The Babes dropped the third to the Saints yesterday afternoon by the score of 12 to 3. Daub was in the box for the local aggregation and if he had had any sort of support the visitors would have been held down. Up to the last inning they succeeded in making only five hits off of his delivery. Only three of the Saints' scores can by any manner of reasoning be ascribed to him. But the starch was all taken out of him by the poor support that was given by the infield, all of whom had their share in it. The Saints again put up an almost perfect article and were all snap, in decided contrast to Omaha. The Babes had just three chances in three finnings in the game. One occurred in the second. Lyons was given a ticket to first, but was forced out by McKinney. McKibben and Lawler were each presented with a base apiece. With the bases filled Daub flew out. In the fifth Lyons was given another passport. He was again forced out, but McKin-ney got around to second on Cross' poor play and reached third by McCauley's out. He was brought home by a hit by McKibben, who was caught while trying to get down to special on his hit. With one man out in the ninth Reat made a hit and after Lyons flew out McKinney landed safely. McCauley then came up with a three-bagger, sending both men home and scoring two earned runs.

There is no need of detalling at length the manner in which the Saints scored their runs. In the first with two men out and with two men on bases Roat made a bad error which let in two scores. The Saints gathered in one apiece in the third, fourth and fifth innings—one by poor pitching work, one by an error by McKinney and the other In the eighth they pounded it into the Babes, securing seven runs. After Cross flied out there was a chance to put out the following two men, but both Preston and Burke were given a life on errors by Lyons and McKinney. This rattled Daub and Miller singled. McKinney gave another man a base on an error and then Glasscock and Shugart came up for a single angles. Giller Shugart came up for a single apiece. Gillen flew out to Burnett, but Spics and Cross both found the ball, the latter going out on Pres-ton's liner. All of this netted the Saints seven runs.

The work of the infield was somewhat excusable, as it is considerably patched up. Eustace is not in good condition and McKin-ney was put in his place at third—a position he is not at all used to. Hollingsworth was expected to be at second, but did not arrive in time. He is expected this morning and both he and Eustace may be in this afternoon's game. Fisher is to pitch. Score: OMAHA. AB. A TRAVELING MAN.

Gives Some Valuable Hints Regarding the Care of the Health While Traveling.

Mr. W. R. Wincherdon, a commercial traveller from Birmingham, whose business keeps him almost constantly on the road relates in the Sunday News the dangers to health resulting from constant change of residence and the way he overcame the usual injurious effects.

He says: One thing people traveling cannot very well avoid is the constant change in water and food; the stomach never has an opportunity to become accustomed to anything and in a few years or much sooner the average traveling man becomes a hopeless dyspeptic.

For several years I suffered more or less from iodigestion, sour stomachs, headaches, distaste for food, often no appetite, gas on the stomach and the usual unpleasant efof imperfect digestion.

Nearly every traveling man has his fav-orite remedy for different troubles and I tried all of them with indifferent results. Finally on the train between Pittsburg and Philaielphia one day, I overheard a couversation between two ladies, one of whom had suffered severely from indigestion and stated she had been completely cured by remedy which she called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I remembered the conversation because it directly interested me, and at the next town I inquired at the first drug store and bought a package for fifty cents, and from that day to this I have never been without them. They are pleasant tasting tablets, cot a secret patent medicine, but com posed of vegetable essences, pure pepsin, fruit salts and Golden Seal; being in tablet form they never lose their good qualities like a liquid medicine would, but are always fresh and ready for use.

I carry a box in my pocket continually, and whenever I see any symptoms of indi-gestion I take one, also one after each meal, and for a year and a half I have not lost a day by reason of poor health and can eat anything and relish what I eat; my digestico is absolutely perfect as far as I can judge from my feelings and although there may be other stomach medicines just as good as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, I do not know what they are. Certainly for people who travel they are far ahead of any liquid medicine, as they are so convenient; they can carried in the pocket and used whonever

I believe they are sold by all druggists at 50 cents, and believe anyone who will try them will agree with me, that for indiges-tion and stomach trouble Stuart's Dyspep sia Tablets are unequaled.

Notes of the Game. The attendance was in the neighborhood of 1,200.

Daub banged the first foul into the grand McCauley shows that he is wide awake by going after every foul that comes into his aerial neighborhood. Shugart's great work was again one of the features of the game. He snapped up grounders to the right and left of him that looked like certain hits. The amateur base ball season of the city will be opened this afternoon with a game between Mctz Brothers and Hayden Brothers teams at the Fort Omaha grounds at 3 o'clock

The first double of the season on the home grounds occurred in the third. With Burnett on first, Roat knocked to Shugart and both were put out, Shugart, Glenalvir and Glasscock having a hand in the deal. It took just four balls to put Omaha out in the seventh. On the first McKinney flew out to Miller, on the taird McCauley went by the Shuzart-Glasscock route and on the fourth McKibben dropped into Burke's hands.

Burke gave a pretty example of the man-ner in which he judged flies in the sixth. Burnett knocked one hard and no sooner and the leather left his bat than Burke sprinted back. He judged the spot exactly sprinted back. He judged the hands. Had and the ball dropped into his hands. Had he missed it it would have been three bags

Daub is a foxy boy. In the sixth Burke bunted and the ball rolled toward first. McCauley made a great sprint for it, but Daub interferred just as ae was going to pounce on it. The ball rolled and stopped just an inch over the foul line. Had Daub allowed McCauley to pick up the ball when it was inside the line Burke was sure to reach first before the leather and would have made a bit.

After that time, however, army life will begin in earnest. It is expected by that time nearly all the regular troops to be located at Chickamauga will have arrived, and the infantry as well as the cavalry and artillery divided into brigadce. Of the infantry there will probably be three brigades of three regiments each.

Uncertainty as to the exact number of regiments to arrive will prevent any action in regard to the appointment of commanders until such time as the troops are actually on the ground.
