The congress will be held June 18 and 19. Arrangements have been made, whereby the special trains from Boston, New York, Chicago, St. Louis, Minneapolis and other points, carrying their loads of delegates to the meeting of the National Federation of Woman's Clubs at Denver, will stop in Omaha, June 18, for the purpose of enabling all these women to attend the congress and visit the exposition. The morning will be given up to a visit to the exposition and in gress will be held in the Auditorium on the exposition grounds. In the evening a session will be held at some point downtown.

Both sessions will be devoted to the discuscion of economic questions, and the congress committee have well grounded hopes that Mrs. Clara de Graffenreid, assistant to Car-roll D. Wright, United States commissioner of labor, will address one of these meet-

UNION LABOR HAS A GRIEVANCE.

Serves Notice that the Wage Agree ment is Being Violated.

A rumble of impending trouble with or ganized labor was heard at the meeting of the executive committee yesterday after-Arrangements for the congress of woman's noon, when a formal notice was received clubs, to be held in connection with the ex- from the officers of the Building Trades council announcing that at the last meeting of the council a resolution was adopted de-claring that the exposition management had violated the agreement with organized labor by employing laborers to do carpenter work and paying electrical workers less than the union scale. The exposition officials were forty-eight hours to right these alleged grievances the Building Trades council would take action under its rules. This matter was referred to a special > dall and Rosewater and President Wattles confer with the committee of the Building Trades council and report upon the situa-tion and the remedy which should be adopted. The grievance of the Building Trades council is understood to be that laborers are employed by the electrical construction bureau to make rough board boxes to be used for underground conduits for electric wires, it being claimed that this work scale. Another alleged cause for complaint is that Superintendent Rustin of the trical bureau is employing men to do electrical work and compelling them to work ten hours for $2.50 per day, whereas it is claimed that the union scale calls for eight nours' work at 30 cents per hour.

> Certain of the exposition officials say, concerning the last named grievance, that at the time when the exposition decided to pay the union scale of wages the schedule sub mitted by the representatives of organized labor did not contain any mention of electrical workers, and it is claimed that the Electrical Workers' union was not in exis-tence at that time. It is further stated by these same officials that inquiry among the electric construction companies reveals that for labor at the time the exposition directory fixed the scale of wages.

In addition to considering this matter the executive committee was presented with a request from the Woman's Board of Managers, asking to be given the control of the main court for two hours on a date to be afterward fixed, the women desiring to work up a great celebration in honor of the inau guration of work on the Giris' and Boys' building. They proposed to have a short program of exercises in honor of the occasion consisting of speeches by two or three well known men and speaking by three young people, one to be chosen by the schools of Omahs, another by the schools of South Omaha and the third by the schools of Lin-coln. The program included a grand march about the grand court behind a brass band, with High school cadets as marshals to see that the youngsters kept in line. The women sed to turn a neat little sum of money into the building fund by charging each child 10 cents for a vote for the speakers, the 10 cents to pay for a ticket to the grounds. The gates were also to be turned over to the women, according to the proposi-tion, and in this way a considerable sum was expected to be realized.

The executive committee thought the element of danger in this scheme was too great to consent to it, however, and the request of the women was denied.

Plans were ordered drawn for the Transportation warehouse and work on them will be pushed and the building erected at once. The structure will be 50x100 feet and will stand on the north tract east of the Transportation building.

At noon yesterday a number met in the rooms of Superintendent Houck in the court house and formulated plans. While committees were not named R was decided to have at an early hour this morning to inspect

Secretary Campbell Makes an Expla-

Secretary Campbell of the Nebraska Exposition commission is greatly annoyed by reports which are being circulated by unknown parties to the effect that the Nebraska commission is charging for exhibit space in the Nebraska building on the bluff tract Mr. Campbell wants it distinctly understood that no exhibits are allowed in the Nebraka building under any circumstances and consequently no charge can be made for space in the building for exhibits. The building is intended solely for social functions and President Wattles regarding securing from to serve as headquarters for Nebraskans and the War department the tents necessary for such others as desire to avail themselves of Nebraska's ho pitality. The Nebraska His-torical society and the owner of the extensive collection of Indian curios gathered by the late General Crook have been given grounds with tents and various other neces- space in the building in which to exhibit these collections, but these are in the nature of decorations rather than exhibits in the ordinary sense. With these exceptions no ordinary sense. With these exceptions exhibits will be allowed in the building. The secretary also wishes to remind those desiring to exhibit Nebraska products that space is furnished free in the main exposition buildings by the Nebraska commission upon application to the proper superin-tendent and free transportation is furnished by the callroads to and from the exposition.

GOVERNOR LEEDY READY TO ACT.

Kansas Commission Will Be Named Governor Leedy of Kansas has at last given positive and definite assurance that he will name an exposition commission for that state and announced that fact to the telegraph yesterday as follows: The Kansas commission at the Omaha ex-position will be appointed next Mon'ay. J. W. LEEDY.

The governor has said all along that he would appoint a commission as soon as he had assurances that a sufficient amount of money would be forthcoming to enable the state to participate in a creditable man-After considerable agitation of the subject three Kansas railreads agreed to contribute $5,000 each, making $15,000, pro-vided the citizens of Kanons would raise a like amount. Governor Leedy refused to act, however, until he knew that the money would be forthcoming from both eldes and his pertinacity in this respect has prevented the appointment of a commis-sion. It is presumed that the money has been raised or that the governor has posttive evidence that it will be forthcoming proper time or he would not have made the announcement contained in the telegram heretofore quoted.

All plans for holding the annual encampment at St. Joseph member of the upper house of the Iowa leg-islature, announcing that the senate had camp at Omaha during the expesition is meeting with strong favor.

Maryland's State Participation. A bill appropriating $3,400 for state participation in the exposition is pending in the Maryland legislature. The Baltimore American says that if state participation is deeirable a much larger amount should be appropriated. This is the balance that was left from the appropriation made for the World's fair, and the American suggests that several times this amount should be set aside in order that the state may well represented.

Owns It.

Police Judge Gordon is now occupied with the preliminary hearing of the cases against Henry Oerter and James Heffaer, who are charged in state complaints with setting up and mabitaining gambling devices and running a gambling house at 1409 Douglas street. Chief of Detectives Cox is the complaining witness in these cases. It was under his direction that the paraphernalia in the room over Oerter's saloon was confiscated. The case was begun yesterday morning and occupied the day without being completed; in fact the state's evidence will not be closed until sometime this morning. Chief Cox testified that he served both Oerter and Heffner with warrants and that when the raid was made on the place the gaming apparatus was not in use. Other witnesses testified to the fact that gambling had been conducted at Oerter's place recently. During the afternoon it was shown that money and chips had passed while the games were in operation between players and the dealers at the various games, that the devices in the shape of tables, which were introduced in evidence, were gambling

Captain Haze was among the witnesses stand in the afternoon and testified that after the raid in which the Oerter establish-ment was broken up the defendants called at his office and took in inventory of the goods that had been confiscated. On this occasion Oerter remarked to witness that he did not see the use of taking the gaming apparatus out of his place, because on a prior occasion the courte had decided that these same implements were not gambling devices, because it had been clearly shown that to play the games of stud poker, faro

This was followed by cross-examination, in which Attorney Dunn, for the defendants, tried to show by that particular feature of witness' testimony that the paraphernalia in question was for the use of games of skill and judgment, which the higher courts have held are not games of chance. But the witness was not willing to concede this point. He affirmed positively that regardless of judgment of the worth of the hands he held, yet, withal, it was a game of chance. Along these lines he described the three games under consideration and wound up finally by declaring that the apparatus in evidence had been designed and used for gambling pur-

I. E. Captain F. K. Deffry of the Neely Zonaves, Memphis, Tenn., has written to President Wattles regarding an engagement for his summer. He lays great stress upon the drawing powers of his organization, and wants to be paid a good fee in addition to being furnished with camp grounds, etc. Manager Babcock of the Transportation department is making efforts to secure from the Western Passenger association a stopover privilege for the Christian Endeavorers who will pass through Omaha July 3 en route to the convention of this organization at Nashville, Tenn. He has also written to the passenger agents of the Omaha lines asking them to assist in the matter. Fred A. Wood of Cedar Rapide, la., president of the National Association of Firemen, has called a meeting of the executive com-mittee of the organization to be held in Omaha April 9 and 10 for the purpose of conferring with the exposition authorities regarding the details of the arrangements the national tournament which is proposed to be held during the P. M. Wright of Columbia, Mo., has a pair of turkeys, which break all previous records for weight in this country or Canada, and he will exhibit them in Missouri's section at the exposition. The hen weighs thirty-two pounds, and the gobbler tips the beam at fifty pounds. Mr. Wright says the weight of the pair is half a pound better than the best Canadian record, and a pound beyond the best weight in the United States.
