Minerals of Montana. BUTTE, Mont., April 28.—(Special.)—White Montana's main mineral products are copper, silver, gold and lead, there are a world of other minerals in this state. At the head of Meadow Creek in Madison county lie a group of claims known as the "Iron Range," and the ledge can be traced for miles. All through the white silica masses of mica have been found, some of it clear and almost perfect, but most of it cloudy and full of checks. All of it has a high value, however. In the rugged chain of mountains which intersect the main range of the Rockies near Henry's lake extensive deposits of asbestos have been found. Among the slate formations of Ruby creek are numerous small ledges of black graphite—some of it of a quality that is valuable and much that is practically worthless. The graphite rock has been found on them. Among the fossils on the south side of Wigwam canyon a valuable deposit of magnesian iron has been discovered. Owing to the absence of transportation facilities, it is not yet possible to work the mine at a profit. In connection with the lead ore found throughout the hills surrounding the city, a vein of zinc and silver. Fire clay is found near Norris which has been pronounced by a New Jersey fire brick manufacturer as the best quality found west of the Mississippi. At the head of Brown's gulch near Butte are extensive deposits of the same material. Within a few miles of Virginia City there has recently been discovered a clay of peculiar nature, which has been pronounced potter's clay of an exceptionally good quality. In addition to the potter's clay, there are also found in many parts of Montana and the Montana sapphires, garnets and rubies found in many of the streams.

Hearst, one of the principal owners of the Homestate property and its associates, will be in Lead about the 6th of May for a short visit. Mrs. Hearst will be entertained by Superintendent and Mrs. Geier.

Eureka now has a telephone system. Fifty-five phones have been put in. Mound City will also have a telephone system, exchange in operation. Work has commenced on a line connecting Aberdeen, Eureka, Mound City, Bowdle and other points. The first interstate track contest ever held in South Dakota will take place at Yankton Saturday. The contest will be between Yankton college and Doane college, Crete, Neb. Each team will be limited to ten men. Among the events will be foot races, hurdle races, shot put, hammer throw, high jump, broad jump, hop, skip and jump, pole vault, tennis and base ball games.

Oregon News Notes. Athena will soon be lighted with electric light. The republicans will open their campaign May 2 in Salem. A farm of 360 acres near Farmington last week sold for $20,000. Many deer are reported in Coos county and hunters are chasing them out of the woods. The city council of Medford has decided that 3,400 feet of four-inch pipe shall be put in for water purposes. Oregon gold democrats did not put up a state ticket, but will help the republicans purge the fusionists.

George Hayes and Mr. Cleanhue of Victoria, B. C., are buying a small tract of land in the Alaska territory. They expect to buy a carload and ship them to Victoria, B. C., and then to Fort Wrangell. They already have nearly the required number. The county clerk's semiannual report shows that there are outstanding in Polk county warrants to the value of about $74,000, and that the unpaid taxes for 1897 and previous years amount to about $95,000. The delinquency on taxes back of last year exceed $67,000.
