WHERE IS HENRY JOHNSON son and others to secure a claim amount

Friends of a Missing Man Are in a Stew Concerning Him.

Cashed a Draft for $1,000, Got Drunk and Disappeared as if the Earth Had Swallowed

HE HAD LOTS OF MONEY WHEN LAST SEEN

Him Up.

Where is Henry Johnson? This question is being asked with interest and anxiety by the friends of the man in Council Bluffs and Omaha. The last time any of his friends saw Johnson was on Wednesday in this city, when he informed them that he had cashed a draft for $1,000 and was getting ready to return to his home and family in Hanover, Germany. Johnson has either left without bidding them adieu, which they are not willing to believe, or else he has fallen among thieves, who have made away with him for his money.

Johnson's absence was called to the attention of the Council Bluffs police yesterday by people from Omaha, who were looking for him. Two years ago Johnson came to Council Bluffs and stopped at the Neumeyer hotel. The fact that they knew each other's friends In Germany led to terms of intimacy between Johnson and Jacob Neumeyer, proprietor of the hotel. Neumeyer says that Johnson spent a fortune of $150,000 left him by his father, during the four years he has lived in this country. He was a fine looking, highly edu-cated German and of pronounced soldierly bearing. During the months he made his home at the Neumeyer hotel he was often closely pressed for money and when large remittances would come, as they frequently did, he would spend it lavishly. He divided his time between Council Bluffs and Omaha. In Omaha he made his home at the City tel, where Neumeyer says he spent $700 n three weeks. A year ago he ceased to reeive the customary remittances from the old country for the reason that the fortune left him by his father had been exhausted. Not ong ago, Neumeyer says, his uncle died and bequeathed him 160,000 marks, equivalent to about $45,000. This was entailed in such a way that he could only secure the interest the principal being invested and preserved for his wife and children. On Saturday Johnson came over from Omaha, where he had been stopping, and showed Neumeyer a draft for $1,000, which he had received from his wife. He told his friend that he was going to settle up a few small bills he owed and return to Germany. On Tuesday he returned and spent the night at the hotel and on the following he informed Neumeyer that interested persons came to Council Bluffs to look for him. The information given them by Neumeyer led them to make a visit to Nansen and call upon all of Johnson's riends in the vicinity. Johnson had not been there and none of them had heard of him. Some of Johnson's creditors in Omaha sought police assistance in locating the man and Officer Murphy made a trip to Nansen yesterday without results. Johnson was in-debted to Henry Meppen, a farmer in that vicinity, for several small loans. Meppen had been advised from Germany that Johnson had received another financial lift, and also that money was to be sent him. On Wednesday afternoon when Johnson left the Neumeyer hotel he said he was going to Meppen's and would go to the Kiel house stables and wait around until he found some farmer with whom he could ride to the Meppen farm. Before leaving the hotel he paid Neumeyer in full and exhibited while doing so a large amount of money which he said was the proceeds of the draft he had just cashed. He visited a number of saloons during the afternoon and was drinking heavily. He was for his political principles." seen near the Kiel barns during the after-noon in an intoxicated condition, but was making no effort to find a conveyance for his trip into the country. Inquiry at all of the railway ticket offices and depots show that he has not left the city on any of the trains, Neumeyer learned yesterday afternoon that ne was seen on South Main street as late as distance from town, pay some money he owed them and return to Council Bluffs and be ready to start for Germany not later than Sunday. His absence from Omaha created little apprehensioon and on Thursday some 6 o'clock on Wednesday evening. All of these circumstances leave the friends and creditors of Johnson in a state of unertainty, and they are anxious to find out what has become of him. The amounts he owed were all small and were not numerous. Johnson is a man 45 years of age, large and fine looking and of the pronounced lighthalred Saxon type.

New School Laws. County Superintendent Paulson yesterday received from State Superintendent Sabin a copy of a cfrcular to county superintendents, which is of some importance. It says:

It is yet much too soon to outline definitely the ultimate conclusions of the general assembly upon changes in the law. It seems quite probable that the new code will not go into effect for several months. It is certain that to the branches upon which teachers are examined under the present law there will be added a few subjects for the first-class certificate only. The new school laws will not go into force so early as to affect the summer examinations. Of course certificates granted under the present law, which will apply until the new laws become operative, will hold for the full term for which such certificates are given. Consequently every teacher who now holds a first-class certificate has over a year in which to work up the required standard in the other branches. At an early date the department will issue a short syllabus in each new subject as if guide to persons desiring to study during the coming year. As soon as the general assembly adjourns this plan will be attended. ents, which is of some importance. It says: syllabus in each new subject as if guide to persons desiring to study during the comping year. As soon as the general assembly adjourns this plan will be attempted. We are very certain that it is disastrous to scholarship to endeavor in an institute of two weeks to cover the ground contemplated in the new law. Much can be done in a summer school of six weeks, but even then an entire year of study is not too much time in which to accomplish this purpose. We earnestly hope that the summer institutes will not be turned into fitting schools in which especial attention will be given to the added branches, to the exclusion of other important subjects.

Woman is Declared Insane. The board of commissioners for the insane was called upon yesterday to paes upon a rather peculiar case. Mrs. Agnes B. Crowe of Omaha has been confined in St. Bernard's hospital as a private insane patient. The woman is in a scrious state of mental collapse and medical treatment is essential and very mportant at the present time. Her husband, nthony Crowe, employed on one of the Omaha motor lines, is opposed to having his wife kept at the hospital and has been endeavoring to get her away. He has made frequent visits to the institution and threat-ened to fill the hospital people full of lead if they did not turn the woman out. Yester-day Miss Lizzie Calligan, Mrs. Crowe's sister, filed the necessary information charging her sister with insanity, and she was brought before the board for examination. It was explained to the members of the board that ie woman was not to become a county charge, but was to be cared for at the ex-pense of her friends in Omaha, and that this action was necessary to give the Sisters of Mercy some authority for holding the woman n defiance of the demands of her husband Mrs. Crowe's condition was pronounced by the board to be such as required hospital re-straint and treatment, and the necessary

J. N. CASADY MAY BE INDICTED. Complicated Series of Charges and Countercharges.

There have been numerous rumors to the effect that the grand jury which meets on Tuesday will return an indictment against J. N. Casady, who has been missing from the city for some months. It was intimated that one of the cases of alleged misappro-priation of funds that was to be investigated was that of the Manchester Fire Insurance company, for which Mr. Cesady had long been agent and $120 of whose money was in his possession when he left town. This shortage was settled in full by James Casady, jr., soon after his father's departure. A suit against the company for damages, brought in the district court a few days ago by young Casady, is based upon the allegation that this settlement was with the listinct understanding that the son was to take his father's place as agent of the company if the shortage were made good, and the suit was brought for the reason that this agreement was violated. Some color was given to the rumor that this case was to be investigated by the grand jury by the re-celpt yesterday of an anonymous letter by young Casady informing him that unless he dropped the suit against the company his father would be prosecuted for embezzle-ment. Casady announced yesterday that he would prosecute the suit most vigorously in the hope that he can find out the name of his anonymous correspondent, and will

Campaign Recognized.

WASHINGTON, March 26.-President C. F. Black has just announced the completion of the executive committee of the National Association of Democratic Clubs which will serve until the convention of democratic clubs in 1900, as follows: Benton McMillin, Tennessee; Stephen M. White, California; George H. Lambert, New Jersey; Edward Murphy, jr., New York; E. C. Smith, North Carolina; Lloyd L. Jackson, Maryland; C. C. Richard , Utah; J. L. Mitchell, Wiscomsin; John E. McLean, Obio; C. J. Faulkner, West Virginia; E. B. Howell, Georgia; William J. Stone, Missouri; H. D. Money, Mississippi George Fred Williams, Massachusetts; J. C. Dahlman, Nebraska; J. S. Hogg, Texas; J. C. Sibley, Pennsylvania.

A statement issued with this announce-ment says: "Each of the gentlemen named on this committee gave loyal support to the candidate and platform of the party in the last presidential campaign, therefore, it is to be presumed that they can be depended upon in the future, thereby making this committee in great contrast with its prede-cessor, which had upon it a majority of he had cashed the draft and was going to members who had not contributed money, make a visit to a number of friends near Nansen, a station on the Wabash a short which honored them. Among these were William L. Wilson, Henry Watterson, Don M. Dickinson and John C. Black" The selection of the new committee has been very deliberate. Instead of naming the committee in the midst of the campaign of last year, President Black pursued the unusual course of going on with the work of the assecciation without a committee in complete harmony with him and the party. Since this committee holds for four years and practically controls the vast system of regu-lar Jemocratic clubs—the most efficient means of popular agitation now available— it is supposed that the delay was occasioned by a desire to shape the organization to meet after election and inauguration events.

President Black has issued a call for the committee to meet for a thorough dis-cussion of and organization looking to a vigorous program. Mr. Bryan will be in Washington that day and it is probable he will attend and address the meeting of the executive committee. He is to be the guest of the association while in the city and will be the principal speaker at the dinner to be given in honor of Jefferson's birthday. He will respond to the first toast, "Thomas Jefferson; we celebrate the anniversay of his birth not in the spirit

President Black has issued an appeal to each democratic society in the United States to join the National Association of Democratic Clubs in the celebration of Jefferson's birthday by such ceremonies as may convenient to each.

HUNTER MEN ARE LOSING HOPE. Efforts of State Central Committee Prove Fruitless. LOUISVILLE, March 26 .- A special from ndications this morning are that the election of the republican nominee for United States senator is now well nigh impossible. Dr. W. G. Hunter's forces are slowly but surely disintegrating; the six republican bolters are standing firm, notwithstanding the threatening, bullying and imploring telegrams that are pouring in upon them. In addition to the bolting six, Senator C. Stege of Louisville announced this morning that he would not east another vote for Dr. Hunter, and three other members of the general assembly have announced publicly that they will not support Hunter in the ballot tomorrow. The Hunter men are very much demoralized, and it is likely that the Bradley people will try a hoping with the assistance of the silver democrats to win the race. But the undying hatred between Hunter and Governor Bradley w'll no doubt operate to balk any move ment the governor's friends may set on for and all in all it looks as if Hunter, unable to win himself, on account squabbles, will name the next United States aenator from Kentucky, who will in all probability be Colonel St. John Boyle, who was the nominee of the party last winter when the regular session of the legislature ad-

Charges and counter charges of bribery and corruption are flying thick and fast. Blackburn men have a score of dete at work, who do nothing but follow the Hunter workers about and endeavor to get evidence against them along the line of It is said that they have much material, which will probably be submitted o a committee which will undoubtedly be appointed to look into the charges.

The state central committee, which is strongly for Hunter, adopted resolutions last light scoring Governor Bradley for not lendof tacitly helping the opposition.

There were only thirty-four senators pres ent when the roll was called for the third ballot today at noon. Senator Stege had paired with Senator Fulton. In the house, Representatives Furniss and Morton and Garrett and Horton were announced as paired. The roll call showed 130 present and voting, necessary to a choice, 66. The ballot resulted: Hunter, 64; Blackburn, 46; Davie.

House Committee Reports on the Cost of State Printing. PRICES FIVE TO TEN TIMES TOO HIGH

Iwo Republicans Dissent from Opinion of the Majority and Sabmit a Minority Report-Parrott's Evidence.

DES MOINES, March 26 .- (Special Telegram.)- The majority report of the committee on the investigation of the state printing has been submitted to the house, and at the same time it was announced that a minority report will be made. The majority consists of Lambert and Jay, democrats, and Smith of Greene, republican; the minority of Temple and Brant, republicans, A sensation has been caused by making public the evidence of Lieutenant Governor Parrott before the investigating commitee. He was the author of the present printing law and was asked to name reasonable prices on a large number of blanks and jobs that were shown him. He has been a printer and binder all his life and he named as fair commercial prices amounts many others cases were almost as bad. There will be a strong opposition in the louse to the senate printing and binding The majority report declares that the cost The majority report declares that the cost of printing and binding could be reduced more than $30,000 a year under the contract system. It sets forth that bills for both printing and binding have been exorbitant; that too many documents are printed; that the law allows too high prices, and that in addition to this the offices doing the work harged by the state printer and binder.

He named $2.50 or $3 as a fair price have in many cases charged more than any construction of the law would allow. The minority claim that the majority re-port should set forth that the system of computing compensation is the same that has obtained under previous officials, and that previous binders have used "skivers" instead of sheepskins in covering certain classes of reports; the use of "skivers" being one of the things that the majority spe-cially criticises. The majority insists that the minority has not followed the course of the investigation and therefore is not competent to pass an opinion as to the fairness f the majority report. The committee states that it has

unable to get copies of many of the jobs for which bills were rendered, so that an absolutely accurate checking up of the bills was impossible. It recommends that a system of numbering or lettering various blank forms be adopted, as is used by railroad and ex-press companies, so that every job may be known by its proper designation. It is charged that the charges for press work are too high, and that they should be revised in the interests of the state. Many things, it should not properly be so called, and high rates are collected for them as a result. The prices paid for composition on blanks have been outrageous and in many cases as high as $20 to $50 has been charged for a blank which at fair rates would have cost from $1 to $5; the great profit in the thing being due to the fact that when a few letters have to be changed in a form the whole body of the matter has been charged for again. is stated that in one important respect the law has been totally disregarded. The law provides that where two impressions are necessary, to print on both sides of the paper, if the two sides can be printed at once, and then the paper turned and cut afterwards, only one impression shall be charged for: yet it is reported that two impressions have invariably been charged for and the bill been doubled. It is declared that state work that has been done in outside offices hat been changed for at 25 to 75 per cent less than the state prices. It is stated the law has been ignored in the requirement that tables be set in the most compact manner possible, and that all excerpts be set solid. Hundreds of pages of rule and figure work

The western passenger agreement was not are said to have been so padded that the taken up, but the decision made regarding the state paid practically double as much as it reasonably should. Then, too, the reports to include the passenger association. in compelling the state to pay for an imnense amount of useless printing and bind-

The committee finds that "skiver" has been used where the law requires sheepskin in binding, and says that expert binders have offered to do the binding at half the price paid by the state. The committee gives igures on the cost of state printing and binding as follows:

Frankfort to the Evening Post says: The Printing, 1895. $ 59.675 indications this morning are that the election Printing, 1896. $ 42.631 Binding, 1895..... Binding, 1896..... Total for two years.......$165,359
The committee concludes that more than $30,000 could have been saved each year under the contract system.

DES MOINES, March 26 .- (Special Telegram.)-At the opening of the senate sesslon yesterday morning President Parrott announced that hereafter the ten-minute speech rule will be enforced and members will not be allowed to yield their time to one another The road and highway bill was parsed with the amendment allowing city property to be taxed 1 mill and the proceeds to spent on roads outside of the city. A long fight was made on the proposed amendment to allow city councils to spend the money proposition to make the tax apply only in towns of under 5,000 also failed. The advo cates of the measure say it will produce twice as much cash for road work as has ever been raised and will in a few years

DISCUSSING THE SITUATION.

Railroad Men Meet and Talk Over CHICAGO, March 26.-This afternoon, at the office of George R. Peck, general counsel meeting of the leading roads in the Western tion to Benin. Freight association was held for the purpose of discussing the recent decision of the supreme court and its probable effect on the associations under which the western roads have been working. B. F. Ayer, general tingent for the occupation of the principal counsel of the Illinois Central, was chosen ports of that island by forces of the foreign chairman of the meeting. The conference lasted the entire afternoon and terminated in nothing as far as action is concerned. No formal decision was reached by the meeting and no announcement was made. The meeting was more for the exchange of views than for any other purpose. It was agreed, lowever, with few dissenting voices, that the decision would have the effect of doing away with the Western Freight association as it is at present organized. The form of the agreement of this association is such as to bring it directly in conflict with the supreme court decision and the combined opin ion of the attorneys present was that i cannot continue.

The western passenger agreement was not freight association is sufficiently sweeping to include the passenger association. Both are declared to have been edited in a care-less and haphazard manner, which resulted and if one of them is in the line of the decision, the other must necessarily be so. It is likely that formal action will be taken in few days putting the Western Freight association out of existence in the official sense. In a practical sense it is dead already. There is no question but what both the passenger and freight associations will be in operation within a short time, but in a form different from that in which they have been working Opinions were divided at the meeting today as to whether it was most desirable to ento bring about such legislation as will allow the roads to form associations similar to the Western Passenger and Freight associations, or continue the association work n such a manner as to avoid all conflict with the decision of the supreme court. general majority of those present favored the ormer plan, but it did not get beyond a nere discussion. Two more roads withdrew from the Western Freight association today, the Island and the Sioux City & Northern being he members to pull out. The rooms of the association were practically closed all day and no effort was made to do anything beyond the merest routine. Judge James A. Logan, general solicitor of the Pennsylvania road, president of the company, said: "The assets of the company represent over $200,000. We have no debts but those mentioned in the mortgages."

Arbitration Treaty. LONDON, March 26 .- In an interview pubished here with William R. Cremer, fornerly member of Parliament (radical), editor f the international arbitration league organ, e Arbitrator, Mr. Cremer is quoted as saying that he considers it wasted time for the senate to ratify the amended arbitration treaty. He adds that the British government will almost certainly refuse to accept the treaty in its emasculated form. He asserts there is good reason to loope that in a few heard in such a way as to Induce the senate to after its position before the next session.

He adds: 'There is no doubt Senator Morgan is the chief obstacle. When in Washington I had a long talk with Mr. Cleveland relative to arbitration and Mr. Cleveland suggested sounding the senate. I saw Senator Morgan, who expressed warm approval of the principle.

pon England." WASHINGTON, March 26.—When Senator Morgan's attention was called to the Associated press dispatch from London reflecting upon that senator's conduct in relation to be arbitration treaty, he said: "Why should I have taken such a course when I was perfectly at liberty to see him on my behalf. Mr. Cremer did come to see ms, and I yielded rejuctantly to an interview with him on the question of arbitration, but I told him very frankly that the people of this country would never submit to the arbitration of American questions by any board the majority of which was com posed of Europeans, and thus indicated the difficulties in the way of securing a plan of arbitration which would be such in stance, and not in name only.

"I told him, it is true, that I endorsed the principle of arbitration. We all agree, I believe, upon our endorsement of this prin different matter when it comes to uniting upon the details of a plan for putting the principle into universal operation. I have realized this difficulty from the beginning and consequently never volunteered to Mr. Cremer or any one else my support of an arbitration treaty at any time. Certainly I would not have done so before seeing the document, as his statement indicates I did. I am told, for I was not present, that when Mr. Cremer was before the committee on foreign relations, he was asked why Parliament did not take the initiative if it was anxious for universal arbitration, and that his reply was to the effect that if the United States would take the initiative this action would influence the British government in giving consent to the project and influence the members of the British Commons, "I think I have the right, without being criticised by Mr. Cremer, to inquire what new motive has urged that government into activity in adopting this peace program of the Commons, which seems to have no application in Europe and no present ground of application to the United States." CAPETOWN, March 26 .- There are sev-
