SCORES A DISAPPOINTMENT

In Spite of Perfect Conditions Shooting Not Up to Expectation.

CRACKS APPEAR OUT OF CONDITION

Pew of Them that Do Not Show Cipher SomeWhere in the Column Entres Large in All the Events.

The twentieth annual tournament of the State Sportsmen's association opened yesterday morning on the new shooting grounds across the river.

While the attendance of spectators was small, considering the attractiveness of the affair, the weather was exceptionally fine and the shooters were all on hand and eager to get at the flying discs.

The shooting yesterday morning was not remarkable for its cleverness, there being an intangible something in the atmosphere that prevented startling scores, even on the part of such experts as Gilbert, Elliott, Parmelee, Grim, Loomis, Kellar, and others. In the wo events completed up to the noonday hour, not a single straight was made, in fact, the winners of first moneys knocking off at 18 and 19, respectively, out of 20. Local shooters are numerous, but the majority did not cut much of a figure in the results. To be sure the unerring Parme-lee was in on first money in the first event and G. W. Loomis took a piece of first in both events. In fact, Mr. Loomis is shooting with a speed that promises a mainte nance of this average. There was little or no breeze, and the traps working admirably, straight scores were confidently expected.

There was a much larger crowd of specta tors present in the afternoon and they seemed to have a beneficial effect upon the contestants as the improved scores will thow. Still there have been no startling performances as yet, but now, as the experts have got their bearings and have become familiar with the background against which they shoot, better things can be confidently

GREAT ARRAY OF TALENT. Without a doubt there is a great array of crackajack talent on hand, and the man who cannot trot along at a 90 per cent galt stands but little show of lining his wallet with simoleons or of distinguishing himself in the pages of trap shooting arnais. Yesterday, however, owing to the newnees of all the environments, the amateur was enabled to keep pace with the professional, and on the whole the score was a wonderfully well balanced one. When such world-famous cracks as Charle Budd, Alphabetical Elliot, Rollo Helkes, Frank Parmelec, Charlie Orimm, Fred Gilbert, Tom Kellar, Tom Mar-shall, and that crowd could not pass such shots as E. D. Trotter, Billy Brewer, Billy Duer, Spike Kennedy, Irvine Gardner, and that class, it goes to prove that there was something radically wrong with their lamps, ammunition or the way they "pinted her." Still they began to catch on to the thing yesterday afternoon, and will today probably show us some fine work.

One of the treats of the afternoon's card was Mrs. Milt Lindsley's shooting. She and more than held her own, getting six-teen birds out of the score, and beating no less than twenty-one of the forty-nine en-tries. "Wonder," as the lady is known in Jacket, heavy corduroy skirt, slouch hat and leggings. She handles her hammerless with the collness of an old veteran, and shatters the flying saucers with a heatness and dispatch that is really refreshing to behold.

The local champion, Colonel Parmelee, led on the day's averages, closely followed by Rolo Heikes of Dayton, O., Fred Gilbert of Spirit Lake and Major Sexton, while the biggest money winners were Peterson, Parmele, Heikes, Budh, Marshall, Loomis, Linderman i and Bigelow. Ed Totter of Kingaley, Ia., won the dress suit offered by Helin & Thompson, and arrayed in it, will be on exhibition in the big tent all this afternoon for the small sum of one dime.

The shooting will be resumed this morning at 9:30 sharp, there below. he trap world, makes a picture while at the WASHINGTON, April 21.—Today's game setween Brooklyn and Washington was one of the most exciting events contested in this contested in this contest of the second se of the most exclining events contested in this city. The pitching was not of a first class order on either side, but this only served to make possible brilliant fielding and speedy base rumping. HOFER WAS STEADY.

BALTIMORE, April 21.—Several times during the game today it looked as though the Beaneaters had an excellent chance, but luck, backed up by Hofer's steadiness when the bases were all full, seemed to be with the home team. Yerrick, in the box for Boston, was wild in the first half of the game, but toward the end settled down. The features of the game were the heavy batting of Fultimore and a wonderful juggling catch by Reitz, Attendance, 2,700. Score:

The wrestling bout, two out of three falls, catch as catch can, between H. Muente-fering and Occar Nast, welterweights, ended by consent in a draw. Nast secured a fall by a leg hold in two and one-half minutes from the call of time and many thought it was going to be easy for him. The second was not so easy, however; in fact it never came. Both men showed themselves very clever, Nast evidently being somewhat stronger, but Muentefering the more active. Both of them were on the mar repeatedly and each took a turn at being thrown from the platform. After a prolonged contest, at the suggestion of the management, they decided to declare it a draw.
