PROHIBS SPLIT ON SILVER

Money Fight Will Be Keen in the Pittsburg Convention.

LOSING PARTY WILL PROBABLY SECEDE

First Test of Strength on the Money Question Will Be Precipitated the Temporary Chairmanship.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 26.-That there will be a split in the prohibition party as a result of tomorrow's convention leaders of both factions freely admit tonight. The plank in the platform. As yet, scatcely a and E. E. Balch.

Captain H. E. Palmer was opposed to endersing Mr. MacColl, for the reason that he believel it would do him more injury than sorbing topic of discussion, and it has become a bitter and acrimonious discussion. The bitterness of feeling increases hourly, and when the convention meets it promises to be a little battle of extermination. in the platform by the eastern delegates, then those favoring the free coinage of allver at a fatio of 16 to 1 will secede. If, on the other hand, the silver delegates standard crowd will leave and should the convention fail to declare for woman suf-frage the feminine portion of the convenwill sever its connection-with the party. It promises to be a memorable convention for the prohibitionists, and bids fair to wreck the party.

As yet no move has been made by any of the contending factions for a compro-mise. Each faction seems possessed by an undying confidence in its ability to worst its opponents and scoffs at the idea of making terms. There were three caucuses today. One was held by the women, who decided that unless a suffrage plank were Inserted in the platform they would leave the party. Then the free silver wing caucussed and declared their leader should run upon a "broad gauge" platform or none at all, and, finally, the single issue crowd came together and announced that neither free silver, woman suffrage, nor anything else but prohibition should be mentioned in the platform.

The broad gauge or free silver people have been bitterly upbraiding Samuel Dickie for what they term his "traitorous conduct." He is national chairman and a delegate from Michigan and is out for a gold standard in money affairs. Ex-Governor St. John and the other leaders of the broad gauge wing have openly accused Mr. Dickie of violating the instructions of his people. In reply to these accusations Mr. Dickle said ex-Governor St. John and his free silver clique were guilty of uttering untruths. He justified his action in advocating a gold sandard by the statement that he had informed the Michigan convention when it instructed him by a majority of 100 for free silver that he did not inlend to abide by such instructions and asked that another be selected to take his place. WHERE THE LEADERS STAND.

The leading candidates for the presidential nomination have made public declarations as to where they stand on money matters. Joshua Levering, after announcing his adherency to a gold standard, said: "If the convention sees fit to adopt a broad gauge platform. I cannot assent to the use of my name. Neither could I be a candidate in case the party saw fit to place in charge of the coming campaign officials who entertain views opposed to my own on these

Dr. Bentley meets Mr. Levering half way and reiterates his statement, ex-cept that his is diame rically opposite in tener. He said: "We in the west cannot go back to our people and tell them we want their votes for prohibition alone. We have hard times in the west. Our people believe the currency system is at fault and must have a plain spoken declaration from us on that point. We are for free silver, equal John is of the belief that the broad gauge candidate will be nominated on the first bal-lot. "We have a majority of 100 now and I think it will be increased by tomorrow,

Samuel Dickie of the single issue faction is equally sanguine that free silver will be defeated. But whichever way it may result, Mr. Dickie is of the belief that ne outcome will be a split.
All the leaders are here and also about all the candidates and delegates. Then there are thousands of visitors from all parts of the country who have come to watch the proceedings. It is said by some of the enthusiastic believers in prohibition that over 10,000 people will attend the conven-tion. It was decided at the caucus of the free silver delegates to support O. W. Stew-art of Illinois for permanent chairman of the convention, Rev. Dr. Charles H. Bentley of Nebraska for president and J. H. Southgate of South Carolina for vice president. During the progress of the caucus the gold standard faction was severely de-nounced and several of the speakers had some harsh things to say regarding Chair-

At a meeting of the central committee of the national prohibition party tonight, A. A. Stevens, a narrow gauge man, was se-lected as temporory chairman of the national convention tomorrow. Mr. J. Wheeler of New York was the candidate of the opposition, but when a vote had been cast and it had been shown that the gold man had been successful, the silver men withdrew. The latter were, however, not disheartened. They counted on their strength in the convention as presented by their lleutenants. At this stage the committee adjourned and the result in convention depends upon the ability of those who are leading the opposing

VETERANS TURN DOWN BROATCH. Report Submitted Setting Forth His Unfriendliness to Old Soldiers.

There was a largely attended meeting of league at Garfield hall last night, at which matters political occupied most of the evening. After receiving the report of the committee on employment the league went into executive section to receive the report of the executive committee, which was mainly devoted to the discussion of political matters. The report stated the fact that W J. Broatch had on all occasions refused to do justice to the old soldiers. He had re-fused to give them employment in municipal offices and had even turned out old veteran-to make room for men with a political pull Therefore, they recommended that the veter-ans all go to the primaries and set the seal of their disapproval on his ambition to be governor of the state. > John Butler replied to Edwards. He said that the backbone of the powerful combination referred to had consisted of E. Rose-water and that to his personal knowledge Broatch had sent W. J. Connell to offer Rosewater everything he could ask if he would support him in his present ambition. Butler then proceeded to pass some scathing criticisms on Breatch's record and specified various instances in which he had turned down old soldiers because they did not have political pull.

Speeches were made by half a dozen other comrades. They were almost unanimous in condemning Broatch, but it was urged that it was unwise to endorse MacColl when there were three candidates for the office of governor besides Broatch, who were veterans. It was urged that it would be unwise to endorse any one at this time and after some solved that no action should be taken.

Democrats of Oklahoma Declare Themselves for Free Silver. OKLAHOMA CITY, Okl., May 26.-The emocratic territorial convention met in this city today and, after the stormiest time ever seen in Oklahoma, endorsed Bland for president, instructed the six delegates of Oklahoma to vote for him and to favor the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, and to support no candi-date for president or vice president who was not pronouncedly in favor of free coinage. Resolutions endorsing the national and ter-ritorial democratic administrations were de-feated by large majorities. The resolutions demand home rule; free homesteads for all the homesteaders on Oklahoma public lands; recognition of belligerency for Cuban in-surgents, and denounce McKinley as the greatest financial straddler of modern times. Nearly every county in Oklahoma had a can didate for delegate and the convention after a tedious and hotly contested session, adjourned. The delegates to the national convention are: A. J. CONTESTING FOR POLITICAL HONORS

Pight in the Seventh Congressional District is Getting Very Warm. DES MOINES, May 26.—(Special Tele gram.)-The congressional fight in this, the Seventh district, for the republican nomination is getting hot. Today arrangements were made for a series of joint debates between Captain J. A. T. Hull, the incumbent, and James G. Berryhill of this city, hio leading competitor. It is conceded that if either of these capture the full vote of this county he will be nominated. The fight is a bitter one. Berryhill is attacking Hull's record, especially his vote in favor of the bill to allow railroads to pool. He finally challenged Hull to a series of joint debates and today the arrangements were completed.
One meeting will be held in this city
Wednesday evening, another on the following evening, then there will be meetings at Polk City and Mitchellville in this county and after that the other counties in the district will probably have a meeting. Meantrict will probably have a meeting. Mean-time candidates are springing up all over the district, ni the hope that Polk will divide and they will come in for a chance in the fight.

REPORT OF BOOK COMMITTEE IS ADOPTED

Some Opposition Was Raised to the Appointment of a Book Editor, but the Committee Was Fisnally Upheld.

CLEVELAND, O., May 26,-This was a busy day in the Methodist Episcopal conference, and it was found necessary to hold three sessions. At the forenoon session the Impressive ceremonies incident to the installation of the three bishops-elect, McCabe, Cranston and Hartsell, attracted much interest. At the afternoon temperance was the subject under discussion, and the committee report, which was adopted, shows that the Methodist church is still the uncompromiscould work just as effectively at the polls ing foe of the liquor traffic. An important without adopting resolutions and it was a step was taken in requiring the board of bishops to memorialize congress to modify the internal revenue laws so as to give them less the semblance of statutes intended to mark that he was for Broatch. The conference did not take kindly to the proposition and for an hour it was discussed pro and con. George C. Sturgis made the report for the Book concern and defended it against the objections of the opposition.

After the reading of the book committee report Dr. Lanahan arose and opposed it by saying that he thought a careful examinaference bad about one officer for every eleven or twelve delegates. He was fol-lowed by W. V. Kelley, editor of the Meth-odist Review and book editor, who also spoke against it, saying that he did not think the time had come for such an editor

Frequent flights of oratory and a parliamentary tangle was the result and then a recess was taken without anything definite being decided. BISHOPS ARE CONSECRATED.

When the conference again convened the pecial order—the consecration of the three newly elected bishops—was taken up. Bishop Bowman presided and brought up the rear of the line of bishops, elders and candi-dates. He announced the singing of the hymn, "Heralds of the Cross," and after the vast audience had sung the hymn hrough, still standing, Bishop Vincent read the collect as follows:

Almighty God, who by Thy Son, Jesus Christ, didst give to Thy holy apostles, elders and evangelists many excellent gifts and didst charge them to feed Thy flocks, give grace, we beseech Thee, to all the ministers and pastors of Thy church that they may diligently preach Thy word and duly administer the dally administration thereof; and grant to the people that they may obediently follow the same, that all may receive the crown of everlasting glory, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Subsequent to this came the actual cere-mony of consecration, the most important eature of the entire conference. The canfeature of the entire conference. The candidates were presented before the assembled multitude by the elders. They are: Charles Cardwell McCabe, by Rev. L. D. McCabe, D. D., and Rev. T. C. Iliff, D. D.; Earl Cranston, by Rev. D. L. A very im-posing service was the formal examination of the candidates and invocation of divine after prayer by Bishop Fowler came the important movement of the laying on of hands and presentation of the bible indicative to consecration as bishop of Christ's chosen pastors. For candidate McCabe there officiated Bishops Foster, Bowman and Hurst; for Candidate Cranston, Bishops Mer-rill, Bowman and Walden; for Candidate Hartsell, Bishops Warren, Bowman and Foss, and the presenters in each instance. Bishop Joyce offered prayer when the consecration had been effected and then Bishop Newman announced the hymn "The Min-ister's Only Business," which was sung standing.

On motion it was decided to transact no further business of the conference in open session until afternoon. The meeting was brought to a conclusion with the benediction, pronounced by Bishop Foster.

SPARRING OVER TEMPERANCE. The conference resumed business at 3 p. and passed the afternoon mainly in parl amentary sparring. The report of the tem-perance committee was adopted as read, the main provisions being as follows. It de-clares it to be the duty of each member of the church to be a total abstainer; it condemns license, asserting that the government becomes partner in the traffic by permitting the sale of liquor; it declares that the only proper attitude of the church toward the raffic is relentless enmity.

The following recommendations are made by the report: That temperance societies be-organized in all annual conferences; that the objections of the Anti-Saloon league he approved and that the church co-operate with it; that the fourth Sunday in November he set apart as temperance Sunday and careful attention he given to the configurations. attention be given to the regular quarterly Sunday achool temperance lessons; that the poard of b'shops memorialize congress, askng the government to so adjust the interna venue laws as not to make it appear that he liquor traffic is legalized and legislated or in states where prohibition obtains; that on temperance Sunday a collection be taken -fourth to go to the general conference ommittee on temperance, one-fourth to the nnual conference committee, and one-half o the quarterly conference committee. The eport advised the forming of such temper-nce committees.

There was much debate and two hours of parliamentary skirmishing over the latter part of the missionary committee's report. The conference agreed to the formation of a central conference in China, with the con-sent of the bishops; to the changing of the gulf mission to a missionary conference and to Sunday echool collections for missionary purposes at least once a month. The recommendation that the field agents be appointed by the board of managers was not concurred in. The fight over the representation of lay delegates in missionary conferences called out some very earnest speeches. As adopted the report provides that missionaries may sit in missionary annual conferences on invitain missionary annual conferences on invitations and vote on all questions except those involving the character of ministers and their conference
