ON THE WRONG SIDE OF MARKET.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.-James R. Willard, Elmer Dwiggins and Jay Dwiggins, who compose the firm of J. R. Willard & Co., bankers and brokers, with offices in this city, Buffalo, New York, Washington, Philadelphia and Montreal, today assumed to James L. Starbuck, with preferences for $20,000 to William H. Oxterbout. No statement of the condition of the firm is yet obtainable, but it is estimated that their liabilities will reach Jay Dwiggins is at present trav-

R. Willard, senior member of the firm. has been a member of the Consolidated ex-change since September 3, 1885. He has represented the firm in Chicago and bad a branch office in that city up to a few months ago, when it closed and the business was taken over by John Dickinson & Co. Elmer Dwiggins was the working head of the firm. He made application to be admitted to membership in the Consolidated exchange on July 31, but was not admitted. Elmer and Jay Dwiggina, who were brothers, are nephews of Zimri Dwiggins, who founded a large system of country banks in Illinois, Indiana and other western states, most of which failed in the panie of 1893.

"The cause of the failure," said Assignee Starbuck, "is simply that the firm has been upon the wrong side of the market. They have been short on stocks and grain."

The firm has done a big business on the Consolidated exchange, within sixty days having run as high as 9,000 to 10,000 shares of stock daily. The assignee, Mr. Starbuck, is one of the bookkeepers of the firm. On his behalf an employe made the following statement: "It is difficult to tell what the liabilities of the firm are, but they will probably amount to as much as $1,000,000 It is even more difficult at this time to give idea of the assets of the firm ever they are, the consist mainly of cash in hand, outstanding accounts and securities. There is some prospect of a resumption of business, provided a reasonable settlement made with creditors.

DRIVE LAST SPIKE ON SUNDAY.

Final Act in Completion of New Road to the Gulf. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 9 .- The last spike in the construction of the Kansas City, Pittsburg & Gulf road to Port Arthur, Texas, on the gulf, will be driven at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. At Fairmount park, this city, there will be a celebration in honor of the event. At Port Arthur there will be joy and jubilation and at Spreveport, Mena and different points on the road the day will be made memorable by the celebrations. For over two months through passenger trains have been run from Kansas City to Port Arcoulsiana, on what is known as the Lake Charles branch, the road used its own tracks, and from Lake Charles to Beaumont, twenty miles above Port Arthur, the tracks of the Southern Pacific were utilized. But these forty-seven miles of track between DeQuincy and Beaumont now being laid, will be Pitts-burg and Gulf rails, and the road will then GHOULS AT WORK. Human ghouls delved in the burning wreck and plundered the baggage and mail sacks which strewed the ground. One tried to snatch a diamond from the breast of an Emporia doctor, who, weak and nervous, was creeping slowly out of the debris. He had strength enough left to hit the brute a blow in the face which made him turn and sneak away. Mail sacks were dragged into the cornfield and rifled.

The report at the Kansas City postoffice is that practically all the mail on both of the wrecked trains was destroyed. One pouch owever, for southern California on the wes bound train, No. 1. is said to have been saved be using only its own tracks the entire dis-tance. Through Its Paces. FORT MONROE, W. Va., Sept. 9.- The with Assistant Secretary Roosevelt, who has Just completed an inspection of the north Atlantic squadron at sea and while under full fleet maneuvers. This is the first inspection made in recent years under such conditions and the results were highly satisfactory. Under the eye of the assistant secretary an extensive program of exercises was successfully executed in a limited period of time. In summing up the results of his inspection of the squadron Mr. Roosevelt said:

The test has been in every way more than satisfactory. There is every reason to be satisfied with every detail of the management of the huge war ships. This is the first time that such a squadron of modern Ironelada has admiral. Indeed, is is the first time in peace that an American admiral has ever com-manded a squadron relatively so formidable impared with the war ships of other power last we are beginning to have a navy fit to hold up the interests of our people, a navy which, though too small in size, need fear omparison with no other as regards the quality of its ships and men."

TROTTING AT FLEETWOOD PARK. Good Card is Put Up on the Grand Circuit.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—The card today at Fleetwood park's grand circuit meeting was a strong one, though the blue pencil reduced the three-minute trotting class to two former sold at $25 to $6 with few backers. The favorite won in slow time. The 2:20 pace was a hot race from a betting standpoint, as the field sold for $1,000 and Quadriga $300. The favorite won in straight heats. As the track is a little slow, his time was fully equal to 2:07. The hope of the fielders was the smart western mare, Sally Toler, 2:08\(\frac{1}{2}\), but the best she could do was second in two heats and the third she went to a standstill break and got the flag. Betting was lively in the 2:12 trotting class and in the early pools Alcidalia sold for $100; Grace Hastings, $50; Cephas, $40; Van Zandt, $23; Athanio, $20; Fred B, $15, and the field $12. Later Alcidalia sold for $150 and the field $15. When the party got the word Derby Princess sailed to the front and led all the way to the wire with Alcidalia two lengths behind. In the next heat the Princess led to the half, where she was passed by Emma Offutt, who led up to the hill with Van Zandt and Fred B close up. In a bruising finish the latter won from Van Zandt in Emma Offutt, who p. In a bruising finish the latter wo from Van Zandt with Emma Offutt a good third.
