Commissioners Object to the Granting of a Ferry License.

APPLICANT MUST MAKE CONCESSIONS

Present Fees on the Stateenth Street Ferry Are Held to Be Prohibitive by the

The Board of County Commissioners held an adjourned session yesterday morning, principally for the purpose of passing the pay roll. William F. Parker applied to the board or a license to operate a ferry across the Missouri river. Referred to committee on

The application of Parker stated that he had kept a ferry in operation at the intersection of Sixteenth street and the Missouri river since March, 1894, and that said ferry had become a part of a regular highway by the people living in Iowa, north and northwest of Omaha, in going to and from Omaha, being at least ten miles shorter than by any other road. The scale of prices proposed to The prices were as follows: Footmen, 10 cents; bicycle and rider, 15 cents; all chiliren under 6 years of age, free; all children nd carriage or other vehicle, 50 cents; four horses and rig. 75 cents; horses and cattle the not harnessed to vehicle, 10 cents each; of sheep and swine not loaded in wagons, 10

there were numerous places under the pave-ments where the sewer trenches had settled, leaving a space through which a man could walk upright for a block or more. In many The negotiations looking toward the opening of the Willow Springs d stillery, which were mentioned exclusively in The Bee some time ago, have been completed. The plant heavy traffic the payements have been broken will begin active operations next Monday through and repaired at considerable ex-pense. In any case the storm water washes morning, and about fifty men will be employed at the start.

This is the final result of the complications rain, and eventually the street becomes dan-gerous. One of the most recent cases is on in which the plant has been involved since Thirtieth, between Spaulding street and it passed into the control of the Whisky Ames avenue, where the sewer is down for a distance of 150 feet. On Ames avenue a distance of 150 feet. On Ames avenue there is a stretch of more than 100 feet where the trench has sunk six feet on an thrown out of employment. As long as the average. These negotiations have been in progress for several months. The papers repairs at the public expense.

Chairman Munro of the Board of Public Works lays the trouble to the rapidity with which public improvements were carried on during the boom times. A street was laid out, the grade established, sewer and water pipes put in, and then the street was paved before the trenches were scacely filled. The result was that in many cases pavements before the trenches were scarcely filled. The result was that in many cases pavements were laid over improperly filled trenches and Mr. Her says that, while the distillery will not be opened to its full capacity Monday, the neglect was thus concealed for years. Eventually the trenches were so completely the force will be increased later in the season and as soon as the corn crop begins to move washed out that the pavements gave way, but the discovery came too late to hold the contractor for the damage. Mr. Munro says it will then be run up to the limit of its capacity. He has no doubt of his ability to do a sucthat for the past few years particular atten-tion has been paid to the matter and that cossful business independent of the trust and expects to keep the plant in constant operatio.
