LITTLE PROGRESS IS MADE IN TURKEY

Abdul Hamid Knows What He Wants but Lacks the Means of Carrying His Orders Into Execution in Armenia.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—(Special Telegram.)—There is no piece of European news more important than the conversion of the French prime minister and the French Chamber of Deputies to rank socialism.

GRADUATED SUCCESSION DUTIES is marked a fine name for confiscation. The socialist stamp on the whole scheme is shown, first by the exemption of all estates under $2,000 and then by the incredible exaction of one-fifth of all property passing by will to legatees not of kin to the former owner.

LACKS POLITICAL COURAGE. But the schism, which is a fatal seal on the success of the bill in public life. He has little political courage. He bows down before a majority or the dread of a majority. He dares not face the artisan vote without a bribe in his hand.

ABDUL HAMID STILL OBDDURATE. The Turkish problem seems no nearer, or little nearer, a solution this than last week. The sultan is still shillyshallying, unable apparently to make up his mind just what or how much he will do, in conformity with the will of the European powers.

Countess de Castellane Already Tired of Her Life in France. (Copyright, 1895, by Press Publishing Company.) PARIS, Nov. 30.—(New York World Telegram—Special Telegram.)—Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt has taken an apartment at the junction of Avenue Montaigne and Avenue des Champs Elysees.

NEW PERUVIAN CABINET ANNOUNCED. LIMA, Peru, Nov. 30.—(Via Galveston.)—President Pierola has announced the new cabinet. It is composed of the following members: Premier and minister of justice, Dr. Barinana; minister of foreign affairs, Senator Ricardo Ortiz Svallos; minister of the interior, Senator Benjamin Diaz; minister of finance, Senator Manuel Jesus Obili; minister of war, Colonel Barra.

SHIPS WILL STILL GET THROUGH. There is another report that Abdul Hamid cannot make up his mind whether to allow another half dozen European gunboats to pass the Dardanelles. He has granted frigates, but the execution of them is delayed. The Dryad showed herself at the entrance and was ordered back.

That, with Diphtheria and Scarlet Fever, Greatly Increase the Death Rate—Emperor Has His Usual Luck Hunting.

(Copyright, 1895, by the Associated Press.) BERLIN, Nov. 30.—Everything points to a cabinet crisis in spite of official denials. The positions of Herr von Koelliker, the Prussian minister for the interior; Dr. von Boetticher, the vice president of the council of ministers and imperial secretary of state for the interior; General Bruns; von Schillingdorf, the minister of war; Freiherr von Herppich, the minister of commerce, and Freiherr Marschal von Vicherebin, the minister for foreign affairs, and even that of Herr von Lueneburg, the chief of the imperial civil cabinet, are said to be shaken.

PRICE OF CONSERVATIVE SUPPORT. Count von Mirbach, the leader of the conservative party, has issued a manifesto to the electors of east Prussia, in which he declares for his party the victory.

BECAUSE THE BULL DIDN'T FIGHT. President Diaz Suspend the Sunday Amusements in Federal District. (Copyright, 1895, by Press Publishing Company.) MEXICO CITY, Nov. 30.—(New York World Telegram.)—President Diaz has issued instructions for the indefinite suspension of all public amusements in the federal district.

EXPECT A STORMY SESSION. The reopening of the Reichstag on Tuesday next will be without special brilliancy. The nature of all the government bills is known, and there will be no surprise during the session, though it is expected to be a stormy one on account of the introduction of extraneous matters, such as the lease of the Hammett letters are sure to lead to a heated discussion.

BARON ANDREANSKY INJURED IN A DUEL. BUDA PESTH, Nov. 30.—As a result of the exciting scene in the lower house of the Hungarian Diet yesterday, when Baron Andreansky reproached Herr von Persele, minister of the interior, and charged him with assisting in alleged election abuses, a sword duel took place today between Andreansky and Persele.

FUNERAL OF ALEXANDER DUMAS. PARIS, Nov. 30.—The funeral of Alexander Dumas took place today and was unobtrusive in accordance with the wishes of the deceased author and dramatist. The remains were conveyed yesterday from the late residence of M. Dumas at Marly-le-Roi to his house in this city, and taken from there to the cemetery of Montmartre in the presence of a vast concourse of literary men, artists and actors.

ONLY A HORSE-STEALING RAID. EL PASO, Nov. 30.—The Sonora Yaqui outbreak turns out to have been only a horse-stealing raid. The reported killing of the Mueller family is denied.

FRENCH DUELIST SHOT IN THE LIP. PARIS, Nov. 30.—A duel was fought this morning in a secluded place near this city between a member of the Chamber of Deputies, Baron Bousy d'Anglais, and Viscount de Vogue, a member of the French academy. The latter was wounded in the lip. The dispute which led to the hostile meeting arose from a political controversy.

FEMALE BICYCLE RACES THE RAGE. LONDON, Nov. 30.—(New York World Telegram—Special Telegram.)—Public interest in the Valkyrie-Defender dispute is unabated. It has been rather increased by an article in the Nineteenth Century, by A. T. Quiller-Couch, an experienced yachtsman, as well as a distinguished literary critic.

HAD TWO SKIRMISHES WITH GOMEZ. Insurgent Leader Retreated After Offering Slight Resistance. HAVANA, Nov. 30.—The columns of troops commanded by Brigadier General Oliver and Lopez have both been engaged twice with the insurgent forces commanded by Maximo Gomez in the province of Santa Clara.

DOES NOT END HERE. But it is claimed in diplomatic circles this move does not end the incident and is only a temporary withdrawal which will be followed at a more opportune moment by an insistence of the powers upon the observance of their treaty rights, which they contend allow them to have the extra guard ships for their embassies.

London Experiences the Sensations of Watching Professional Women Riders Fall Over a Board Track at the Aquarium.

(Copyright, 1895, by Press Publishing Company.) LONDON, Nov. 30.—(New York World Telegram—Special Telegram.)—Public interest in the Valkyrie-Defender dispute is unabated. It has been rather increased by an article in the Nineteenth Century, by A. T. Quiller-Couch, an experienced yachtsman, as well as a distinguished literary critic.

There is more prospect today than there was yesterday of a settlement of the great shipping strike on the Clyde, and that is welcome news for many thousands of families. Both sides recognize the fact that a number of important contracts for the building of ships will be lost unless work is resumed in the yards very soon.

Dr. Donaldson Smith of Philadelphia, the explorer of Semalland, has reached London in the best of health. Dr. Smith had a narrow escape from being killed by a rhinoceros on his way to the lakes, but he pushed onward, and succeeded in exploring the territory beyond, discovering many new tribes, the members of one of them being all under five feet high.

PRINCE HENRY GOES TO WAR. The resolve of Prince Henry of Battenberg to join the Ashantee expedition was vehemently opposed by Princess Beatrice, the World correspondent learns from an excellent source, until the direct intervention of the queen procured the desired permission for the prince.

One of the most eagerly awaited books of the next season will be Justin McCarthy's reminiscences, on which he has been actively engaged for some time. He has not yet decided to bring them down to the Parnell crisis, during which he had more than one highly dramatic private interview with Parnell, the circumstances of which have never been published.

The greatest entertainment of the season has been the racing between professional women cyclists at the Royal Aquarium. A wooden track, ten laps to the mile, was laid around the floor of the building, and the women were seen to start the race, and the track being raised at an angle of nearly thirty degrees to enable the riders to get around them.

Several accidents have occurred already. In one case a rider was thrown clear off the track, but she was not seriously hurt. The contestants are homely, they do not make good time. Yet still the Aquarium is crowded every night, though the prices of seats are quadrupled. The elite of London society of both sexes jostles the demimonde, with whom it is a favorite haunt.

A more striking demonstration of the intensity of the bicycle craze it is impossible to imagine. VENEZUELA HAS A CHANCE. The delay in the receipt of the British ultimatum in Venezuela is inexplicable, as the document was forwarded in time to reach Caracas about November 10.

Confirmed the News from Havana. MADRID, Nov. 30.—A dispatch received here from Havana says that a railroad train between Puerto Principe and Nuevitas, in the province of Puerto Principe, has been blown up by dynamite handled by the insurgents of Cuba.

Spanish Officers in Disgrace. HAVANA, Nov. 30.—Lieutenant Feljo and Sergeant Canovas, who were tried by court-martial yesterday on the charge of having surrendered Fort Pelayo on the Zaza river to the forces of Antonio Maceo, without a proper defense, were sentenced today. The lieutenant was condemned to imprisonment for life, and the sergeant was discharged from custody, as it was shown that he only obeyed the orders of his superior officer.

BRITAIN BACKS DOWN. Gunboat Ordered Back to Salonica at the Request of the Porte. NOT YET READY TO FORCE AN ISSUE. Turn of Affairs Quite Unexpected by the Diplomatic Corps.

SULTAN CORRECTLY READS THE SIGNS. Incident Said to Indicate All is Not Harmony Among the Powers. BRITISH MINISTER AND SULTAN CONFER. Said Pasha Informed that the Withdrawal of the Gunboat Was Only Temporary—Disturbances Must Cease.

(Copyright, 1895, by the Associated Press.) CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 29.—(Via Sofia, Bulgaria, Nov. 30.)—After all the warlike talk of yesterday, the British ambassador, Sir Philip Currie, has backed down and the sultan and his palace advisers are triumphant. The British gunboat Dryad, ordered from Salonica by Admiral Sir Michael Culm-Seymour, the commander of the British Mediterranean squadron, at the request of Sir Philip Currie, after the latter was assured on Tuesday last by Tewfik Pasha, the Turkish minister for foreign affairs, that the Porte had declined to grant the firmans allowing the extra guardships required by the representatives of the powers here to pass the Dardanelles, has been ordered back to Salonica.

This is to the diplomatic corps quite an unexpected denouement of a situation which had assumed a most dangerous aspect and the general opinion is that the powers have been placed in a most ridiculous position. Following the repeated threats of forcing the passage of the Dardanelles if the sultan persisted in refusing to allow the extra gunboats to enter the Bosphorus, this looks very much as if Abdul Hamid and his advisers were well informed when they persisted in holding out against the demands of the representatives of Great Britain, Russia, Italy and Austria for additional guardships, believing that they were justified in so doing on the ground that the powers are not in accord, as so frequently claimed and officially stated, and that the dissenting powers were behind Abdul Hamid in the stand he has taken.

SAID PASHA YESTERDAY succeeded in getting the British ambassador to refer the Dryad matter to his government. There was some delay, as stated in these dispatches yesterday, in obtaining a reply to the message to Lord Salisbury and this caused a report to spread among the Turkish officials that Great Britain would not do anything calculated in any way to hinder the efforts of the sultan to restore order and put in force the reforms advocated by the powers, and, therefore, in view of Abdul Hamid's strong objections, the demand for the extra guardships would not be carried to the extreme of forcing the passage of the Dardanelles.

But it is claimed in diplomatic circles this move does not end the incident and is only a temporary withdrawal which will be followed at a more opportune moment by an insistence of the powers upon the observance of their treaty rights, which they contend allow them to have the extra guard ships for their embassies. Even if this be true, it seems to show that the sultan and his advisers have once more triumphed over the representatives of the powers when the latter were officially announced to be in complete accord as to the drastic measures to be taken against Turkey.
