question of the proposed international dam, remarking: "Frontier towns from Juares for a distance of 113 kilometres down the for a manage of the kilometers about to river have suffered damage which amounts to many millions of dollars and have lost a large number of inhabitants on account of the frequent inundations from the Rio Grande and use of the water of the river for irrigation purposes on land in the States, which has greatly reduced the volume of water. In order to remedy, as far as pos-sible, these evils, a great international reserwoir has been planned and negotiations opened at Washington by our minister. It is to be hoped that the government of the United States, overcoming the difficulties raised by speculators, will conclude a treaty with Mexico for the execution of this work, which is of vital importance to dwellers or either bank of the river." Referring to the question of silver as af-fecting the finances of Mexico, the president Unfortunately the present fiscal year not begin under as good auspices as the previous one, for the excessive weakness and fluctuations of silver, often sudden and violent in their character, have so infinenced the economic situations of the coun try that it is demanding the serious attenion of the government and has caused the adoption of measures of prudence, sil ex-penses not absolutely necessary being de ferred or reduced. The magnitude and sud den character of the present perturbation in silver certainly do not correspond to the known causes which have produced it and therefore there are well founded motives for expecting that the factors, more or less artificial, which have had an influence in the decline of silver, will be of short duration and may even soon bring about a favor-There is not, therefore, for the present, any serious reason for slarm. The nation will be able to pass through this difficult period confronting it with the same which it displayed a few years ago when the causes produced alarm.

FEARS OF FURTHER TROUBLE Friends of Mob Victims in Indiana

Make Threats. CINCINNATI, Sept. 16 .- A Versailles Ind. special to the Times-Star says: The people w Versailles are still dazed more than ever by the horror of the tragedy Tuesday night. No other subject is discussed except speculation as to the probability of action being taken as to the arrest and punishment of the participants in the mob. All agree that the plan was deliberately laid. It is said witnesses that from the time the two signal rockets were sent up on the outskirts of the town dutil the work of the mol was completed and the men were going home was not more that fifteen minutes. also said that the active participants in the lynching did not exceed fifteen or twenty ough the men who were present as guards and helpers numbered about 250.

It is generally conceded that the organizer were Osgood men, though so far none can found who recognized any of them. apprehension that further work is intended by the organization still continues and the luckless man who gets into the Versailles jail will have reason to dread the conse-quences. This feeling may have a tendency to cause some of the suspected men to leave the country. Peter Hostetter, who gave the information to the sheriff about the bur glary at Correct, has taken alarm at th threats by friends of the victims and has disappeared.

An Osgood special to the Times-Star says: There will be an awful reckoning for the slaughter of the five men in the Versailles All of the victims have many relatives and friends, who have determined that some-body must suffer for the wholesale lynching. body here feels that more b be shed. WARM RECEPTION FOR ANARCHISTS

Runaway Team Alone Saves Then from an Angry Crowd. NEW YORK, Sept. 16 .- Two men, supposed to be emissaries of some anarchistic society, denounced the government, branded the Poles of Chicago as cringing cowards to shreds at Black Hawk and Noble streets last night. The result was a small sized riot, during which the supposed anarchists were badly beaten. Had it not been for the fact that the horse attached to the light wagen from which they were speaking be-came frightened by the angry shouts of half hundred Poles and ran away down Black awk street, the two men probably have been dangerously injured, if not killed outright. As it was, a crowd of infuriated men chased the runaway for several blocks. throwing stones and sticks at the half unblord covered men, grouched in the bottom of the wagon, terrified and suffering from many wounds. The horse soon tired out its pursuers and carried the two supposed anarchists to safety.

Proposal of Bank of England Made Subject to Conditions.

NOT INTENDED TO TAKE ANY CHANCES

Proposed to Keep Part of Reserve in Silver if France Adopts Free Columne and Price Was

Satisfactory. LONDON, Sept. 16 .- At the semi-annual meeting of the Bank of England today the limquents is considerably larger than it governor, Hugh G. Smith, said: "You are probably aware of the proposals laid before the government in the summer by the United States and France, whereby this country might increase its use of silver as a contribution to an international agreement, which, while not affecting our gold standard, might enable the mints of France and America to resume free coinage. Among the proposals was one asking the bank to hold the amount of eliver permissible under the act of 1844 as against its notes." The governor then read a letter dated July 29, addressed to the chancellor of the exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach. It was as follows: "Referring to our conversation, we beg to say the bank is prepared to carry out what is laid down as permissible in the bank charter, viz.: To hold one-fifth of the bullion held against its note issue in silver, again open to the free coinage of silver and that the price at which silver is procurable and salable are satisfactory,'

Replying to questions the governor said the bank had no negotiations with the United States monetary commissioners, add-"We have bought no silver. All we have done is to agree under certain circumstances to carry out what is permissible under the act of 1844." CAUSES LITTLE COMMENT

The letter excited surprisingly little comnent and did not affect silver stocks. Great satisfaction, however, is expressed at the headquarters of the bimetallic league. The secretary of the Bank of England, George F Glennie, when asked if the action of the Bank of England depended upon the reopening of the Indian mints, replied: "That is political question and does not concern

The bankers of the city are surprised and displeased. Manager Ress of Glynn, Mills, Curie & Co., ardent supporters of the Gold Standard Defense association, voiced the opinion of the bankers. He said:

"The letter, with such qualifications, does not pledge the bank to anything and its only effect will be to encourage the bimetallist agitation. If the plan was carried out it might raise the price of silver temporarily, which would be followed by a reopening of the American mines, overproduction and anther fall in the price of silver." The officials of the foreign office declined comment on the letter, but a high official f the Treasury department is credited in an atterview with decrying the work of the

CONTRACTOR OF THE PROPERTY OF South Omaha News . [

The delinquent tax list was completed yesterday by City Treasurer Broadwell and turned over to the county treasurer. This list contains about 7,000 different descriptions of property. In a few instances the same piece of property is described twice According to the treasurer the list of deshould be. For instance, the property on Twenty-sixth street from J to Q street is all on this list. This street was graded in 1889 and the cost taxed up against the property. Quite a number of the property owners paid in a portion of this tax, when by a decision of the courts the tax was declared illegal and all payments stopped. For this reason, and in the absence of any action by the city council, the property is carried on the delinquent list, when it should not be. The city at large will be compelled to pay for this grading, the payment of the interest coupons being looked after the same as with other districts, only the interest must come out of the general fund instead of A similar case is the grading district on Missouri avenue from Thirteenth to Twen-tleth street. The property owners in this district started in to pay their portion of the tax, when for some reason the matter got into the courts and the tax was declared llegal. Then the payments ceased and the interest and maturing coupons have been taken care of by the taxpayers at large. All of this property is carried on the delinquent The city treasurer has asked the council for instructions in the matter, but no action has been taken.

It is claimed that the tax against the property in these two districts should be canceled Special taxes are being paid in much bet ter this year than for a number of years past and there is more inquiry for tax state-ments than ever before. The Metropolitan yesterday paid back taxes amounting to $1,000. Preparing for Fire.

Extensive improvements in the fire fight ing apparatus at Swift and Company's packing house are being made. Additional quarters for the regular firemen are being built and will be completed within a few days These rooms are large, well lighted, and will be fitted with all conveniences, including a bath room. Electric appliances which will indicate a fire in any part of the extensive plant, will be placed in the fire hall, which is so located that the firemen can get to any part of the works in a moment's time The regular fire fighting force will consist of eight men in charge of Fire Marshal Vol guardson, who occupied a similar position at the great Swift plant in Chicago. A large amount of hose will be purchased, making the total amount on hand about 18,000 feet. This hose is placed on reels in different parts of the plant, and can be obtained on short notice. Workmen are now engaged in running an additional water main through the main street in the plant, and a stand pipe is being erected on each building. Improvements are also being made to the big numps which are used exclusively for fire ourposes. Two mains the thirty-inch and the eighteen-inch mains, of the water works company are now connected with pumps, making the company independent of he city water pressure. All of the surplus water is turned into a monster cistern, and this could be used in case of an accident to the water mains, besides this, there are umber of large reservoirs of brine, which might be used in an emergency. The provements will cost something over $5,000 and when completed the plant will be supplied with the best there is in the fire fight

Large Force of Microscopists. Twenty women are now employed in government microscopical department. This is a larger number than for several years. During the summers of 1894 and 1895 the force in the microscopical department was laid off most of the time, there being no work in sight. Now all of the packing houses are filling large export orders and the entire force has been kept busy all summer. Several additional microscopists were appointed a short time ago and there appears to be plenty of work for all. Only samples of hogs intended for the export trade are examined, the meats for home consumption not being subjected to a microscopical examination. Beef for export is not examined by the microscopists, the inspectors making the necessary examination before and after killing.
Since a United States judge at Washington has decided that the appointive power has also the right to remove government em-ployes, whether under civil service rules or not, it is feared by some that the senate investigating committee will not come to South Omaha as intended to investigate the removals of some of the taggers, inspectors and microscopists. This decision, which was rendered only a few days ago, is to the effect that a cabinet officer is an agent of the chief executive and has power to remove apdeems such action necessary pointees if he for the good of the service. Persons holding government positions here appear to be greatly interested in this decision and do now as though they had a mortgage on their jobs as they did a short time ago The senate investigating committee was to have arrived here on September 21.

Mains for Gas Extension. Several cars of pipe for the Omaha Gas ompany have arrived and are being unloaded in the upper railroad yards. It is understood that this pipe is to be used in extending the gas mains from Omaha to the business part of this city. According to one of the officials of the gas company the work of laying the pipe will commence within few days.

Water for the Roundhouse. A quantity of pipe to be used in extending the water main from Twenty-seventh street to the new roundhouse now being built by the stock yards company, has arrived. The big thirty-inch main of the water works company will be tapped near Twentyseventh and C streets, and the new mains laid in a westerly direction to the round-

National Golf Tournament. CHICAGO, Sept. 16 .- The most sensational event of the national golf tournament ocor the Chicago Golf club. McDonald was the 1895 champion, being displaced by Whig-ham in 1896 and was confidently expected to reach the championship this year. At the beginning of the games Betts was a comparatively unknown man, and when it was announced that he was one of the four qualified for the semi-finals, he was not considered a remate possibility. Betts really considered a remote possibility. Betts really won over McDonaid by superior nerve.
