

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

Published every morning. Terms of subscription: Daily (without Sunday), One Year, $1.00...

OUR MEATS IN FOREIGN MARKETS.

The statement that the administration will make an earnest effort to induce European governments to revoke the discriminative regulations regarding the importation of American cattle and meats will be highly gratifying to all engaged in the great meat-producing industry...

That our government ought to take vigorous action in this matter, on the ground of the injustice of the discrimination, there can be no question. The exclusion of our cattle and dressed beef by Germany, France and Belgium is done on the pretext that they are unhealthy...

It is not to be expected that even after the decisive defeat of the export bounty plan in the senate its advocates will cease agitating it, though it ought to be obvious to them that there is no present hope of accomplishing anything.

PUNISH THE REAL CULPRITS.

While no sympathy will be lost on the jury fixer who has just been sentenced to a term of two years' imprisonment for trying to influence members of the Bartley jury panel with offers of money, the public will not be satisfied unless serious efforts are made to run down the real culprits and mete out punishment to them.

The story told by the man Wright, who pleaded guilty to attempted bribery, will not wash. Men engaged in obstructing justice by tampering with jurors do not do business with strangers whom they meet casually on the streets.

Our government is fully justified in vigorously protesting against such treatment of one of our most important products and it would be wanting in a proper regard for American interests if it failed to protest. Perhaps there is little to be expected from such action under present conditions.

AN ENPHEMATIC BLESSING.

The New York Journal of Commerce pointedly observes that nothing is so unaccountable as the inability of countries that have the blessing of cheap money to appreciate it. While men here are proclaiming that they are being ruined by the high value of our money every community in the world that has cheap money is trying to get the more expensive kind.

AS TO EXPORT BOUNTIES.

By an overwhelming majority—the vote was 59 to 10—the senate rejected the amendment to the tariff bill proposed by Senator Cannon, providing for an export bounty on agricultural products.

THE SUBJECT OF EXPORT BOUNTIES ON AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS HAS BEEN SOMEWHAT INDUSTRIOUSLY AGITATED BY A FEW PERSONS DURING THE PAST TWO OR THREE YEARS.

The subject of export bounties on agricultural products has been somewhat industriously agitated by a few persons during the past two or three years, chiefly by Mr. Labin of California, who has been successful in securing for the idea the support of a considerable number of farmers and of some people who are not farmers.

The new so-called silver republican party appears to be dominated largely by men who have the ex before their names as the distinguishing mark of failure to be relegated to office, and there is fair prospect that the number of ex-officers among them will be increased after the next election.

Forty thousand dollars was paid by sportsmen to learn whether Sharkey or Maher was the best man. And the question, the vast and overshadowing importance of which cannot be calculated, is still undecided.

The conference of the representatives of the powers over the terms of the Turkey-Greece peace apparently needs an experienced presiding officer to expedite business by shutting off all obstructive tactics.

In view of the remarkable interest shown by the Chinese in the Transmississippi Exposition representatives of that race are certain to receive a warm welcome at the exposition grounds, whatever may be the attitude toward them of the United States in general.

Why should ex-State Auditor Eugene Moore be so reluctant to testify in the case against ex-State Treasurer Bartley? Is the state house ring perennial, and does its influence cling to inmates of the state house after they have made their final exits from office?

It is time to call a halt on police incompetency and police inefficiency. On this question the whole citizenship of Omaha is re-echoing the sentiments expressed by The Bee.

SOME OF THE BLIND LEFT.

The departure of the sonneteer's blind chaplain for a trip to Europe unfortunately doesn't take the only blind man out of that body.

UNCLE HORACE ADRIFF.

An idea has dawned upon Uncle Horace Adriff that the silver question should be taken to the state legislature.

CONSPICUOUS BY THEIR RARITY.

It is not a pleasant fact for the people to consider that there was not a state legislator last winter into which it would have been possible for an honest man to stray without his regularity being at once noticed.

EXCELLENCE, THOUGH LATE.

Martinez Campos said to the queen regent of Spain the other day that "butchery in Cuba means that it is Spain which holds the island. That is most excellent advice. The solitary defect in it is that it comes about 400 years too late.

AUSPICIOUS SIGNS.

The employees in the Burlington railway machine shops at Lincoln, Neb., are working overtime because of the increase of business on that system, and Senator Pettigrew, who is in Chicago attending the silver conference, says that the tariff bill will become a law by July 10.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP AT DES MOINES.

The people of Des Moines, Ia., by a vote of three to one, have authorized the town council to enter into a new contract for street lighting. The contract is a private corporation will erect a plant of specified capacity at the approximate cost of $100,000.

BETTER TIMES IN THE WEST.

Mr. E. V. Smalley of St. Paul writes to the New York Evening Post the results of his observations on a recent trip of a month from Chicago to Portland, Ore. He stopped at various points on the way, thus gaining opportunities to gather reliable information concerning the business conditions, and his conclusion is that trade is everywhere improving.

INVESTIGATIONS AND CONCLUSIONS OF A ST. PAUL MAN.

Mr. E. V. Smalley of St. Paul writes to the New York Evening Post the results of his observations on a recent trip of a month from Chicago to Portland, Ore. He stopped at various points on the way, thus gaining opportunities to gather reliable information concerning the business conditions, and his conclusion is that trade is everywhere improving.

DISCUSS COMMERCIAL AGENCIES.

Methods of Collecting and Distributing Information Reviewed. KANSAS CITY, June 10.—An open parliament following the reading of several papers was the program at the forenoon session today of the second annual convention of the National Commercial Agency.

Owing to Mr. Reddan's absence his paper was read by H. L. Ghis of Cincinnati. dwelt at length on the methods used by the mercantile agencies, and suggested improvements in the present system of reporting.

A lengthy discussion resulted in the adoption of a motion offered by Mr. Standart of Detroit to effect the closing of the convention by the reading of a paper by Mr. Standart.

Telegrams and letters from a number of cities offering inducements for the next convention were read, and it was taken tomorrow and it seems likely that Saratoga will win.

MRS. YARDE-BULLER GOING WEST.

Evidence Not Admitted in England Will Be Received in California. CHICAGO, June 10.—Hon. Mrs. Yarde-Buller, principal in a divorce case which before the English courts, is registered at the Wellington hotel, accompanied by her two sons, this American woman, who ten years ago married the brother of Lord Curzon of the British cabinet, is en route to San Francisco, where the final struggle for absolute divorce has been carried on.

REWARD FOR LOYAL BRYANITES.

Certificates of Honor to Be Used as Recommendations for Office. MINNEAPOLIS, June 10.—The National Volunteers of Democracy, the name of a new organization whose plan is exceedingly bold, the headquarters is at St. Louis, but local headquarters are receiving circulars from Secretary Hoffman, who explains that certificates of honor are to be granted to all loyalists.

CANNOT COMPEL THE GOVERNOR.

Judge Hands Down a Decision Limiting Grand Jury's Powers. MINNEAPOLIS, June 10.—Judge Simpson of the district bench this afternoon handed down a decision which it was the duty of the governor to respond to the grand jury's subpoena and to produce such papers as it required, he could not be compelled to do so by the judiciary branch of the state government, which is only co-ordinate with and not superior to the executive. The governor is exempt from judicial process while in the discharge of his duties, and he alone is judge of when such process would interfere with such duties.

PHOTOGRAPHS WAVES OF SOUND.

Brooklyn Baptist Minister Makes a Wonderful Discovery. NEW YORK, June 10.—The process of photographing sound waves and from the plates reproducing the original sounds has been, it is announced, successfully carried out by Rev. A. C. Ferguson, a Baptist minister now living in Brooklyn. The astonishing part of his discovery, he says, is the simplicity of the process by which this result has been achieved.

BYNUM MOVES TO BROOKLYN.

Chairman of Gold Standard Democrats Goes East to Live. NEW YORK, June 10.—William D. Bynum, chairman of the national committee of the democratic party, has become a New Yorker. Mr. Bynum, with his family, has moved from Indianapolis to Brooklyn, where he will make his home.

RAILROAD MAN GOES INSANE.

Chicago June 10.—A man supposed to be G. G. Walmesley, chief train dispatcher of the Texas and New Orleans railway, is in charge of the police, who found him at the corner of 11th and Lake avenues, helpless and apparently demented. At the station papers were found in his possession which indicated that he is a high-ranking official of the Texas and New Orleans railway.

SULLIVAN'S CHILDREN'S DAY

It's every day Children's Day here with prices and qualities especially to suit the children folks. All the latest styles in all sizes and widths—besides many styles exclusive with us.

Children's Chocolate Shoes.....$1.00 Children's Chocolate and Wine Colors.....$1.25-$1.50 Misses' Fine Wine and Tan.....$1.00 Other specially choice styles.....$2.00

C. P. Cartwright & Co.

16th and Douglas Streets.

THE GULF REPUBLIC.

The Destiny of Cuba—Spanish Control Gone Forever. Washington, June 10.—The Gulf Republic, a weekly paper published in New Orleans, has been the subject of a careful examination of the conditions on the island of Cuba.

"We don't want Cuba," the senator replied. "But," argued the president, for that was the time when the San Domingo annexation scheme was under consideration.

"We could not find Cuba a suitable place for the gulf." "Mr. President," the senator continued, "you could not find Cuba a suitable place for the gulf."

"We could never assimilate the population of Cuba," he said. "The Cubans have their manners, their customs, their characteristics entirely different from ours. We could not make Americans out of them."

"I have no doubt that there is to be a gulf republic," said the president. "I believe that Cuba is to become the New York of the Empire state of the gulf republic."

"We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba," he said. "We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba."

"We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba," he said. "We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba."

"We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba," he said. "We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba."

"We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba," he said. "We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba."

"We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba," he said. "We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba."

"We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba," he said. "We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba."

"We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba," he said. "We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba."

"We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba," he said. "We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba."

"We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba," he said. "We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba."

"We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba," he said. "We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba."

"We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba," he said. "We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba."

"We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba," he said. "We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba."

"We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba," he said. "We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba."

"We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba," he said. "We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba."

"We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba," he said. "We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba."

"We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba," he said. "We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba."

"We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba," he said. "We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba."

"We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba," he said. "We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba."

"We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba," he said. "We have done our best to maintain the independence of Cuba."

to school all day. Marshall, who was absent, brought me half a pound of powder which I had ordered." The record of the Fourth of July is missing. "Saturday, 5, did not get up till 11 o'clock. Went over to Hinkley's, and we went to the doctor's, and he had the powder. In his face picked out."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

"I guess not! You see, we are all oldshiners."

Young or Old

Tall or short, slim or stout, rich or poor, our range of sizes and shapes in fine clothing ready-to-wear contains just your size.

Any trifling alteration in length of sleeves or trousers that may be necessary to insure a perfect fit we make promptly and without charge.

There is no such thing as a misfit—either in the garments or the price. We use finer materials than the cheap tailor uses and make all our goods in our own factory and under the most careful supervision.

No better clothing than we offer can be made for less than we charge. We don't know where you will get any as good for as little money.

Browning, King & Co. S. W. Cor. 15th and Douglas Sts.