts before them as they are. If we make mistakes, as all men are liable to, we promptly correct them, and are always thankful to those who give us the opportunity of doing so—but to advertise one thing and mean another, or to overstate or highly color existing conditions with a view to deceiving the people, is a practice entirely foreign to our methods.
