BOLD DASH FOR LIBERTY

Kansas Fugitive Makes His Escape from Officers at Lincoln.

STARTLING EVIDENCE AGAINST DAVIS

Alleged Rock Island Train Wrecker Said to Have Confessed His Guilt to a Companion Before Arrest.

LINCOLN, Nov. 21.—(Special).—Yesterday Frank Myrick and Charles Rate were arrested at the postoffice for grand larceny committed at Topeka, Kan. Today Myrick escaped from a second-story window and is still at large. This morning the marshal of Topeka arrived and was preparing to take the men back to Kansas. Myrick asked to see his attorney, C. E. Magon. Chief Melick accompanied him to Magon's office. Melick and Magon stepped outside the door into the hall to talk over the matter privately, and Myrick bolted. It is not known how he got to the ground. Some rather startling evidence was brought out this morning in the Davis murder trial. According to Ed Craighead, a new witness, before the wreck to aid him in throwing a train off the track. Craighead said that on the fourth of July, just preceding the date of the wreck, he had driven into the city with Davis from Lonsdale's farm, where both were working. On their way they passed a railroad trestle, similar to one where the accident occurred. Davis remarked that "it would be a hell of a good place to throw a train off." Then witness related that a few days before the wreck Davis came to him and wanted him to go in with him, displace a rail, flag the train and get a reward. Davis told him he was a fool if he did not go in on the deal, as it would be a dead easy way of making money. Subsequent to the wreck, a half hour before Detective Malone arrested Davis, the latter told witness, in answer to a direct question, that he had wrecked the train, but had fallen in his scheme to flag it, as the train came along sooner than he had expected. Cross-examination of Craighead was long. When asked why he had not testified to the fact before witness recalled that he wanted to first hear what others had to say about the case. Had talked to Rock Island people about it and had been told that it was immaterial to them who got the reward. It had been intimated to him that he might get some of the reward if his evidence was "satisfactory." He told the attorney for the defense that it was no more than right that he should get some of it. Omaha people in Lincoln: At the Lindell Hotel, James Lee Caplin; at the Lincoln Hotel, H. Lloyd. At the Lincoln—John H. Horberg, Walker Mulse. FINED FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT. Lawyer Lehane of Beatrice Sent to Jail. BEATRICE, Nov. 21.—(Special).—Judge Bush passed sentence this afternoon upon Attorney W. C. Lehane, against whom suit had been docketed for contempt of court. The judgment of the court was that Lehane pay a fine of $100 and be confined in a cell of the Gage county jail for a period of ten days, and that he pay the costs of the suit. At the request of H. W. Sablin, who appeared for the defendant, the court granted a stay of the jail sentence until tomorrow morning to give time for the defense to decide upon a fine for further action. Lehane was chairman of the republican county convention, and caused to be issued a supplement to several papers attacking the personal and public record of Judge Bush, who was the populist candidate for re-election. In seeking a change of venue in a case Tuesday, Lehane attacked in his motion a copy of the objectionable supplement, and stated that the court, knowing that he, Lehane, was the author of the same, he would be unable to secure an impartial hearing in Bush's court. In passing sentence the court gave it as his opinion that if he should impose a fine of $100 and a jail sentence of twelve months the supreme court would send him there. The bar is somewhat divided in opinion regarding the matter, and no little bad feeling is growing out of it. Facts from Fremont. FREMONT, Nov. 21.—(Special).—The Fremont fire department gave its annual ball at Masonic hall last evening. Music was furnished by the Dorsey Hoss company orchestra. About 200 were in attendance. The proceeds of the ball go to the fund for sick and disabled firemen, that he had wrecked the train, but had fallen in his considerable talk among the farmers. This week several men have received orders for cars whose beet had previously been rejected. Whether they will receive the contract price for them or not is uncertain. C. W. Sheldon has nearly 1,200 tons, mostly sold, for which he has not received an order. A former agent of the Norfolk company, who was in the city this morning, says that the factory is receiving more beet than it can possibly take care of or has facilities for unloading, though running at full capacity. DEMISE OF REV. S. S. STEWART. Minister of Murray Div. of Paeunonia After a Brief Illness. PLATTSBOROUGH, Neb., Nov. 21.—(Special).—This afternoon intelligence reached this city from Murray, eight miles south, to the effect that Rev. S. S. Stewart had died of pneumonia after a few weeks' illness. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 at the Presbyterian church of that place, of which Mr. Stewart was pastor. The willows, covering nearly 500 acres of sandbar directly in front of this city in the Missouri river, which have grown to be near two inches in diameter in the last two years, are being cut and made use of by Plattsborough's poor for fuel. Daniel H. Linton and Miss Ella Louise Light were married last evening at the home of the bride's parents. Last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gutsche, III, daughter, Miss Amelia, to W. F. McFadden, Rev. H. B. Burges of the Episcopal church officiating. Frank Hawksworth and bride, nee Miss Grace Hobson of McCook, who have been visiting relations of the former in this city for the past few days, returned home this morning. Stephen Wicks died at an early hour this morning at the age of 72, after an illness of two weeks, from nervous debility. Mrs. Wicks came to Nebraska in 1858 and has resided since on the same farm, located one mile south of this city, from which he has accumulated an estate valued at $120,000. Dwelling House Burned. FREMONT, Nov. 21.—(Special Telegram).—A fire broke out at 9 o'clock tonight in a house owned by Otto Huettis and occupied by C. C. Pollard, corner of Twelfth and F streets. The roof and upper story were consumed. Mrs. Pollard, who is an invalid and partly helpless, was with some difficulty removed to the house of a neighbor. Loss on house estimated at $1,000. Quite a number of eminent attorneys in Lincoln are making considerable sport this evening over this intimation of a stump speech into the brief of the attorney general. But some of them say it is no more than to be expected from the office of the attorney general, since it has so palpably degenerated from a legal workshop into an A. P. A. annex. Attorney Kirkpatrick said that there was not a line nor a sentence in the brief filed on behalf of Leidigh that was not written and prompted by himself. Mr. Kirkpatrick is a republican. During the forenoon closing arguments were heard concerning the validity of the transfer switch law. The case was submitted. SUIT AGAINST JOSEPH GARNEAU, JR. World's Fair Commissioner's Accounts to Be Aired Before the Courts. LINCOLN, Nov. 21.—(Special Telegram).—Deputy Attorney General Day will leave for Omaha tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock. His object is to file suit in the district court of Douglas county against Joseph Garneau, Jr., as principal and W. A. Paxton and J. A. Creighton, his bondsmen, for $9,942. Garneau was World's fair commissioner for Nebraska, and the suit is brought by the state in accordance with the report of the legislative committee last winter to the effect that Garneau was short in his accounts with the state. In the petition it will be alleged, among other things, that the commissioner purchased some $5,000 worth of furniture, which only about $200 is accounted for. There are a number of other items which, Mr. Day says, are not yet run down, but which may appear in time to incorporate them in this suit. While in Omaha Mr. Day will also try to collect the judgment of $800 which the state secured against County Treasurer Ivey some time since. One Baldwin sued the county treasurer for money said to be due him, and the state intervened and was granted a judgment on its claim of above amount. Injured While Playing Ball. FAIRMONT, Neb., Nov. 21.—(Special Telegram).—Earl Henry, while playing a game of base ball here this morning, met with a serious accident. A foul ball flew from the bat and struck him over the left eye, cutting a gash an inch long and knocking him down. He was unconscious for some time, and the doctor thinks the eye may be injured. Nehawka Notes. NEHAWKA, Neb., Nov. 21.—(Special).—Yesterday afternoon while the family of O. Baier, a merchant of this place, was abstitution with power of determining that question. Quite a number of eminent attorneys in Lincoln are making considerable sport this evening over this intimation of a stump speech into the brief of the attorney general. But some of them say it is no more than to be expected from the office of the attorney general, since it has so palpably degenerated from a legal workshop into an A. P. A. annex. Nehawka Notes. NEHAWKA, Neb., Nov. 21.—(Special).—Yesterday afternoon while the family of O. Baier, a merchant of this place, was absent from home, sneak thieves entered the house through a window, ransacked trunks and bureau drawers, securing $55. The stone company is compelled to run the crusher night and day to fill the contracts before the cold weather. The lime company is burning lime for the sugar refineries at Norfolk and Grand Island. The creeks and wells have never been so low in the forty years this county has been settled. The Weeping Water has been dry for three months. This week will almost finish the corn-busking. The average yield is about thirty-five bushels per acre. ALL EYES ARE NOW ON SIDNEY. Proposed Irrigation Convention attracting General Attention. SIDNEY, Neb., Nov. 21.—(Special Telegram).—The state irrigation convention committee is deluged with letters from all over the United States relative to the coming convention, to be held December 18 and 19. A stenographer and two clerks are employed by Colonel Charles Callahan, the local secretary, who are mailing immense quantities of advertising matter. Official notices were sent today to several of Nebraska, Wyoming and Colorado. The pump and windmill manufacturers are writing for letters in order to display all kinds of machinery for irrigation purposes. Improving Tecumseh's Water Works. TECUMSEH, Neb., Nov. 21.—(Special).—Tecumseh's water works system is to be improved. The new well on the Flanagan property, northwest of town, has been tested and found to yield the expected quantity of water and now the ditches are being dug from the well to the nearest point on the main, a distance of about four blocks. Pipe connections will be made with the mains and a temporary pumping station erected at the new well. The water from the old wells at the present pumping station will be used first and then when the supply from these is short the product of the new well will be used. A letter from Auburn conveys the news that diphtheria is prevalent in that town. Twenty-four cases with three deaths last week are reported. The schools are closed and public gatherings are dispensed with. Mr. D. J. McCarty and Miss Ada Dew were married at St. Andrew's church at 12:30 yesterday. Rev. William Murphy officiating. Both are residents of this community. A royal company of card players were entertained last evening by Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Brundage at their home on Lincoln street. The Young Men's Christian association was entertained by Messrs. William and Aye Hassett at their home last Saturday evening. Glenwood's Sewer System. GLENWOOD, Ia., Nov. 21.—(Special).—Through the enterprise of H. Everham, Jr., proprietor of the Commercial hotel of this city, Glenwood has provided a sewer system early in 1896. A few weeks ago Everham went to work to ascertain the feasibility of conducting a sewer from his hotel to Keg creek, a distance of nearly 1,800 feet. The line taken to reach the creek was such that it passed the Mills county court house and most of the business houses of the city, so it was suggested that the town general take the matter up and put in a good city system, which plan at a mass meeting was duly adopted on the subscription order. Red Men Meet at Aurora. AURORA, Neb., Nov. 21.—(Special).—The great council of the Independent Order of Red Men of Nebraska met in this city Tuesday. Prominent Red Men from all parts of the state were present. The session lasted ten hours. The officers elected for the ensuing year are: Great prophet, E. B. Warm, North Platte; great sachem, H. L. Levy, Hastings; senior sachem, E. B. Finch, Grand Island; junior sachem, G. W. Inskip, Falls City; G. C. of H., G. G. Sparks, Lincoln; keeper of wampum, P. D. Denny, Fremont; G. E., A. G. Wood, Fort Omaha; G. M., J. F. Honora, Tecumseh; great representative, F. J. Dennis, Lincoln. Wahoo Sons of Veterans Inspected. WAHOO, Neb., Nov. 21.—(Special).—C. L. Olds came from Fremont last night to inspect Lyons camp No. 12, Sons of Veterans, and with him came Messrs. Wolf, Forney, Cunningham, Rogers, Brown, Babbut, Hans and Wilcox. After the customary business a banquet was given in the lodge room. Burt County Redistricted. TEKAMAH, Neb., Nov. 21.—(Special).—In accordance with the township organization law, which the people of this county voted upon themselves at the late election, the county commissioners met this week and yesterday completed the division of the county into seven superior districts, and appointed the following supervisors: Joseph Hall of Riverside, P. L. Rork of Tekamah, C. A. Weshoff of Silver Creek, J. L. Knollin of Deatur, A. J. White of Everitt, C. J. Wallerstedt of Oakland, P. S. Gibbs of Bell Creek. Tekamah City has sufficient population to make a district by itself. The district attorney is at work today on the Lydick-Deaver accretion land case. Snow Storm at Big Springs. BIG SPRINGS, Neb., Nov. 21.—(Special Telegram).—A cold wave struck this locality this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The sky is overcast with clouds and snow is falling. Conditions are in good train for a storm. LANDER, Wyo., Nov. 21.—(Special Telegram).—There was a decided change in temperature at noon today here. The weather had been bright and beautiful for several days, when it suddenly turned cold this afternoon, and at 2 o'clock a fine, dry snow storm set in, which increased in violence as the afternoon advanced, and by 6 o'clock several inches of snow had fallen, with every prospect of a continuance of the storm. Mrs. Cullimore of Beatrice Fatally Ill. BEATRICE, Neb., Nov. 21.—(Special).—Mrs. Cullimore, mother of Dr. Grant Cullimore of this city, received a paralytic stroke yesterday which it is feared will terminate fatally. The lady has been in feeble health for some time past. Mrs. W. J. Ankeny, residing just south of the city, died last evening after a week's illness. Arrested Upon Suspicion. TOPEKA, Nov. 21.—William Hiddy has been arrested at Mount Ayr, Ia., on suspicion of being the murderer of Albert Applegate, a well-to-do Norton county farmer, who was found dead in his cornfield three weeks ago with two bullets in his head. An officer, armed with a requisition, has left to bring Hiddy to Kansas. Found His Body in the Bay. NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The body of Calvert Vaux, the landscape gardener, who disappeared from the home of his son Tuesday night, was found in the bay near Bensonhurst today. Mr. Vaux had been suffering for some time from nervous prostration. Murder Ends a Gambler's Quarrel. OKLAHOMA CITY, Okl., Nov. 21.—Parris Cox, a faro dealer, shot and fatally wounded Al Wagner, a well known sporting man, in the turf saloon in this city late last night. Wagner had been drinking, and threatened to kill Cox. Acts at once, never fails. One Minute Cough Cure. A remedy for asthma, and that feverish condition which accompanies a severe cold. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results.

PEN PICTURES PLEASANTLY PUT

THESE ARE UNPLUCKED.— Today we call your attention to seal skins—wool seal capes—that means unplucked seal—the seal as it naturally is—except that the fur is London dyed. We offer a wool seal cape, 33 inches long and 100 inches sweep, trimmed with Japanese marten and lined with the finest satin, at $29.75—the ordinary price is $40. Our price $29.75—and it's seal—mind you—$29.75. Mail orders. G. E. Shukert, Furrier, 15th and Harney.

A STRICTLY SIDE ISSUE.— Some people do without them; some don't; that's the reason they're called sideboards. There's nothing that so completely sets off a dining room as a handsome sideboard, and everybody will think you paid $150.00 at least for our $7.75 creation that's elegant in appearance and neat. Others at higher prices, and yet the price is the strong attraction. Hedgcock & Odell, 208-210 N. 16th—North of New P. O.

A MAN ONCE SAID.— He'd never invest a dollar in a piano because he could buy an organ so much cheaper. He, no doubt had in mind our great organ sale of slightly used organs that we are selling at from $13 to $50. All of them in first class condition and all worth nearly the original price, which was more than double. A. Hospe, jr., Music and Art, 1513 Douglas St.

IT PLEASES YOUNG PEOPLE.— And it pleases the old folks, too—They say their troubles are over—on the shoe buying business, because our special line of boys' and misses, shoes that we've started at $1.50 bills the bill exactly. For wear, fit and style it has never been equalled, and at the price it is the best shoe ever brought to this city. Heavy soles and sold as a rock, at $1.50. Drexel Shoe Company, 1419 Farnam Street.

IF IT'S CANES OR UMBRELLAS.— We'll sell you a fine cane with solid silver trimmings as low as $1.50, or a steel rod silk umbrella for $1.50 or more. Silver trimmed costs you $4.00. Gold trimmed canes are $3.50, and gold trimmed umbrellas are $4.00. Besides, we are the only house in Omaha showing a complete line of elegant miniature pens, the very latest novelty in the jewelry world. Mandelberg, JEWELER, N. E. Cor. 16th & Farnam
