

SPORT FOR THE ROSS MONTH

Curry Gossip on Events at Home and Abroad.

JIM AND THE TIGER OF THE WATERS

Opening of the Troutling Meet—The Pennant Chase—Chat with the Boxers and Shooting and Fishing.

With the match between Maher and Slavin off, the next best thing to chat about in this line is the victory of George Lavigne over England's premier lightweight, Dick Burke, in a contest which was clean, thorough and effective.

Well, Dick McCoy is not a champion yet by a long shot, is he? It will be interesting to hear from the fight toots now, since handsome, clever, old Dick Moore all but put the kid to rest on Saturday night.

To say that McCoy's stock has gone down would be mildly expressing it. He showed no more of his gasconade bluster than he has ever shown.

It looks as if Iowa was bound to produce the champion sprinter. For years the state has been a rendezvous for professionals and at one time, several years ago, it contained no less an illustration than Harry Badams, H. M. Johnson, Fred Stone, Reddy Ross, Kittleman, the Houghs, Pulley, Cople and Flynn.

The "Darry"—the blue ribbon event of the English turf, was run at Epsom Downs last Wednesday. The usual Derby throng assembled on the famous course and the same old fight was fought as in the years gone by.

The beating sustained by Handicap at Morris park in the Belmont affair on Tuesday kept him out of the handicap at Gravesend Thursday, and the fancy unloaded on which Cornell was the great favorite.

The Yale crew is at last on the bosom of the big brawny scow to England. The clamor regatta at Henley is but a little more than a fortnight away and the great event is the one theme which college men have no time to talk upon.

of course, was nervous, but exultant, and now that it is all over, true to the legend of the craft, is proud to drink last year.

With the match between Maher and Slavin off, the next best thing to chat about in this line is the victory of George Lavigne over England's premier lightweight, Dick Burke, in a contest which was clean, thorough and effective.

Halma, the great one of Hanover, who months ago was thought to be a likely candidate for the Brooklyn Handicap, however, has been in the water since he was a pup.

Learned America's lawn tennis champion for that is about his measure—is cutting a pretty wide swath on the other side of the water.

JIM AND HIS BRO—PICKEREL.

Another Week with the Vortaries of Field and Stream.

Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, is an ardent angler and a great fisherman. He is not only a good angler, but a good fisherman.

On March 15 Senator Wilson introduced in the senate a bill "to authorize the secretary of the treasury to acquire certain lands in Alaska for the breeding of foxes."

No, Jim didn't see any of these things. He was absorbed in his melancholy reveries over the pervasiveness of the lethargic denseness of the deep, and the probable outlook for the future.

live, and where the foxes are fed regularly and where they soon learn to come for their food.

Photographs taken at feeding time showed the foxes eating from troughs and quarrelling over choice morsels like dogs in a kennel.

ON THE BALL FIELD.

The Big Race and Gossip Along the race for the pennant in the big leagues during the past week was the passing of Baltimore by the Clevelanders, who again topped the list and this time with the most wins and the best batting average.

Freeman is credited with saying that he would not trade the New York team as at present it is the best in the league.

Archie Latham will not remain with Scranton very long. The stage will know him from now on—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Will the Cincinnati ever reach first place again? We doubt it—New York Morning Advertiser.

Sam Crane calls Cunningham "a fresh young hoodlum" and says that he would not trade the New York team as at present it is the best in the league.

Speaking of Willie Bill Traffey reminds me that the senior pitcher has capped the record with his 200th victory.

After six long, weary, lagging years Grandpa Anson and Fritz Pfeiffer have again won the pennant.

It looks very much as if Big Basie had run up against the Cincinnati base ball big leaguers.

CAN WE GET THEM?

The Australian Cricketers for a Game.

OMAHA, June 4.—To the Sporting Editor of the Bee: I notice that in your sport page in last Sunday's paper you suggest that the various cricket clubs of Omaha offer the Australians inducements to stop off here on their way to the coast next fall.

of course, was nervous, but exultant, and now that it is all over, true to the legend of the craft, is proud to drink last year.

Photographs taken at feeding time showed the foxes eating from troughs and quarrelling over choice morsels like dogs in a kennel.

ON THE BALL FIELD.

The Big Race and Gossip Along the race for the pennant in the big leagues during the past week was the passing of Baltimore by the Clevelanders, who again topped the list and this time with the most wins and the best batting average.

Freeman is credited with saying that he would not trade the New York team as at present it is the best in the league.

Archie Latham will not remain with Scranton very long. The stage will know him from now on—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Will the Cincinnati ever reach first place again? We doubt it—New York Morning Advertiser.

Sam Crane calls Cunningham "a fresh young hoodlum" and says that he would not trade the New York team as at present it is the best in the league.

Speaking of Willie Bill Traffey reminds me that the senior pitcher has capped the record with his 200th victory.

After six long, weary, lagging years Grandpa Anson and Fritz Pfeiffer have again won the pennant.

It looks very much as if Big Basie had run up against the Cincinnati base ball big leaguers.

CAN WE GET THEM?

The Australian Cricketers for a Game.

OMAHA, June 4.—To the Sporting Editor of the Bee: I notice that in your sport page in last Sunday's paper you suggest that the various cricket clubs of Omaha offer the Australians inducements to stop off here on their way to the coast next fall.

SEE OUR LINE OF NEW TRAPS. Over 250 different styles to make your selections from. No trouble to show OUR STOCK. All work perfect. In the construction of our vehicles every effort will be made to excel all previous years, and make them the ACME OF PERFECTION IN DESIGN, LUXURY, FINISH AND QUALITY.

THE WHEEL. That held up 16 men at one time, a total weight of 2,445 pounds. THE REMINGTON. The Strongest, Finest, Most Strictly High Grade. WOLFE ELECTRICAL. 1614 Capitol Ave. OMAHA, NEB. Agents Opp. new P. O.

THE REMINGTON. We make a specialty of rubber wheels.

LOUIS FLESCHER The Bicycle Repairer. Having had over ten years experience in Bicycle Repairing, his work is no experiment, but is correct and reliable every time.

DOCTOR. Searles & Searles SPECIALISTS IN Nervous, Chronic and Private Diseases. WEAK MEN. Cured for life and the pain thoroughly eradicated.

magistrate, who did not dare face the bride in so trying an ordeal. "My makes" I don't see why he should have any feeling about it, why he should let him kiss me if he tried to," said the bride.

Remarks His Former Bride. Joseph Stultz was released from the southern Indiana prison the other day, after completing a ten years' sentence. The story of the crime which placed him behind prison bars is a strange one.