Frank Ives Triumphs Over Schaefer at Billiards.

IT IS A HARD-FOUGHT GAME THROUGHOUT

Audience in Sympathy with the Napoleon and Thereby Contributes Largely to His Success.

CHICAGO, April 2.—Frank Ives defeated Jacob Schaefer tonight in the match for the championship at eighteen-hole billiard table.

Jake won the ban, but missed from the lay off by a hair's breadth.

Frank took hold with good heart and as though he intended to make a runaway race of it.

Jake did not daunt Jake, for he had ninety cushions pushed up on his string before the balls froze on him and he missed from the lay-off.

Jake did nothing for six innings, while Ives was piling up forty-eight.

Ives could do nothing to help himself, and it was not till the eighteenth inning that he touched the double figures.

In the twenty-second Ives took his turn and looked as if he would make a century.

Then Schaefer started to even matters up. The ivory rolled kindly for him and he soon rained the lead and kept piling up the count till he reached 100.

MILTON ROGERS & SON CATARRH OF THE STOMACH

Some Symptoms of this Common Ailment—Intelligent People Who Have Suffered Give Pointed Testimony—Nearly Every Case is Curable.

Physiology teaches that the numerous glands of the stomach throw out during twenty-four hours fourteen pints of gastric juice—almost two gallons—with which to digest the food we eat.

There is a weight, dull pain and a sense of burning in the pit of the stomach after taking food.

This is accompanied by flatulence and belching.

Alternate constipation or diarrhoea.

A dull headache, languor, depression of spirits and irritability of temper.

The general condition is one of weakness, frequent regurgitation of a thin, watery, saline fluid, preceded by epigastric pains.

Pains at the heart accompanied by palpitation and shortness of breath making the patient think he has heart disease.

Accompanying some cases there is a distension, ringing in the ears, spots before the eyes and other symptoms.

These patients have a buzzing sound and feel as if a vapor were enveloping them.

They grasp the table and grasp for support, in fear of falling.

When in any case this trouble has lasted a long time, evidences of malnutrition show themselves.

RAVAGES OF CATARRH. Catarrh, by preventing sleep and impairing digestion, and also, by lowering the general health, leads to a train of serious disorders that, in time, permanently undermine the whole system.

These people who have tried in vain through doctors and drugs, get rid of the misery and pain of chronic disease, S. W. Creel, Galesburg, Ill., a grocer doing a large business at 977 Main street, says:

"My condition when I began treatment was that of indigestion or half sickness and misery. I was never hungry, and what food I ate would lie undigested in my stomach which it fermented and disintegrated, and was constantly being vomited up. These attacks became more and more frequent, coming on from one to three times a day and often at night.

My sleep was very broken. I would often wake up in the middle of the night with my head aching and my stomach full of food. My limbs frequently became numb. Through the day I suffered a great deal from vertigo or dizziness, which always terminated in severe headaches. After these symptoms, existing for about twelve years, I was treated by Dr. Shepard, who began to put my stomach into proper order. This was the first step. After that the other symptoms—all of them—left me, one by one. I was soon all right and have been in perfect health ever since my treatment—about four years ago."

WAGING WAR ON SALISBURY.

Revolt Against His Leadership Spreading in Conservative Party.

LONDON, April 2.—The crisis between Spain and the United States is hard pushed for first place in public interest here by the question as to whether or not the marquis of Salisbury will retire from office and the consequent reorganization of the cabinet.

The conservative newspapers, particularly the Times, are in open revolt. The National Review sums up the bitter denunciations by quoting the late General Gordon's saying: "The British race is a race of lions led by asses."

The discontent is so widespread that the idea is rapidly gaining that a crisis in the history of the unionist party will soon be reached.

The consensus of opinion inclines to the belief that the marquis of Salisbury, yielding to the advice of his friends, will retire from the foreign office, but will remain in the cabinet.

The Conservative party will soon be reorganized, and the question of the foreign office will be the most lively matter.

The enemies of Joseph Chamberlain, the secretary of state for the colonies, are diligently circulating the report that he is to be removed from office.

Political circles consider that, as the duke of Devonshire is assured the premiership, if the marquis of Salisbury retires, the duke will be asked to form a government.

WAR SPIRIT UP AT PRINCETON.

Students Turn Out for an Impromptu Parade.

PRINCETON, N. J., April 2.—The possibility of war aroused quite a frenzied exhibition of patriotism among the students of the university last night.

The movement was wholly spontaneous and was started by a few seniors about 11 o'clock.

"All out for war," was the cry, and in a very short time a large part of the student body was out yelling around the historic cannon which did service in the revolutionary battle of Princeton, and which is now the hub of the university.

A parade was next organized, the line of march being down Nassau street to the home of ex-President Cleveland.

Repeated calls were made to bring the expedition out for the desired speech, so the march continued, the next act being at Prospect, the home of President Patton of the university.

The parade was a big affair, and was very patriotic and yet conservative in spirit.

While hoping that war might even yet be averted, he was nevertheless of the opinion that war should be fought, and that the national honor was not assailed.

As a close to the demonstration of the evening a large bonfire was kindled on top of the old cannon and for two hours the students yelled and sang patriotic songs.

Resolutions Passed by New York Board of Trade.

NEW YORK, April 2.—The New York Board of Trade and Transportation, at a special meeting today, unanimously adopted a resolution which, "recognizing the gravity of the crisis between the United States and Spain and the magnitude of the calamity which war will entail upon both nations, emphatically commends" the wise and conservative course of the president in his firm determination to maintain peace by every reasonable means.

The resolution also commends the action of congress in supporting the president in his efforts to prevent hostilities pending an adjustment of the differences between the nations by peaceful methods, and concludes with the expression of confidence in the president's determination to co-operate with the president and to accord him every facility in carrying out his policy.

MIS BARRISON TELLS HER STORY.

Explains Why the Berlin Authorities Executed Her.

Berlin, April 2.—(New York World Telegram—Special Telegram.)—This morning I called on Lona Barrison and her husband, who are stopping at the Bristol, a swell hotel in Berlin.

The room was littered with bright silk dresses and newspaper cuttings. The husband, a big fellow, received me in his shirt and trousers. Lona was behind a screen dressing. Asked about the threatened expulsion she said:

"I was no better than I ought to be. I brought action and Otto was fined to pay me $2,000. The state 1,000 and under a further imprisonment. Otto then determined to get up an agitation against my performance, especially against me. He obtained certain ministers of religion as allies. These petitioned the Prussian Diet to expel me. The Prussian Diet looked favorably at the petition and sent it to the minister of the interior to carry it into effect. Saturday last, accompanied by the first secretary of the United States legation, I called at the home of the secretary and asked for justice. I explained that all my performances were witnessed by the police commission before being presented to the public. The home secretary promised to make further inquiries. The matter rests at the present moment. It is a mean, dirty ruse of Otto and the pastors. If anything happens to me it will be a great injustice. As the minister rules against me I will appeal to the Kaiser himself. Meanwhile I am engaged for April at the Polo Valley theater here."

CITY OF MEXICO, April 2.—President Diaz opened the spring session of Congress last night. THE PROBLEM SOLVED.

THE NEW MEDICAL DISCOVERY TESTED.

Results of the Test in Various Forms of Dyspepsia.

Chronic indigestion or dyspepsia, while a very common trouble, has for some time been looked upon by able physicians as a serious thing, and that so time should be spent in treating it properly at the start, because recent research has shown that the most serious, fatal and incurable diseases have their origin in simple dyspepsia or indigestion.

Dyspepsia is simply one form of indigestion, the sugar and starch food not being assimilated by the digestive organs. In Bright's disease the albumen is not properly assimilated.

While consumption and dyspepsia are twin diseases, and it is beyond question that dyspepsia makes a fertile soil for the seeds of consumption.

But the trouble has been to find a remedy that could be depended upon to cure dyspepsia, as it is notoriously obstinate and difficult to cure.

This has been the question which has puzzled physicians and dyspeptics alike, until the question was solved three years ago by the appearance of a new dyspeptic cure in the medical world known as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets which it was claimed was a certain, reliable cure for every form of stomach trouble.

Physicians, however, would not accept such statements without first giving the remedy many tests and carefully observing results.

For three years the remedy has been thoroughly tested in every section of the country and with surprising and satisfactory results. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can be honestly claimed to be a specific, a radical lasting cure for indigestion in the various forms of acid dyspepsia or sour stomach, gas or wind on stomach, too much bile, undue fullness or pressure after eating and similar symptoms resulting from disordered digestion.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure at once, and in the trade and in the home, a reliable cure for every form of stomach trouble.
