Skowhegan, and George B. Dunn, Houlton, Governor Cleaves, Hon. Liewellyn Powers and Herbert M. Heath all made brief epseches endorsing Reed and his policy. John O. Patton of Bath endeavored to introduce a resolution favoring legislation to dis-criminate in favor of American ships, but he was ruled out of order. He then tried to present the resolution as a minority report of the committee on resolutions, saving that if Mr. Reed favored American shipping it would not hurt him to say so. Mr. Patton was ruled out of order in this also, and the convention then adjourned.

His Namesake Club to Have a Stand

The enthusiasm that was displayed by the twenty members of the John L. Webster club who gathered in Washington hall last night was rather distilled. Almost every speaker announced that he had been up all the night before in attendance at the state convention jubilating thereafter and was consequently tired. Even Webster would not talk, but John L. Kennedy, County Judge Baxter and Henry Knodell supplied the vacuum as well as they could.

It was decided to prepare for a red hot meeting next Thursday night. The occasion will be a flag presentation, the banner being supplied by Webster. He will make the prespeech and John L. In this con-nection one of those present gave expression following sentiment: "I don't want nobody in this club except Americans from the top of his head to the bottom of his feet and republicans. I don't want nobody as member who has got one foot on the Tiber and the other on America."

The sentiment was heartly applauded, President Johnny Thompson found a good deal of satisfaction in the election of Webster as a delegate to the national convention and gave vent to himself. IT IS FREE SILVER OR A BOLT.

BROWNS OPEN SPLENDIDLY.

ST. LOUIS, April 16.—Fifteen thousand people passed through the stiles at Sportsman's park today to witness the opening game of the National league season between the Spiders and the St. Louis Browns. This was the largest crowd that ever attended an opening game here. The day was perfect and the enthusiasm of the big crowd of fans uproarious. They went wild over the playing of the home team, which put up a snappy game from the beginning. The Browns' fielding was perfect, while that of the visitors was not up to the standard set by last year's games won by the Spiders. They made two costly errors. Breitenstein was in good form and pitched a wonderful game, while Young was hit somewhat more freely. Monte Cross, as short step, made two costly errors, Breitenstein was in good form and pitched a wonderful several wonderful stops and his excellent throwing caught the crowd, who seemed willing to accept him as a worthy successor of Ely. Schneffer and Daly Put Up a Fine BOSTON, April 16.-Billiard enthusiasts were given two opportunities today to witness the contestants in the international billiard tournament at Bumstead half. Schueffer and Daly were drawn for the billiard tournament at Bumstead hall. Schaeffer and Daly were drawn for the afternoon game, which resulted in favor of Schaeffer, 300 to 200. In the evening Ivea and Garnier were matched and the former was an easy winner, the score being 300 to 286. All of the men put up some billiards, but a draw shot by Garnier fully half the length of the table, on which he scored, was one of the most clever witnessed during the tournament.

In the afternoon game things were dull for several innings, Schaeffer making four consecutive goose eggs after a run of twenty-two in the first inning. In the ninth, by a great masse play, he releemed himself and counted for thirty-five. Daly responded with a run of fourleen, made on open table work of a high order. Schaeffer took a rest until the eighteenth inning, when he got the balls going to his liking till his score had been increased by twenty-nine. In the next, by the same tactics, he scored twenty-relish. Daly kept pegging away at the balls with wonderful patience, but it was not till his twenty-fourth inning, when by the same masse work he counted for thirty. He added twenty-seven in the thirty-third. Daly in the thirty-seventh and thirty-ninh did some star cue work, making a number of cushion draws which aroused the spectators to an enthusiastic pitch. When Jake had made fourteen in the forty-second inning Daly suggested that the balls should be wiped off, which was done. On the very next shot Schaeffer fell down and retired to his chair with a look of intense disgust. In the forty-sixth he again gathered the balls and kept them in the corners for twenty-four, In his forty-ninth Daly put in some excellent billiards, scoring his highest run, twenty-three. Schaeffer did little till his fiftleth inning, when he ran out with nine-teen.

Local Knights Templar Tender Visiting Brothers a Banquet.

PREACHER AND LAYMAN SIT AT THE BOARD

Tenets of the Order Dwelt Upon at Length in the Responses. Stands for All that is Good in Society.

From 10 p'clock until midnight the bar queting hall in Masonic temple resounded with good cheer. At least 150 men were seated about the tables. It was no orgy, for the holy red cross twinkled from the cape of no inconsiderable numbers of the feasters. It was but an innocent feast of the Knights aside the sword and scabbard of the knight to take up the more useful and practical weapons of the hungry man. The affair was the annual banquet of Moun

Calvary commandery, which entertained as its guests the delegates to the state grand commandery, which convened in an nual session vesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock It might be looked upon as the aftermath of the ceremony of the earlier evening, the conferring of the illustrious order of the Red Cross by the local commandery.

Amidst the waving of green plants, which were set along the center of the tables, the collation was laid out in abundance and was attacked and conquered with knightly vigor. A string quartet provided a most enjoyable accompaniment throughout the feast. The music was also interspersed through the program of toasts which followed over the wine and cigars.

Edward J. Cornish was toastmaster. In behalf of the local commandery he welcomed the delegates as guests, and then at once called for responses to the toasts. Grand Master Charles B. Finch of Kearney was the first to be summoned. The grand master talked of the "Grand ommandery in Nebraska." He spoke briefly and to the point. He believed that the Tem-plar Knights formed the par excellence body of all societies. Upon this he dwelt and ex-FOUNDATION OF SOCIETY.

"The Red Cross Knight" was responded to by Samuel P. Davidson of Tecumseh, who described him as being the exponent of the 'almighty force and power of truth." entiment was the foundation stone of the ociety, he said, a sentiment which elevated and dignified and forced the members to accomplish as much good as was in their power. The society built up and strengthened virtue in the community, "did not strive to reconstruct a temple or city, but to build a new temple and city which would glisten in the light of God Himself." J. J. Monell responded to the "Lodge and Home" in a speech full of sense and beauty. He pictured the various "homes" that s young man possessed until he entered the deal one of the "happily married" The speaker used the term advisedly, for he said that a man could be "happily married" only when joined with a woman from promptings of "pure, unselfish love." all other marriages being "dangerous experi-ments." The speaker held that the lodge strengthened such a home, as it raised up losts of friends and furnished material aid in time of adversiby.

Thomas B. Lacey, who is grand master of Iowa and resides at Council Bluffs, responded to the "Grand Commandery of Iowa." He spoke of the growth of the Templars in his state, and especially upon the beauty and convenience of their meeting ground at Spirit Lake, which was open throughout the season to knights. He advised that the Nebraska commandery choose some like meeting place

"The Almighty Force and Power of Truth" was the toast assigned to R. P. R. Millar of Lincoln. He said that the motto constituted the cornerstone of the society. The doctrine was prominent throughout all masonry, but was especially so in the higher degrees. Mr. Millar interpreted it to mean that members must be truthful not only in works but also

ON THE SIDE OF THE CHURCH. In response to the toast, "The Christian Rev. T. J. Mackey said that the remplar body represented the highest scale religious. It was pledged to defend the Christian religion by throwing its influence on the side of the church. It pledged the members to practice the Christian virtues not to look out for themselves, but to help a allen brother and to whisper a word warning in the ear of him who was on the wrong track. This being the case, he urged that more attention should be paid to quality than the numbers of the candidates

Rev. F. H. Sanderson responded wittily to the toast of "Our Wives and Sweethearts." "Woman," he sa'd, "did not spring from the head of man to be ruler, nor from the feet to be downtrodden but from beneath the arms to be protected and from near the heart to be cherished." He humorously warned the knights to be on the lookou, as the new woman, threatened to invade the sacred precincts of knighthood and it might be needful to put a side saddle upon the goat and obtain bloomers and a bicycle. Rev. John McQuoid was to have been one of the speakers of the evening, but disap-peared before he was called.

The annual session of the commandery opened yesterday afternoon with over 100 delegates in attendance. The afternoon was opent in preliminary work, appointing com-mittees, hearing the reports of the retiring officers and other such matters. The hard work of the session will be begun this morning. The session will close tonight.

HOLMES RECEIVED IN THE CHURCH

Baptized in His Cell by Rev. P. J Dailey. PHILADELPHIA, April 16 .- H. H. Holmes was baptized and received into the Catholic church this morning. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. J. Dailey, pastor of the Church of the Annunciation, within the four walls of Holmes' cell. Father Dailey received from Holmes the confession of faith, which is required of those who enter the Catholic church. The condemned man went through the ceremony slowly and sol-emnly and with every evidence of sincerity Then followed the baptism, which was made conditional. Holmes was unable to fully satisfy Father Dailey that he had really baptized into the Congregational church, which he claims to have been a member since childhood. Had Father Dalley been aure that Holmes had been so baptized, the second ceremony would not have been per-formed, the first being recognized.

One phase of Holmes reception into the Catholic caurch is of peculiar interest. Catholies have impressed upon them from the oment they are received into the church the fact that no one who dies by his own hand can enter the kingdom of heaven; no suicide is now buried in consecrated ground. Holmes having embraced the Catholic faith so short a time before his execution has evidently decided to wait for the gallows rather than attempt self-destruction, if he ever contemplated it.

Short Talks on Legal Subjects. The law class of the Young Men's Christian association was given a series of lectures by a number of Omaha attorneys last evening, entitled "Practical Taiks on Comweeling, entitled "Tractical Taiks of Com-mon Law Subjects." Howard Kennedy gave a short lecture on Nebraska and general laws as applied to contracts; and was fol-ness forms in connection with notes and checks. H. W. Pennock gave rules for the suidance of real estate transactions, and the evening's instruction was concluded by Charles A. Goss, who talked on mortgages.

Suggestions Offered to the Secretary of the Nebenska Club. The secretary of the Immigration association of Oregon writes to Secretary Will amson of the Nebraska club as follows:

"Our immigration board is supported by voluntary subscriptions of the citizens of Portland. We are now soliciting subscriptions from the bankers, merchants and others. The solicitors are a committee of business men, it being their pride "hobby," I may say, to establish the We are taking subscriptions from $1 a month per year to any amount. So far we have fourteen who contribute $50 a month for twelve months—some at $35 per month, and many at $25, $29, $15, $19, and then we ac-

$250 a month to raise this week. The letter refers to methods of work which are similar to those proposed by the Ne braska club, except that greater discriming tion will be used by the latter as to bu its advertising matter will be distribute No promiscuous circulation of it will be mad Templar, who for the time being had laid but care exercised to place it in the hands is the most frequent cause of of the thousands directly interested in seek ing new locations. The club has already the names and addresses of hundreds of in-quirers as to Nebraska and this list is rapldiy increasing. The letter continues as fo "We expend our funds in advertising in the eastern states, in maintaining rooms and an exhibit in this city and a few agencies in eastern centers, in publishing pamphlets de scriptive of the entire Pacific northwest mailing them to all inquirers, and even mailing them promiscuously to people in certain states, whose names we obtain from the state gazetteers. In two different years we sent exhibit cars throughout the mid-dle and eastern states showing the natural products of our state. We give information as to vacant lands, or farms for sale, but do not buy nor sell nor act as agents under any circumstances whatever, for we think this would impair the efficiency of the board and its work."

The following represents a portion of the embscriptions received in Omaha recently by the Nebraska club committeemen: Nebraska Clothing company, $10; Parsons Commission company, $1; J. F. Twarnley & Co., $1; H. Romig, $1; A. G. Knapp, $1; Dr. C. C. Allison, $2; William D. Bancker, $5; Mary M. Pugh, $1; J. H. Gayhart, $10; C. H. Butler, $1; Nebraska Hay company, $1 J. E. Gordon, $1; Thomas Baker, $1; Dr. J. Holmquest, $1; William Schulze, $1; W. N

At a meeting of the stockholders of the club last evening Major Clarkson was elected to fill the vacancy on the board of directors, caused by the resignation of Judge Powell. T. L. Ringwalt was made secretary of the

Douglas county auxiliary. Commissioner Utt of the Commercial club was requested to fill the page held for a description of the advantages of Omaha and Douglas county in the circular that the Ne braska club is having printed. A hundred thousand copies of this circular will be distributed.
