

PEN PICTURES PLEASANTLY AND POINTEDLY PUT.

BRICK POMEROY. Everybody knows him—and so does everybody know that we sell light coats and vests when the season comes—the season's come—so have the coats and vests—in blue and black serge—single and double-breasted—anybody who has worn our nobby coats knows what we mean—they're better than ever.

Albert Cahn, Omaha Van and Storage Company 1322 Farnam. Telephone 123. Mail orders filled always.

RUFUS W. PECKHAM. He had a reputation and they moved him up—maybe you have to move—It's better to have one big Yan come and take away a 7-room house at one load than have three or four small wagons take it—of course it costs less—and its done quicker and better—if you telephone 1559.

John Hussie Hardware, Company Consider our prices—2407 Cuming How little they are.

CAPTAIN MAHAN Is recognized authority the world over on naval matters—and so are we on gas matters—we have cracked up the "Jewel" gas stove so much that people have come to look upon us as authority—we do handle the only gas stove in town—the one that saves the gas and is the lowest in price—the "Jewel."

John Hussie Hardware, Company Consider our prices—2407 Cuming How little they are.

MARQUIS OF SALISBURY Rides a wheel—and the art of riding a wheel is taught daily at our large riding school on the third floor of our elegant building—school in charge of the experienced instructor—private lessons 50c—course of five lessons $2.00—anybody can learn—we guarantee to teach you to ride or your money refunded.

Columbus Buggy Co. C. King Denman, Bicycle Mgr. 1608 Harney

EDWARD J. PHELPS Was a diplomat of great mark—made a mark something like we've made in the carpet and curtain line—thought of carpets and curtains so much that there's nothing in the carpet and curtain line you can think of but what we thought of. You can think of but what we thought of.

Omaha Carpet Co. Only exclusive Carpet House here. 1515 Dodge

SIR CHARLES TUPPER May not have been a five-dollar man—but just the same he can wear a $5.00 shoe for $3.00—if he buys it of us—it's all nonsense paying two dollars more for shoes when you can get them for three dollars—that are guaranteed to be as good as any made—you'll believe it's so when you see them.

Drexel Shoe Co., 1419 Farnam Send for our illustrated catalogue.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN. The man whose picture always looks well in any kind of a frame—be it old or new—but your other pictures—we can frame them for less than you can buy the moulding anywhere else—and we can put on the latest style moulding, too—a large assortment to select from—including all the latest designs.

A. Hospe, jr, 1513 Douglas Music and Art

NOT UNTIL NEXT OCTOBER

Maximum Rate Cases Set Back Five Months for Hearing.

EASTERN IDEAS OF THE SLOCUMB LAW

Representative Haines Says Right a New York Preacher Who Has Some Crude Notions of Omaha Morals.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—(Special Telegram.)—The Nebraska maximum rate case will not be heard before October. There has been no time set for argument, the order of restoration being general in its character. The supreme court will adjourn on May 25, to convene again on October 2. The last argument will be heard May 8, which settles the maximum rate case for this term.

Chairman Powers of the Pacific railroad committee stated tonight that the bill might be reached in the house Tuesday of next week. This, however, depends upon pending matters which the speaker might desire to get out of the way.

The amount of misinformation abroad in the east as to the workings of the Slocumb high license law of Nebraska is appalling. To find ordinarily intelligent preachers inveighing against this law is no uncommon thing in the east. A rather interesting scene was witnessed in the city of New York on the 21st inst. when the Rev. Mr. Powell of New York City, in the course of a sermon, alluded to the Slocumb law of Nebraska, and in the course of the sermon, he alluded to the fact that the high license law had been passed in the interests of the big cities, Omaha particularly, and through a combination of liquor dealers and brewers, and that the law was a gross violation of the rights of the people.

But There Has Been No Clash of Authority with Washington. WASHINGTON, April 25.—There has been no friction between the national government and the government of the state of Washington by the action of the former, in relation to the occupation of Sand Island at the mouth of the Columbia river.

FEDERAL TROOPS GUARD THE ISLE.

The facts in the case, gleaned here, are that the state authorities applied to the United States military authorities at Fort Stevens, Wash., for the occupation of Sand Island, which is a part of the United States military reservation, to expel certain strikers, who threatened to destroy private property, consisting of fish traps and fishing boats, which the strikers hold exclusive jurisdiction over such reservations and may not waive it in favor of a state, the state authorities were informed their request could not be complied with.

Case Against Carlisle Postponed.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The case of William Carlisle against the New York City against Secretary Carlisle to compel the latter to return to him $450,000 of the recent issue of bonds to which Graves claims he is entitled through acceptance of his bid, will be heard in the district supreme court here on Saturday. The case came up before Judge Cole today and was deferred at the request of the counsel for Graves, who wanted more time to examine Secretary Carlisle's reply. Several other cases against Carlisle appeared for the afternoon.

Pension Bill to Be Taken Up.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The house program for next week was considered today by the committee on rules. It was decided to let the debate on the pension bill continue for a reasonable time, and, as many members of the house are expected to be absent, there may be several night sessions for speech making, most of which will be done by the republicans. No rule to limit debate on the pension bill was proposed.

INSANE MAN KILLS FIVE PERSONS.

MURDERER FINALLY CAPTURED. ROCKVILLE, Ind., April 25.—Pete Egbert, a carpenter, 22 years old, unmarried, this morning, without apparent cause or provocation, shot and instantly killed Mrs. Herman Haske and two children, next door neighbors. He then reloaded his gun, and, coming upon William Swed in the First National bank doorway, Egbert pulled up his weapon and shot the sheriff in the back of the head, killing him instantly. Egbert then turned and received a charge of buckshot in his neck, falling at the bank steps and expiring instantly.

HOW WE GO TO SLEEP.

It is a curious fact that when the good Somnus takes drowsy mortals in his care, the process of going to sleep is accomplished as systematically as in any other purely physical function, says the Philadelphia Record.

HOUSE HAS A NIGHT SESSION

Further Debate on Pensions During the Afternoon.

BARTLETT TAKES MAHANY TO TASK

Complains of the Letter's Attack on a Congressman McClellan—A Question of Words.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—In the house tonight for general debate on the pension bill and after an unsuccessful attempt by Mr. Pickler to get unanimous consent for the consideration of a resolution to set aside Saturday, May 2, for the consideration of private pension bills, and by Mr. Terry, democrat of Arkansas, to take up a private pension bill, the house resumed consideration of the Pickler pension bill. Mr. Bartlett, democrat of New York, speaking in opposition.

QUESTION OF REVENUE.

Mr. Platt, republican of Connecticut, opposed going on with the bill and added: "If we are to enter upon the correction of tariff matters, we should have a revenue question first, and then we should have a tariff question."

SUNDAY CIVIL BILL PASSED.

After this flurry the consideration of the sundry civil appropriation bill was resumed. Mr. Perkins, republican of California, secured a new amendment appropriating $200,000 for a revenue cutter of the first class for the Pacific coast, and Mr. Frye, republican of Maine, had the number of the revenue cutters of the Pacific coast increased from one to two, to cost $400,000 for both.

Presidential Nomination.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The president today sent to the senate the nomination of Charles C. Field as postmaster at Puyallup, Wash.

FREE ALCOHOL WILL STAY.

Senators Decline to Enter upon an Extended Tariff Debate.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The tariff question made its appearance unexpectedly in the senate today, and for a time it looked as though the routine of considering appropriation bills would give way to a general tariff debate. Mr. Sherman endeavored to secure action on the bill relating to fruit brandies and alcohol used in the arts.

HELP FOR PACIFIC ROADS

Report of the House Committee on the Refunding Bill.

ARGUMENT IN FAVOR OF THE MEASURE

Chairman Powers Urges that the Railroads Have Fully Complied with Every Requirement of the Government.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Chairman Powers of the house committee on Pacific railroads today presented to the house the report of the majority of the committee on the Pacific railroad bill. It makes a very comprehensive and exhaustive document, and contains very briefly the familiar history of the legislation by which the government granted subsidy bonds to the Pacific roads and then outlines exhaustively the provisions which congress has made from time to time for the repayment of the bonds.

MODIFIES CENTRAL'S LEASE.

The bill requires the Southern Pacific lease of the Central to be modified so that the Central will be guaranteed the indebtedness of the Central. The report estimates $4,000,000 to be a fair average of the annual earnings of the roads and that the Central will receive $2,000,000 more each year than the income of that year could discharge.

TRAIN DISPATCHER'S STORY.

The Cincinnati saloonkeeper with whom Jackson left Pearl Bryan's valise, testified that the valise was a woman's valise, and that the woman was a blonde woman coming to the drug store in the afternoon on Friday before the finding of the body, and asking for ferries to Walnut Hill. Mrs. Kate Holmes of Bellevue testified to seeing this woman in the drug store on the same day, talking to Mr. Foster. Mr. Foster testified that he talked with these people and that it was on Thursday or Friday, between 11 and 12 o'clock.

THE WATCH DOG'S NAP.

By constant working at it for thirty years, writes Champ Clark in the St. Louis Republic, Judge Holman of Indiana had built up a national reputation as an economist and a national expert on a great country's proud brigades of "The Watch Dog of the Treasury." There was, however, a suspicion in the minds of a great many people that the Watch Dog suddenly took a nap.

WHAT A HAT MAY HOLD.

The rose turban is a brilliant example of the amount of color and style that can be crowded into one conscientious millinery effort. It is made up of dozens of crush roses, shading from the delicate pink of the La France to the deep, velvety carmine of the Black Prince rose; leaves in various shades of spring green are used liberally, and thorned stems stand tall and straight in company with the Black agrestie. The violet and magenta turbans are less gorgeous than the rose hat, but when they are found altogether they would surely yield to the Black Beauty rose in place of the knot of violets.

PROOF OF JACKSON'S CRIME

Soldiers Placed on the Witness Stand by the Prosecution.

NET SLOWLY CLOSING ABOUT THE ACCUSED

Witnesses for the State Add Link After Link to the Chain of Evidence Against Pearl Bryan's Murderer.

NEWPORT, Ky., April 25.—The interest in the trial of Scott Jackson does not abate in the least. Twenty-one witnesses were examined today. Most of these were simply to fill gaps in the testimony already given or to corroborate the same. There was a strong evidence to show that the ground where the body was found, near Fort Thomas, was soaked with blood nearly a foot deep. The paucity of blood on the surface has been one of the most striking points on which the defense has dwelt.

TRAIN DISPATCHER'S STORY.

The Cincinnati saloonkeeper with whom Jackson left Pearl Bryan's valise, testified that the valise was a woman's valise, and that the woman was a blonde woman coming to the drug store in the afternoon on Friday before the finding of the body, and asking for ferries to Walnut Hill. Mrs. Kate Holmes of Bellevue testified to seeing this woman in the drug store on the same day, talking to Mr. Foster. Mr. Foster testified that he talked with these people and that it was on Thursday or Friday, between 11 and 12 o'clock.

THE WATCH DOG'S NAP.

By constant working at it for thirty years, writes Champ Clark in the St. Louis Republic, Judge Holman of Indiana had built up a national reputation as an economist and a national expert on a great country's proud brigades of "The Watch Dog of the Treasury." There was, however, a suspicion in the minds of a great many people that the Watch Dog suddenly took a nap.

WHAT A HAT MAY HOLD.

The rose turban is a brilliant example of the amount of color and style that can be crowded into one conscientious millinery effort. It is made up of dozens of crush roses, shading from the delicate pink of the La France to the deep, velvety carmine of the Black Prince rose; leaves in various shades of spring green are used liberally, and thorned stems stand tall and straight in company with the Black agrestie. The violet and magenta turbans are less gorgeous than the rose hat, but when they are found altogether they would surely yield to the Black Beauty rose in place of the knot of violets.

THREE PLANS PRESENTED.

Three possible lines of policy seemed open to the government, Mr. Powers states, viz.: "First—To enter into possession of the property which would involve the immediate payment of $1,385,000 first mortgage bonds.

CONDITION OF THE TREASURY.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Today's statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $271,388,686; gold reserve, $122,177,337.

CONDITION OF THE TREASURY.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Today's statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $271,388,686; gold reserve, $122,177,337.

THREE PLANS PRESENTED.

Three possible lines of policy seemed open to the government, Mr. Powers states, viz.: "First—To enter into possession of the property which would involve the immediate payment of $1,385,000 first mortgage bonds.

CONDITION OF THE TREASURY.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Today's statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $271,388,686; gold reserve, $122,177,337.

THREE PLANS PRESENTED.

Three possible lines of policy seemed open to the government, Mr. Powers states, viz.: "First—To enter into possession of the property which would involve the immediate payment of $1,385,000 first mortgage bonds.

CONDITION OF THE TREASURY.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Today's statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $271,388,686; gold reserve, $122,177,337.

THREE PLANS PRESENTED.

Three possible lines of policy seemed open to the government, Mr. Powers states, viz.: "First—To enter into possession of the property which would involve the immediate payment of $1,385,000 first mortgage bonds.

CONDITION OF THE TREASURY.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Today's statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $271,388,686; gold reserve, $122,177,337.

THREE PLANS PRESENTED.

Three possible lines of policy seemed open to the government, Mr. Powers states, viz.: "First—To enter into possession of the property which would involve the immediate payment of $1,385,000 first mortgage bonds.

CONDITION OF THE TREASURY.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Today's statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $271,388,686; gold reserve, $122,177,337.

THREE PLANS PRESENTED.

Three possible lines of policy seemed open to the government, Mr. Powers states, viz.: "First—To enter into possession of the property which would involve the immediate payment of $1,385,000 first mortgage bonds.

CONDITION OF THE TREASURY.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Today's statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $271,388,686; gold reserve, $122,177,337.

THREE PLANS PRESENTED.

Three possible lines of policy seemed open to the government, Mr. Powers states, viz.: "First—To enter into possession of the property which would involve the immediate payment of $1,385,000 first mortgage bonds.