Contractor Wickham completed vesterday all but a small portion of the last block of the Pearl street paying on the east side of the motor tracks. If the weather re-mains good he will complete the entire street by the close of next week. The general opinion is that it is the best piece of paving ever laid in the city. The contrast between its smooth and perfect surface and the ragged codar blocks is so great that pop-ular demand and personal pride will not permit a mile of the old blocks to remain longer than is necessary to replace them with vitrified brick.

RIVALRY FOR OFFICERS OVER FOR A YEAR

Rev. Mr. Kinzer Offers to Resign the Presidency, but the Delegates Will Not Let Him Give Up.

The eleventh annual convention of the owa Christian Endeavor association was adourned at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon it a consecration meeting that had many inter esting and inspiring features.

Rev. Mr. Schrader of Nevada led the morn ng prayer, and after singing the Eudeavor convention proceeded to business. Dubuque will be the place of meeting next year, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of the tast week of August.

Rev. Scott W. Smith of Boone gave notice of an amendment to the constitution to be voted upon next year, changing the time of meeting from October to August, so that no elective officer shall succeed himself more han once, and that the committee on nomig one member. The committee to which was referred the recting of the Anti-Saloon league reported eartily endorsing the purpose of the or anization and recommended the sending o ganization and recommended the sending of Rev. A. D. Kinzer of Perry and Mrs. Matti M. Balley of Shenandoah as delegates to the meeting of the association, with Rev. . Smith of Boone and Miss Carrie Lynn Orient as alternates.

out league convention offered another op portunity for the opposition to President Kinzer to manifest itself and a niction was made to substitute the name of Mr. Kloop i place of the committee's recom-iendation of Mr. Kinzer. The com-nittee's report was adopted, however. The ecling that had been manifested against ir. Kinzer caused him some annoyance and expressed a desire to resign his office resident in the interest of peace and har-ony, but the convention would not have that way and the audience loined in ng that ended in a kind of love feast in which all feeling was buried. The roll of the denomination was called nd reports received on the work that was ing done in the missionary field. Some of he reports were of a highly satisfactory haracter, while others contained but little f cheer for the heathen that are waiting to brought into the light.

The committee on jails reported a resoluion sending farewell greetings to the prisers in the falls and asking them to work for their better selves and endeavor to be on the right side when the roll is called

At the afternoon meeting Rev. Charles Sweet of Ida Grove delivered an address on "Whose I Am," and Rev. A. B. Shrader of Keokuk on "Whom I Serve." On the call of the districts the delegates offered a scripure text, selected as the district motto. Then the delegates formed a circle around the tent, clasped hands and sang "God, be With You till We Meet Again," and the benediction was pronounced.

Funeral of D. P. Hagee.

The funeral exercises over the remains of Mr. D. P. Hagee, held at the residence H. S. Blinn has been confined to his room terday afternoon, were attended by a large from wreaking summary vengeance on them number of sympathizing friends of the deceased in this city. Several very beautiful offerings came from intimate friends, some of which were taken to Greenville, to be placed in his grave. The choir from the Methodist church, of which Mr. Hagee was a member, and a choir of girls from the home, furnished appropriate and beautiful music. Rev. Mr. Senseny, pastor of the Broadway Mcthodist church, conducted the services. His remarks to the bereaved fam-ily and friends were very tender. He paid a most touching tribute to the departed man, dwelling at length upon his high Christian character and his love for and loyal devotion to the church. Mr. Haged had a tender, sympathetic nature, a smile and a good word for all, and was known and loved, not only by every child and worker in the home, but was known and loved by the little folk all over the who ran to him when he approached, and called him by the familiar name of "Grandpa" Hagee. After the services at the home, the remains were followed by the relatives and a large number of friends to the transfer, where the body was taken over the Wabash to Greenville, III. Services will be held there today at 3 p. m., and interment will be made in the Greenville cemetery The body was accompanied to Greenville by Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Lemen, Mrs. Dr. Pembroke and Mr. F. W. Death of J. J. Stork. A telegram yesterday announced the death in Brooklyn, N. Y., of J. J. Stork, the well known commercial traveler. The telegram was from Mr. McBride, who has been with the sick man since his arrival in Brooklyn. Three years ago physicians pronounced Mr. Stork to be suffering from locomotor ataxia. Several months ago went to Brooklyn, accompanied by his wife and physician in the hope of securing successful treatment from specialists. The hope was vain, however, and he gradually wasted away until death relieved him. He was 39 years old, and all of his active life has been spent on the road. Few traveling men were better known than he in the western states. His home has been in this city for many years. Eleven years ago he was married to Miss Alice Booth of this city, and one child, a daughter, has blessed their union. His father, who lives at Lafayette, Ind., was at his bedside when he died. The body will be brought here for burial, and will be accompanied by Mrs. Booth and the father. They left New York at 7 o'clock last evening and will arrive here tomorrow afternoon. Sunday, August 30, will be the last chance to see one of the most wonderful lave ever perfected, and that is Edison's vitascope, now at the Grand Plaza.

The soliciting committees engaged in sellng stock for the Transmississippi Exposiion met in the council chamber last even ing for the purpose of holding a brief concultation and comparing notes. The atendance was not as large as was anticiated, but the results were fully up to expectations. The committee to whom was assigned the duty of canvassing the travel-ing men reported the most gratifying success and announced the sale of more than two thirds of the stock allotted to them The other committees reported favorable progress and increasing interest. All complained somewhat of the lack of proper ap preciation of the magnitude of the enter rise on the part of the public. Another lifficulty encountered that was commented ipon was the disposition of business men t egard the taking of stock as a propositio o donate so much hard cash to the expos tion management, and the soliciting com-mittee as a charity organization. Chairman Wells of the general committee and Vice President Wright of the Exposition association addressed the committees and gave some encouraging advice, and suggested an awers to protests of citizens who still perbelieving that the big enterpris for the exclusive benefit of Omaha. xamples were instanced to show that there should be no selfish feelings in this matter and that Council Bluffs and Omaha should work together as one city to make position the great success it should be and will be. BOYS NARROWLY ESCAPE LYNCHING.

Three Young Men Suspected of Assaulting a Farmer's Daughter. OTTUMWA, Ia., 9ug. 28.—(Special Telegram.)-There were strong indications of a lynching party at Fairfield for a while tonight. Yesterday about noon three men drove up to the country house of E. W. Warner at Libertyville. They entered the house heavily masked. Finding only the daughter, Nellie Warner, aged 20, at home, the brutes gagged her and then ransacked the house. They secured nothing but some jewelry. They sat down, ate the dinner she that can handle the work of fifty or had prepared, and then each criminally assixty cities and towns to the satisfaction of saulted her. After they had departed the hundreds? It's the Eagle Laundry, 721 girl succeeded in releasing herself and gave the alarm. Sheriff Black of Fairfield and a posse of 300 started in pursuit. Near Bladensburg they found three men in a buggy answering the descriptions given by the girl They arrested them, and with of J. G. Lemen at the Christian Home yes- difficulty the sheriff restrained the posse They were taken to Fairfield and placed in jail. This morning the sheriff and a stron guard of deputies took the men to Libertyville for identification. The girl was n men. She failed to positively identify them A big crowd had gathered in front of the house. Alarmed, the sheriff told them that the girl had said the men were not the right ones, and that he meant to release them on his return to Fairfield. By this strategy he succeeded in piloting his prisoners back to Fairfield, where he again lodged them in jail. After he had left Libertyville, the people learned of the ruse. Late tonight the prisoners were learned to Wilbur Smith and Charles Harris of Bladensburg and Raiph Duncan of Illinois The father of the Smith boy came to Fairfield and succeeded in getting the boy re-leased on his recognizance. Since the people at Libertyville found there was a great probability that the boys were not wented they have quieted down. The will appear for trial Monday, though they seem to be the victims of strong circumstantial evidence.

WEAK SIOUX CITY BANK FAILS.

Sioux National Closes Its Doors as a Result of Slow Collections.

SIOUX CITY, Aug. 28 .- (Special Telegram.) -The Sioux National bank closed today. The announcement of the officers was that the failure was due to slow collections and loss of deposits. For some time depositors had been taking out an average of about $10,000 a day, and since January 1 the deposits had shrunk 25 per cent. The bank was organized into a national bank fifteen years ago, and for a long time was the leading bank. After the failures of 1893 the bank was left with a large amount of real estate on hand, which could not be sold. A. S. Garretson was succeeded as eashier by T. A. Black and William L. Joy was succeeded as president by James F. Toy of the Farmers' Loan and Trust company. The capital stock of the bank was reduced to $300,000. The statement made today shows the following items:

MISSION GIANT BRUTALLY BATTERED

Four Rounds of the Affair Marked by a Continual Tattoo on the Anntomy of the Clumsy Loser.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.-The Occidental Athletic club gave a series of fights tonight in its new pavilion at Woodward's garden. The place was well filled with a crowd of 5,000 persons. The chief event was the eight-round "go" between Joe Choynski and Joe McAuliffe, "the Mission giant," the first man defeated by Peter Jackson when the latter came to this country six years ago McAuliffe has been on the retired list for two or three years. He began training for the present contest weighing 285 pounds, entering the ring tonight at about from 225 to 230 pounds. The men presented a great contrast as they shook hands for the first round. McAuliffe towered nearly four inches above his antagonist, with an advantage in reach of three inches. His appearance indicated that he had reduced his weight at the expense of his strength and endurance. Choynski, on the contrary, looked the picture of health. He was trained to the hour and what he lacked in height weight and reach he made up in wonderful muscular development and eleverness. He entered the ring at about 170 pounds.

Choynski assumed the aggressive from the start and hit McAuliffe when and where he The Mission Giant was completely outmatched and was a plaything in Choyns kl's hands. Little Joe played on big Joe" wind with his left and on the jaw with his right and when the giant came up for the ourth round he was perceptibly winded. this round Choynski went at his man like a First a poke in the stomach with his left and a jab in the face with his right soon made McAuliffe groggy. Finally in the middle of the round Choynski swung his right with terrific force. It landed on Me-Aulific's jaw and the fight was over. The Glant's legs weakened and he fell to the floor with a crash. He could not get up within the required ten seconds and the fight was awarded to Choynski. The latter was unpunished and was in good condition when the fight ended. His clumsy antagonist managed to land on Choynski's face once id not keep the smaller man from going at aim relentlessly. McAuliffe's efforts to re uce his weight told on his strength and he could not keep up the fast pace set for him. The fight between Spider Kelley and Gus Herget, lightweights, was given to Kelley after a flercely fought battle.

ELLIS' WORK WAS TOO COARSE.

His Effort to Settle Place at O'Neill Ends in Abject Failure. O'NEILL, Neb., Aug. 28.—(Special.)—About 90 people gathered at the fair grounds last night to witness the finish of the three days' bievele race, one hour each day, There was a strong wind blowing, which prevented the riders from covering as many iles as they had done the preceding nights miles as they had done the preceding nights. The fore part of the evening the race was very tame, but in the last half it warmed up a little. Ellis fockeyed Blenkiron a little and Evans gained a half lap on Blenkiron, and the latter in coming around on the home stretch run into Ellis and was thrown. The lead Evans second and Ellis crossed the line first, Evans second and Blenkiron third. The latter protested and the judges gave him second and Evans third, and fined Ellis $7.50 for fouling Blenkiron.

Arranging for the Relay Race. CHEYENNE, Wyo., Aug. 28.—(Special.)— The wheelmen of this place are preparing to make the best record between San Francisco and New York in the transcontinental relay race. The Wyoming district extending from Rock Springs, Wvo. to Kcarney, Neb., is in charge of Charlie Erswell, who has selected an unusually strong corps of riders to cover his division, which is 635 miles in length and includes the elevations of the main range of the Rock mountains and the sand-covered roads of Nebraska Among the riders he has selected are King Emigh, Gerrans, Powelson Coaffin Bristol, Mills and Green, all well known Chevenne riders; Harris, DeKay and Kramer of Laramle, and McGuire and Mrs. Rinchart of Denver. Mrs. Rinchart will ride from Red Buttes to Tie Siding, a distance of nine miles, and up a grade of almost 100 feet to the mile. Mrs. Rinchart has twenty "centuries" to her credit, and has ridden 200 miles in seventeen hours, and no fears are entertained of her failing to make her schedule time.

POWDERLY OUT FOR MIKINLEY Labor Against Bryan.

SCRANTON, Pa., Aug. 28.-Terence V Powderly, former master workman of the Knights of Labor, in an interview, has announced his intention to support Majo McKinley. He explained that McKinley has devoted his whole life to the people, and that not a breath of scandar has ever scorched his career. He had called Mr. Hanna "an industrial cannibal." Mr. Pow-derly added: "I do not doubt Mr. Bryan's ability or sincerity, but his experience and his surroundings are such as to cause the elector to ponder long and carefully over the probable result of entrusting the business management of this industrial work shop in his care."

Both Sides Claim the County. DES MOINES, Aug. 28.—(Special Telegram.)-Everybody can get any shade of political prognostication that sells his taste it the headquarters of the two parties in this city. There has been much discussion of the prospects in Crawford county for sev eral weeks. It is largely German and ha always been democratic. This year the re-publicans have claimed it. Today the two parties gave out the results of their polls of the county. The democratic poll showed that every populist in the county will vote for Bryan. It found 334 Bryan republicans, seventy-six McKinley democrats, and estimated the democratic majority at 750 is stead of the normal 500, The republican poll, according to Secretary Treynor, showed cpublican gains that will overcome the as verse democratic majority, and carry the county safely. It is listed now as one of the safe republican counties.

When I was thirteen years old I began to have sore eyes and ears, and from my cars a lumor spread. I declored with five different skilful doctors, but they did me no good. My disease was Eczema. By this time it had gone all ever my head, lace, and body. Nobody thought I would live, and would not have but for Curicuna Remedies. I used four boxes of Curicuna, five cakes of Curicuna Soar, and three bottles of Curicuna Resolvent. My hair all came out at that time, but now it is so thick I can hardly comb it. I am skyten years old, weigh 100 pounds, and am perfectly well.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the VV transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts-gentle efforts-pleasant effortsrightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of siekness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs. promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely and and gives most general satisfaction.
