EXCELLENT SPORT IS ON THE PROGRAM

Much Money is Added to Each Event and the Entries Promise to Make the Pots Worth Shooting For.

LINCOLN, April 19 .- (Special.)-The state shooting tournament opens at Lincoln Park tomorrow morning and lasts four days. The committee has arrangements completed for a most successful season of sport. The grounds are well fitted up for the event and every convenience seems to be provided. A large tent has been fitted up and seated for the convenience of those taking part in the tournament, and an eating house is established on the grounds near by. An amphitheater has also been erected for the benefit of the speciators. It has been arranged for the street cars to run to the grounds every fifteen minutes during the tournament. A large number of sportsmen are already here WASHINGTON, April 19.—Results at Bennings:

When put to a vote Kelly's resolution was lost, and upon motion of Schultz the gas less. The changing of the contract dates has been the bone of contention this season. The players claim that the change of contracts, which does not begin ontract until October 15, is a cruel injustice A number of reasons for this claim are advanced. It is held that while the players are expected to report just as early in the spring for practice, they are not reimbursed until one week before the season starts. Then, in the fall of the year, after the season is closed, the revenue of the exhibition games. ton Conductor Thomas Marshall, an inmate of the state lunatic asylum No. 2, cooked to the club.
