

GEORGE M. PULLMAN DEAD

Etched Demise of the Chicago Millionaire at His Home.

RETIREES IN APPARENT GOOD HEALTH

Heart Disease the Cause of His Taking Off—Found Dead in Bed at an Early Hour in the Morning.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—George M. Pullman died suddenly of heart disease at 5 o'clock this morning. His Pullman death occurred in his magnificent brownstone home at the corner of Prairie avenue and Eighteenth street, where he has resided for many years.

Mr. Pullman retired last evening at his usual hour, which was somewhat early. He was apparently in his ordinary health and there was no indication of his demise, or, indeed, any premonition even of illness.

Mr. Pullman was at his office in the Pullman building up to 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon attending to business. Nothing unusual was noticed in his appearance. Mrs. Pullman was not at home when her husband passed away, she being absent in New York.

At the town of Pullman, where the great shops that bear the dead magnate's name are situated, no word had been heard of his death till newspaper men began to inquire as to the feeling of the townspeople on the subject. The Pullman people were at such an hour that the company officials in the town had heard nothing regarding the death of their chief till after the tolling of the huge car works bell, which establishments had begun the daily routine, all unconscious of the tragic occurrence at the Illinois stone palace a few miles further north on the lake shore.

COMPLAINED OF HEAT. While seemingly in good health, Mr. Pullman had been complaining during the last three or four days of the hot spell and feeling rather unwell. After leaving his office at 5 p. m., he went to his residence all evening. About 4:30 this morning he awoke and called his wife servant to his bedside and spoke of again feeling unwell.

Tip Top Coats... DON'T put it off—we mean one of our top coats. Come in now and put one on. We haven't had one of those cream colored Overcoats in our house this fall until yesterday (you know the kind that all the fashionable fellows are wearing) because we have been "looking around" to see where we could do the best. We found a firm who preferred immediate cash to a job lot of sizes. We bought 'em all. We'll sell them now at a small margin of profit. These coats are made of Covert Cloth, all wool, strap seams, Italian cloth lining, satin sleeve lining, at $6.00—a price which makes them seem unworthy until you are brought face to face with them. Remember this is a "job lot"—sizes are limited.

As a policeman Drexel L. Shoeman has a work to perform and like all good policemen he's on his feet most of the time—but his feet never get that tired feeling for he wears the regulation policeman's shoe—a shoe that's made for comfort—warmth and satisfaction—in the box toe—plain toe—with a good heavy sole—in lace or congress—made expressly for policemen and worn by them—and others who are exposed to all kinds of weather—there's a value in this shoe that can't be estimated by the price we ask—for that's only $3.00—it's a great big $3.00 worth such as we alone can give.
