CONDITION OF OMAHA'S TRADE to one brand of goods to make a General Situation Highly Satisfactory in Most Departments.

Change to Cooler Weather Expected to Have a Beneficial Effect Upon the Consuming Demand for Sensonable Merchandise.

The past week has only served to accentuate he fact that business has undergone a permanent improvement and that the activity noted in all lines the past month was in no way of a spasmodic character. In spite of the unseasonable weather jobbers were very busy all the week and most houses were forced to work overlime in order to keep even with incoming orders. At the same time country merchants have been, to all appearances, buying very conservatively and only in sufficient volume to keep pace with the consuming demand which is a certain guaranty of a continued good business all through the season. The goods that have been going out from the found their way directly to consumers. No one is buying for the purpose of piling up one is buying for the purpose of piling the purpose of piling up one is buying for the purpose of piling up one is buying for the purpose of piling t merchandise on store shelves. The future of the jobbing trade is therefore dependent directly upon a continuance of the present consuming demand, but as to that there can be no doubt when it is taken into consideration that the present active demand sprung into existence before the most important crop of the state has been marketed. The marketing of the corn crop can certainly be relied upon not to diminish the consuming demand for merchandise and it ought to largely increase it.

COOL WEATHER STARTS TRADE. In some respects the change to cooler weather was the most important event in the local business world. Retailers in all sections of tributary territory have complained of the unseasonable weather as a great detriment to business. No one could be expected to buy very freely of winter goods with the thermometer indicating summer heat, and there has been a general tendency on the part of consumers to put off buying until necessity dictated their wants. The cooler weather has aiready caused a marked improvement in a great many lines. Woolen goods, such as underwear, clothing, dress goods and all kinds of wearing apparel, have felt a marked change for the letter, There is also freer buying of boots and shoes and greatly increased activity is to be noted about the coal yards and among the stove and furnace men. In fact every department of trade that may be gold to content to the coal weather demand In some respects the change to cooler among the stove and furnace men. In fact every department of trade that may be said to enter to the cold weather demand shows improvement.

Buyers seem generally to have money and the requests for credit are less frequent than in former years. For that reason collections are very good with the jobbers, as retail merchants are enabled to meet their obligations promptly.

retail merchants are enabled to meet their obligations promptly.

The report of the bank clearings for the past week was especially favorable, the rate of increase at Omaha-72 per cent—being the heaviest of any of the larger cities of the country. The average rate of increase for the whole country outside of New York City was only 25 per cent. The total of the clearings at this point was $6,165.567, which is also regarded as a very good showing, being an average of over $1.00,000 a day. This places Omaha along in the same list with cities like Milwaukee, Providence, Cleveland and Detroit and shead of cities like St. Paul, Buffalo and Indianapolis.

G. H. Russell of Perry, Ia., was in the city the other day and confirmed the reports already received as to the shortage in the potato crop of that state. He said that the farmers in many sections of the state would be compelled to buy for their own use. As there are a good many potatoes in western Nebraska, Colorado and the Black Hills country. the growers will stand buyers of wind mills, pumps, etc.

The fame of Omaha as a point for the manufacture of men's shirts is spreading and this industry promises to become one of no little importance in the near future. The Nebraska Shirt company is steadily branching out, one of its latest moves being the establishment of a representative at Des Moines, which is bringing in a large amount of additional business. It might be remarked in this connection that Iowa is a very good buyer of Nebraska manufactured goods.

E. J. Chiszell, secretary of the National

E. J. Chissell, secretary of the National Oil and Pahit company, is back from a trip to Colorado. While there he entered into negociations to supply one of the railroad companies with mineral paint to be used on freight cars, the manufacture of that paint being a specialty with his company. The local demand for paints has brightened up very materially and there is a good prospect of still further improvement, now that the weather is cooler.

a good prospect of still further improvement, now that the weather is cooler.

I. W. Carpenter of the Carpenter Paper company returned the past week from Chicago. Both sales and collections in the paper business are very satisfactory. Mr. Carpenter says that the most encouraging feature in relation to the future of Omaha is the fast that the state is gradually filling up with consumers. The introduction of new industries and the growth of old ones is bringing in new people who will become buyers of merchandise, and that while he always had confidence in Omaha, it is stronger now than ever.

Secretary Holmes of the Manufacturers' association attended the meeting of the State Board of Purchase and Supplies held in Lincoln the past week and reports that the manufacturers of Nebraska will be given orders for supplies for the state institutions, for this quarter, amounting to about $12.00. These supplies will consist largely of food products and clothing. It might be added that as a result of the efforts of the Manufacturers' association very little except Nebraska manufactured goods are going into the state institutions.

J. H. Haney & Co. are putiting on a large number of harness-makers in order goods are going into the state institutions.

J. H. Haney & Co. are putiting on a large number of harness-makers in order in order to keep pace with the increase in orders. The company has a factory at Hastings as well as at Omaha. Mr. Dutton, manager of the Hastings factory, was in the city last week and reported that the output at that point is six times as great as last year. He says that the improvement in business was felt earlier and in a greater degree in the western part of the state and that it then spread eastward toward Omaha. The company employs sixty people at its Omaha factory and twenty-five at Hastings.

The action of the physicians at a number of the state institutions in specifying pharmaceutical preparations put up by eastern houses instead of using the goods made within their own state is severly criticised by local manufacturers. The amount of goods of this class used by the state institutions is not so large as to make it any great object with Nobraska manufacturers, but it is the moral effect upon private consumers that is most regretted. The represedatives of eastern manufacturers are not at all slow in making use of the advantage with this gives them and it is frequently argued that if Nebraska-made preparations were the equal of those from eastern houses the state institutions would not referse to use them. On the other hand the manufacturers point to the fact that the Mercer Chemical company of this city was awarded a large government contract after a most thorough examination of the goods and they argue that if the Halled States government was satisfied the doctors at the state institutions ought to be, it is simply another example of the reductance of people who have been accus-The action of the physicians at a number

TELLER SEES NO HOPE FOR SILVER.

Thinks Present Administration Will Do Nothing for White Metal. DENVER. Oct. 9 .- In an interview on the unfavorable reply anticipated from Great Britain to the international bimetallic envoys Senator Teller said: "I have all along said that France might be willing to open its mints, but that it would ask more concessions to silver than Great Britain would be willing to grant and so the conference would come to naught. Moreover, I believe, even if England should open the mints of India to the free coinage of silver, as France requests, and France should open its mints and the Bank of England should hold onefifth of its reserve in silver, the present administration would do nothing for silver in this country."
