Improvement Club Adopts a Series of

The Southside Improvement club held another rousing meeting at its rooms at Tenth and Hickory streets last night, at which the street car question was the topic for discussion. The committee on street car accommodations reported a series of resolutions which were adopted unanimously. The resolutions call attention to a number of promises made by the street car company to build and operate lines in the south part of the city if certain grading was done, all of which promises are said to have been broken; they demand that the unused tracks of the company which now occupy the streets be torn up that another company may come in and build a line to accommodate the people; they call upon the League of American Wheelmen to assist in having these ob-of the city; they call for the appointment of committees to secure competent legal advice
