

THEY GIVE UP THE FIGHT

Gang of Tramps Which Squatted at Blair

RESIDENTS OF THE PLACE MUCH RELIEVED

Unable to Force the Trampmen to Carry Their Free, They Break Camp and Scatter—
Railway Notes.

The fight between the railroads and the gangs of tramps that have been infesting the suburban territory adjacent to the city for the past week is about over and the hoboes have come out of the conflict with the honors of second place. On Saturday there were nearly 100 members of the order gathered at Blair. They declared that they were going to ride northward to the grain fields of the Dakotas in search of work. They also stated that they had no intention of paying the regular fare or of giving any other consideration for their transportation.

Under Superintendent Jaynes had cut out the section of one freight train containing the weary walkers and had run all other trains through Blair at a high rate of speed, the hoboes concluded that the railroad was getting the long end of the bargain. Sunday was spent in consultation.

It was decided that they must move out of Blair, for the residents there were not extending the glad hand to any noticeable extent. It was agreed that one more desperate effort would be made to get out on the first freight that came through. If such effort failed it was understood that the lodge should be abandoned and that its members should disband.

Some of the travelers succeeded in getting out of Blair on the freight that went through Sunday afternoon, but the greater number were left. A number of the latter class worked their way into Omaha by some means or other. When Ticket Agent Mitchell of the Webster street station opened his window yesterday morning he was confronted by about a score of the hoboes. They meekly purchased their tickets for Sioux City and didn't expect to be taken to court for the amount they were supposed to pay.

Another flock of the tramps abandoned the lodge Blair Sunday night. They were making their way northward and it is uncertain whether they will locate another lodge along the Omaha road or not. The departure of the gang is a great relief to the residents of Blair, Calhoun and neighboring places. Many Omahans have their summer homes located along this line and their wives and children have been afraid to venture beyond their porches for the past few days on account of the presence of the motley crowd. One prominent citizen loaded up and departed Saturday night and declared that he was prepared to receive all the kind of "weary vagabonds" and "saturated sam" who wandered onto his premises.

CONCERNING THAT RAILROAD MAIL.

Mr. Holdegreve of the Burlington Issues an Order.

The circular recently issued by Postmaster General Wilson drawing the lines closely about all railway mail has had the effect of causing the railroads to look closely into the matter and to see that no violations of the postal provisions are permitted. There are two customs that will have to go: The exchange of railway mail from one road to another, and the sending of personal letters by one employee of a road to another employe in envelopes marked "R. R. B."

To guard against any such abuses General Manager Holdegreve of the B. & M. has issued the following circular: "Under the United States postal regulations we are permitted to carry free, as train mail, only such letters, papers and other documents that relate to the business of this railroad. It is important that no personal letters of employes or other mail matter than that specified above should be carried as 'R. R. B.' Officers and employes are directed to see that these regulations are complied with."

"As regards this matter, the railroad commissioner of Missouri has on the other day: "It's nothing new. Twenty years ago when I was president of a railroad, the government made exactly the same attempt to keep us from carrying our own mail free. Well, we did pay postage on more letters than usual for awhile, but somehow the stringency of the regulations relaxed after awhile and we were soon carrying our railroad mail as before."

POPS MOVING TOWARD ST. LOUIS.

Hurrying on to Be Present at the Convention.

All of the western roads are now carrying large numbers of populists to the St. Louis convention. The number that will attend from the western states seems to be fully as large, if not larger, than was anticipated. Nearly all the delegates and expectant spectators that are bound to St. Louis over the Union Pacific have already left Kansas City. Fifteen delegates from Portland passed through here Sunday night on a Union Pacific train, but yesterday's travel over this road was all via the Rock Island. It included two special cars filled with populists from Salt Lake City and Ogden.

The Burlington is also bringing eastward large parties of the populists. The Colorado delegation arrived in Lincoln at 1:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon on the regular train. They stopped in the city for a long time to pay their respects to William J. Bryan. They left Lincoln yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in a special train, consisting of two sleeping cars and one parlor car.

All the various Omaha roads brought unattached populists into the city yesterday. Their stay was brief, being made only between trains. The most numerous delegations are making their only stops at Lincoln and Kansas City.

Railway Notes and Personal.
About the only train reported Sunday night was about some lines of the Union Pacific's Kansas division.

Assistant General Freight Agent Wood of the Union Pacific is in Kansas City at a meeting of freight men for the purpose of checking up grain rates.

It is reported on good authority that the Burlington system will declare dividends at the rate of 4 per cent for the next two quarters, and that after that an increase in the dividends may be expected.

General Manager Dickinson and party of the Union Pacific did not return from their western trip Sunday as was expected. They went over the Kansas lines on Saturday and spent Sunday in Kansas City.

In pursuance with an order of the federal court previously issued the receivers of the Union Pacific have filed with Master-in-Chancery Cornelia inventories of properties covered by the Omaha & Republican Valley mortgages.

There were two additional coaches attached to the Burlington's limited train from Chicago, arriving here at 4:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon. President W. C. Sprague of the Commercial Law League and about seventy-five other commercial travelers occupied the extra cars.

FUNERAL OF MISS NELLIE NORTH.

Short but impressive services held at the family residence.

The funeral services in this city over the remains of Miss Nellie Arnold North, whose death on Sunday morning came as a severe blow not only to the family, but to a large circle of friends, were held yesterday morning at 8 o'clock at her late residence on Park avenue. The ritual of the Episcopal church was used. Rev. John Williams, rector of St. Barnabas' church, conducting the services. The house was filled with the numerous friends and relatives who had made during the short time she had lived in Omaha. The floral offerings were beautiful and abundant. There were many elaborate designs and beside them lay a score or more of roses and other flowers lovingly placed.

The pall bearers were: Gould Dietz, Arthur P. Gunt, Stecker Beth, Herbert W. Wheeler, Thomas S. Clark and Charles S. Young. The remains were taken to the union depot and from there to Columbus. The train carrying the casket occupied a private car on the morning Union Pacific train to Columbus. The funeral services will be held from the residence of Dr. Evans in the latter city this morning at 10 o'clock.

Jesse L. Test, esq., an old resident and highly respected citizen of our town, called here yesterday afternoon and purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, said: "If anyone asks you if this remedy will do what is claimed for it, tell them yes, and refer them to me. H. Alexander Stokes, Reynoldsville, Va. No one can doubt the value of this medicine after giving it a fair trial. Then it is pleasant and safe to take, making it especially valuable for children. For sale by all druggists."

TICKETED FOR REFORM SCHOOL.

Charley Snear, a Bad Boy from Benson, Neb., was fined $10.

Charley Snear is a small boy who has been in jail a number of times and who was arrested recently on suspicion that he stole a gold watch, yesterday morning bound over to the district court in the sum of $100 to answer to the charge of incorrigibility.

The boy was connected with the gang of six who were arrested at a house at 2601 Patrick avenue, where they became intoxicated on stolen whisky. The theft of a watch was traced to them and finally to the Snear boy. The latter lives in Benson with his mother and two of the other lads have been bound over on charges of incorrigibility.

My hands were completely covered with Eczema, and between my fingers the skin was perfectly raw. I had to sit with both hands held up, and away from the fire. My husband had to dress and undress me like a baby. I tried the best physicians, but their medicine gave me no relief, and drove me almost crazy. I was advised to try CUTICURA REMEDY, and did so, although my husband had to go twenty miles to get the CUTICURA, and was perfectly cured. I used the CUTICURA, and in a few minutes after the first application I was free from my Eczema. I used it every night or day. I could not bear to get warm, and would put me in a bath of lukewarm water. I used the CUTICURA REMEDY in my house now, whenever I have a skin trouble, and it is my only and reliable remedy. I have cured my Eczema, and I can testify to its wonderful effect. Yours gratefully, AGNES M. HARRIS, Dub, Mecklenburg Co., Va.

There were two additional coaches attached to the Burlington's limited train from Chicago, arriving here at 4:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon. President W. C. Sprague of the Commercial Law League and about seventy-five other commercial travelers occupied the extra cars.

The first annual excursion of the local passenger agents is definitely scheduled for Saturday and Sunday next. All the local ticket offices will close at noon on Saturday and will not be opened until the return of the ticket men, on Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

Timor has it that the establishment of a line of fast freight steamers to run between Canada and England, in connection with the Canadian Pacific railroad, is being seriously considered. The Canadian minister of trade and commerce is investigating the matter. It is thought that the new enterprise would, if established, take considerable quantities of western freight out of Chicago.

The various branches of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers represented on the Omaha road have presented an address to President Edwin W. Winter of the Northern Pacific road, late general manager of the Omaha road. They greatly regret his

NEW WATER WORKS COMPANY

To Be Known as the Omaha Water Works Company.

THOMAS C. WOODBURY CHOSEN PRESIDENT

E. L. Bierbower Selected as General Manager—Some Extensive Improvements Contemplated in the Plant.

The plan for the organization of a corporation to take charge of the water works plant of this city, as announced in The Bee over a month ago has been consummated. The Omaha Water Works company has been organized in New York City. Thomas C. Woodbury of Portland, Me., was elected president of the new company and E. L. Bierbower of Omaha was elected general manager of the plant.

Mr. Woodbury was a member of the re-organization committee which purchased the plant at the foreclosure sale May 29, when the Farmers' Loan and Trust company of New York bid the property in, being the only bidder; the purchase price being $4,999,000, which represented the face of the mortgage. Mr. Woodbury had had considerable experience in water works matters. He is a member of the firm of Woodbury & Moulton, bankers of Portland. Mr. Bierbower has been one of the receivers of the Omaha plant for the past four or five years.

Mr. Bierbower stated yesterday morning that he had not been fully advised as to the plans of the new company with reference to improvements to be made to the plant, but he knew that improvements regarding the expenditure of about $1,000,000 had been contemplated by the reorganization committee and the money had been provided for making such improvements, but he could not say just when the work would be done. These improvements, he said, included a new main to Florence, a new engine at Florence and another at the Poppleton station, and other improvements designed to put the entire plant upon a first class footing and give subscribers the most efficient service.

Regarding the personnel of the local force, Mr. Bierbower said he had received no intimation regarding that matter and thought that was a matter which would probably be handled by the new company and was not prepared to say anything regarding it at present.

NOTHING TO DO BUT WAIT AWHILE.

Nothing to do but wait awhile. The hearing on the motion of the city of Omaha to set aside the sale of the water works plant and restrain the passing of the deed was fixed for yesterday morning before Judge Dundy of the federal court, but the judge is out of the city and nothing was done in the matter. City Attorney Connell was on hand at the time, but the postponement of the sale last week and the passing of the deed were the very things he sought to prevent by his motion. He said the sale had been confirmed and the deed executed while his motion was pending and before a temporary hearing had been held. There remained nothing to do but wait until the judge returned to the city.

During several years residence in the far west I had many opportunities for observing the wonderful effects of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Its efficacy was demonstrated in the alkali regions where the water produces violent purging. I allayed the attack with all other remedies failed. I repeatedly saw the greatest distress and diarrhoea cured in a few minutes by the use of this remedy, with the most satisfactory results, and can recommend it for the complaints for which it is indicated. H. Y. Gilliam, editor of The Republican, Lincoln, Va. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

ALL COAL DEALERS MUST PAY UP.

Talk of levying a Tax Upon Dealers in Ice. License Inspector Hurst has served notice on all coal dealers that their license must be paid on or before July 25, as provided by the ordinance recently passed by the council. The ordinance levies an annual fee of $10 on all dealers in coal and coke and provides regulations very similar to those that were incorporated in the old ordinance which was knocked out by the courts. The inspector of weights and measures is supposed to weigh a load of coal from each dealer at least once a week and a customer can at any time compel the dealer to submit to have the load weighed under any circumstances. If the weight is all right the customer must pay for the weighing, but if it is not the dealer must make good. It is estimated that the ordinance will produce a revenue of about $2,500 a year. There are about forty exclusive coal dealers in the city and nearly fifty more who do a small business. Many of these latter cannot afford to take out a license and they declare that the ordinance is a scheme of the big firms to drive their smaller competitors out of business and monopolize the trade. Some of the councilmen think that if a tax is to be levied on the coal dealers one should also be assessed against the ice men. Many complaints are heard of the high tariff on ice promulgated by the local combine, and it is not unlikely that an ordinance will be introduced making the ice dealers pay a similar tax.

CONFIDENCE MAN SENT TO JAIL.

Given Thirty Days with Ten of them on Limited Diet. Peter Rongo, the Hastings farmer who was condemned out of $50 last Friday morning, did not get his money back, but he secured some revenge in police court yesterday morning. A. W. Harris, the man who had a hand in the game, denied his guilt, but Rongo was positive that he was the man. On the strength of his testimony Harris was given thirty days in the county jail, the middle ten to be on bread and water.

The case is a unique one. It is one of the very few of the kind in which a conviction has been secured. Plenty of confidence tricks are turned out daily and suspected conf men are arrested, but convictions are very rare. The officers, however, succeeded in getting the right chap in this case. Harris is supposed to have had a hand in a similar trick that was turned out on a preacher at the union depot a week or more ago. The preacher was jostled by four men who seized his pocketbook. He reported his loss to a couple of officers and the four men skipped. One was caught, but was discharged in police court for want of evidence.

When Harris left the depot he jumped into a buggy that was standing conveniently at the door and drove off in a very hurried manner. He was followed by his horse and buggy was found hitched to a post on South Thirteenth street, but Mr. Harris was not visible.

From the description that Rongo gave of Harris' partner he is thought to be the same chap who was arrested in the depot case and was discharged. The officers are looking for him. He will be also caught if he is caught in the drag net, as he obtained Rongo's money. So far as the evidence showed, Harris did not obtain a confession from Rongo. He reported only on the charge of vagrancy, to which he pleaded guilty. He is still wanted to plead guilty on condition that he was discharged, but that did not go with the court.

The police believe that they have a very good man in Harris and will make an effort to learn whether he is wanted anywhere else. He admitted that he was a con man and said that it was of no use to claim that he was anything else. The local police do not know the man. They allege that he has just finished a term of three years and seven months for a similar crime and that he also served seven years in the New York penitentiary for another con game. There is no affidavit attached to this statement, however.

A confidence trick had been turned on Sam Isbell, a farmer who lives at Griswold, Ia. He had sent a job to Isbell at about 10 o'clock to the extent of $20. Isbell was promenading the depot platform of his town several days ago, making the public announcement to him, because the latter did not know the man. A Remarkable Cure of Dysentery. John Peterson of Patouville, Ia., suffered from dysentery for six months and tried three of the best doctors in New Orleans; also half a dozen or more patent medicines. Very little relief followed until he began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which effected a permanent cure.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the only remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore of all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.
