

GEORGIA TO BE RIGHT IN IT

Will Have One of the Finest Displays at the Exposition.

GOVERNOR ATKINSON IS ENTHUSIASTIC

Says He'll Come to Omaha with a Bigger Military Retinue Than He Had at the Nashville Show.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 29.—(Special Telegram.)

Georgia will have one of the best exhibits at Omaha. The material collected for the Atlanta and Nashville exhibitions is on hand, and will be supplemented by popular subscription. The railroad will help in transportation and greatly add to the exhibits of their own.

Governor Atkinson enthusiastically says: "I will do all in my power to make this the best exhibit Georgia has ever had at an exposition. We have on hand material it would cost $10,000 to duplicate, but we are bringing up to date and excitement. If a credible exhibit is started I will ask for a Georgia day and will go there to see the state well represented. The state would make a military escort equally as imposing, if not more so, than the state had at Nashville on Georgia day."

IOWA NATIONAL GUARD CAMP.

General Guest Hopes to See it Pitched at Council Bluffs.

Secretary of the Manufacturers' and Consumers' association spent his Christmas at Burlington, Ia. While there he met his old friend, Brigadier General James A. Guest, who commands the Second brigade, Iowa National Guard. General Guest, in the course of a conversation on exposition topics, touched on the mobilization of the militia at Council Bluffs during the summer of 1898, and went into some detail in explaining his efforts to bring about this end.

RECOGNITION OF THE EXPOSITION.

National Fisheries Congress Sets Apart a "Transmississippi Day."

The management of the National Fisheries congress, to be held at Jacksonville, Fla., during the latter part of January, has designated January 22 in honor of the Transmississippi Exposition, and it is expected that representatives of the exposition will attend.

Horticulturists Organizing.

A meeting of horticulturists interested in the formation of a Douglas county society to take an active part in seeing that the horticultural resources of the county are properly shown at the exposition met at the Trade building yesterday afternoon.

Moore Case Submitted.

The trial of the divorce case of Mrs. Benjamin Moore against her husband, the wealthy Sioux county ranchman was closed last evening and submitted to Judge Dickinson, who will hand down an opinion at some future date.

The Surprise of All.

Mr. James Jones, the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with La Grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Peoria and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into Hasty Consumption.

CHARLES CERNY BADLY BURNED.

Lies in a Critical Condition at St. Joseph's Hospital. An accident occurred to Charles Cerny last night in which he received serious burns and the building which he occupied as a clothes-cleaning establishment was partially destroyed by fire.

JURORS ACCUSE EACH OTHER

AFFIDAVITS FOR BOLL'S BONDSMEN

THE "GEEZER" IS ANNOUNCED FOR THIS EVENING AT THE CRESTON, PRESENTED BY DONNELLY AND GIRARD.

For ten years this pair of fun-makers have been visitors to Omaha. In the "City Directory" they amused for a time, then came "Natural Gas" and "The Rain-makers." Now they bring "The Geezer," which is said to be by far the funniest of any of their productions. The play pictures Nellie Fly, an American newspaper correspondent on a trip round the world. When she visits Pekin she seeks an interview with the emperor of China and finds Li Hung Chang making preparations for the trip to America, where he goes to secure an American heiress to wed the emperor.

THE "STANDING ROOM ONLY" SIGN WAS OUT IN CRESTON COLLEGE LAST NIGHT AT THE DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENT GIVEN BY THE STUDENTS OF THE COLLEGE DEPARTMENT OF THAT INSTITUTION.

A theatrical manager would surely have been content for a large audience could hardly have been accommodated. The big auditorium was packed and then people stood around the edges. Daniel Terry's charged that the verdict was a forced one, and that the jurors had been induced to agree by reason of pressure brought to bear by certain of the jurors who were on the case.

AT WHICH TIME AFFIDAVITS WILL BE SUBMITTED, WITNESSES WILL BE SWORN AND ARGUMENTS WILL BE MADE.

When Judge Slaughter convened his court yesterday all of the attorneys were on hand. Attorney Mahoney, for the bondsmen, presented affidavits made by himself and his associate, Attorney Broome, in which they charged that the verdict was a forced one, and that the jurors had been induced to agree by reason of pressure brought to bear by certain of the jurors who were on the case.

CLAIMANT ALLEGES THAT SHE IS A HALF-SISTER OF THE LATE CHARLES W. HAMILTON.

Thurston Rifles' Dance. A formal dancing party was given by the Thurston Rifles at their armory last night. The large parlors and dancing hall were appropriately decorated and the dress uniforms of the riflemen were worn by the assembly.

ATTORNEY RUSH IN TOWN.

Assistant District Attorney Rush arrived in the city last night from Minneapolis, where he prosecuted J. A. Hunter, a well-to-do rancher of that vicinity, before United States Commissioner O'Keefe, on the charge of fencing in government land.

SUIT AGAINST HAMILTON ESTATE.

Jane A. Hole-iskus has filed an $8,000 claim against the estate of Charles W. Hamilton, deceased. In the affidavit that accompanies the claim, the affiant says that twenty-three years ago, while living in New York, her mother, Lucy A. Loomis, sent Hamilton $5,000 on trust, and that she, the affiant, is entitled to one-half of this sum, $2,500 and the accrued profits, estimated at $5,000. The case has been discussed on the street cars in my presence and the public is in favor of a verdict for the plaintiff. I have my mind made up as to how I am to vote. This juror had also heard Miller say that he believed that Sprague was lying. He had heard Garlock say that there was no reason why the bankers should not pay, and further, he had heard Juror Oliver say: "The state has been robbed by its treasurer and something has to be done pretty soon to stop this thing."

JUDGE SLAUGHTER SAID THAT IN HIS JUDGMENT IT WOULD BE ADVISABLE TO HAVE THE JURORS IN COURT IN ORDER TO SUMMON THEM AND HAVE THEM IN ATTENDANCE THE CONTINUANCE UNTIL TODAY WAS ORDERED.
