The warrants were drawn on the and at bat, and gave the Reds their first "Q and L street viaducts fund." There is no coat of whitewash this season. Attendsuch fund, as steps have never been taken to provide money for such fund by assessing the railways or adjacent property. The warrants will, however, draw 7 per cent interest, at least that is what they read on the face. As there is no money with which to pay the warrants it is expected that the lumber company will sue the city, and then the council will, by resolution, direct the city attorney to confess judgment for the amount. When this is done the trouble will commence. Yesterday several well known taxpayers called on an attorney and re-tained him to procure an injunction in the PITTSBURG, Aug. II.-With two men out in the ninth Ely made a wild throw to first base, allowing Turner to score, thus spoil-ing a shutout for the visitors. The game was too onesided to be interesting. At-tendance, 2,200. Score: district court restraining the city from paying the judgment. It will be alleged that the contract for the work was not legal, as by the terms of the contract the city agrees to confess judgment as soon as the work was completed. The trouble between the contractor and the lumber company, how-ever, prevented the city doing this until now, when the coast is clear for such steps.

Holders of Judgments Are Kicking. A vigorous protest was made yesterday by several persons holding judgments against the city because the finance committee of the council had not reported on their claims. One Omaha man, who was down here kicking, has a judgment for $900, which was is-sued in 1892, and he has tried every year

THE GAME AT LOUISVILLE. LOUISVILLE, Aug. 11.—Today's game was one of the most interesting of the sea-son and ended in a tie. Umpire Lally called the game on account of darkness at the end of the eleventh inning. Pickering and Dolan, late of the Virginia league, made their first appearance in Louisville uniforms and made a good showing. Attendance, 500 Score: since that time to have his claim recognized when the appropriation became available at the commencement of the fiscal year. Mon-day his claim was turned down for the fourth time and he has engaged an attorney to mandamus the council to pay the claim. Other claimants who were also turned down are talking of doing the same thing, and a merry time is expected.

Mr. Carroll claims to be able substantiate his statement and intends to raise the standard of the milk sold in the city as soon as he gets his appliances to work in his new office. Violaters of the milk ordinance will then be prosecuted.

Many Meals to Prisoners.

-Councilman Caldwell intends to insist upon more accurate accounting of the meals furnished prisoners confined at the city jail. He thinks that the bills for feeding the prisoners are altogether too large, and claims that there is no necessity for keeping tramps a couple of days before giving them a trial. The city he says pays for three or four hundred meals a month, and he thinks that is too many considering that less than 100 arrests are made in the course of a month.

At the request of the councilman the com-mitteee on police will investigate and see if there is any way the cost can be cut down.
