M'CANDLESS AND VINING DENOUNCED

Resolutions Adopted in Mass Meetings Declaring the Men Outeasts and Warning Them to Quit the Town.

LINCOLN, Nov. 30 .- (Special.)-The citizens of Waverly are in a state of indignation over the recent elopement of Dr. G. A. Mc-Candless and Druggist E. R. Vining. Nearly a month since they left, clandestinely accompanied by two young ladies of Waverly, Misses Alice Miller and Nancy Ward. Last evening the citizens hired a hall for the purpose of expressing their disapproval of the conduct of the two men. Two committees, one of women and another of men, were appointed to draft resolutions. The following

GOSSIP FROM THE STATE HOUSE. Commissions to Newly Elected Offi-cers to Be Forwarded This Week. LINCOLN, Nov. 30 .- (Special.) -- Secretary of State Piper says that the commissions of the newly elected state and district officers will be forwarded to them not later than Tuesday. They will include the commission to Judge Norris of the Fourteenth judicial district, as it is held that the impending contest to be instituted in the suprems court by Judge Welty will not affeet the action of the State Board of Canvassers, which found Judge Norris elected or the face of the returns by a plurality of two votes. The secretary of state is pre-paring a new form of commission for all the officers-elect. The old form used by Governor Crounse and preceding governors was thought to be too voluminous and verof bose. As yet no papers have been filed in the supreme court preliminary to contest.
