No Clue to the Person Who Put is SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 3.-Experts today who have tested the contents of a package found in one of the company boxes of the Third infantry, Illinois National Guard, pronounced it undoubtelly dynamite. This morning a rigid examination was made of morning a rigid examination was made of all equipment and baggage in the exposition building, where the regiment is quartered, but nothing else suspicious was discovered. Investigation has so far disclosed no clue as to the identity of the party who placed the infernal thing. Beside the Third infantry the Sixth regiment is also quartered in the armory, 2,500 men in all. The men believed they have narrowly escaped the fate of the sailors of the Maine.

General Barkley, commanding the camp, has held a conference with his officers. As a result of the conference guards have been placed at every door and other entrance to the buildings, and only persons having passes are allowed to enter. NAMING NEW MAJOR GENERALS.

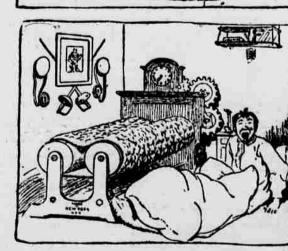

President Has the List Ready for the Senate. WASHINGTON, May 3.—Expecting that the senate would be in session today, the War department officials had prepared a list of persons whose nominations were to be sent in as major generals and brigadler generals. The list includes the name of Hon. Fitzhuge Lee, formerly consul general at Havana, as a major general, and it is believed also those of W. R. Shafter, commanding the brigade at New Orleans, and J. F. Wade, commanding the regiments at Tampa, both of whom are now brigadier generals, to be major generals.
