WHITEWASH FOR HOME TEAM

Jimmy Manning Very Kindly Calcimines the Fisher Family.

PARDEE'S PITCHING MAINLY RESPONSIBLE

Cowboy Twirler Lets the Home Team Down with Only Four Senttered Hits-Pine Play of the Infielders.

The Babes sustained the first whitewash of the season yesterday by allowing themselves to be shut out by Jimmy Manning's herd of Cowboys. Nine to nothing was the One Twirler Pardee was pretty nearly the whole thing. He has an action like a catapult and the curve he unwinds was a puzzier to the Babes. Four lonely little hits were scattered through the game in as many innings. Only in two innings were five of our men up and in only a couple more did a quartet of the infants face him. In the remaining innings it was one-two-three. The Cowboys gave him almost perfect support, coming near to playing an errorless game again. Connaughton's error in the very last inning is the only break and it spoiled for that hefty little player the star record of the day.

Danny Daub also pitched an invincible game up to the fifth inning, but then the Blues lambasted him heavy. His record, however, was by no means as bad as it looks, for some stupid work in the outfield netted a few of the hits. Fisher rankly misjudged a fly in right field which should have been out and developed into a two-bagger for Wilson, while Burnett did exactly St. Paul the same thing on a fly of McVicker's, which also proved to be a safe one for two bags. These things resulted in several runs. The infield played very nearly as nice a game as the visitors. Altogether it was a very clear contest and proved to be interesting to all Indianapolis except the "knockers."

Conmughton retired the Babes in the first inning on three successive flies by Eustace, Griffin and Roat. In the second Burnett got his base on a two-bagger after Lyons died on first, but immediately after McCauley got a free pass Holly doubled him up. Only three men were up in the third, but in the Paul. fourth, with one man out, Roat got a base on balls and Lyons singled. Burnett died in O'Hagan's paws, however, and McCauley fanned. In the fifth Fisher got a base on balls, and in the sixth Lyons made his second hit, but neither advanced beyond first bag. In the seventh and eighth it was three men out straight, but for a little while it looked as if a shutout might be saved in the ninth. Roat singled and Lyons got to ance, 4,000. Score: first on Connaughton's fumble of the grounder. Burnett, however, fouled out, McCauley fanned again and Holly, although he made a tremendous swipe at the leather, rolled out from Williams to O'Hagan. In all the nine innings only five of our men got to second bag.

How the Mannings Hit. The pretty work of the Cowboy field and of Mr. Pardee's pitching was alone worth Cincinnati 0 0 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 -2 the price of admission, but the Manningites threw in some batting, too.

The Blues started in as if they intended to commence right away. Slagle cracked out a single and was advanced by Connaughton's sacrifice. McVicker died at first, but Wilson was ticketed to first and stole second. With a man on the last two bags, O'Hagan rolled a grounder down to Grif and was

In the second Williams, Frisbee and Viox CLEVELAND, O., May 11.—Cleveland won today's game by clean and timely hitting. Briggs was knocked out of the In the next the first two men died: Connaughton got a single, but was cut off at second by McCauley and Roat. McVicker singled, but after two men were put out he too, was mangled at second by the same pair of the Babes. The fifth, however, was something of an avalanche.

Frisbee was given a press ticket to firs bag and then Viox snuggled a nice bunt along the base lines. Pardee rammed warm one to Daub, who caught Frisbee third with Eustace's assistance. Slagle slashed out his second hit and Viox meandered home. Connaughton soaked the leather into Daub's hands, and Pardee, who was a little too anxious to score, was killed at the plate. There was only one run in when McVicker sent a hot one out to Burnett, who misjudged it sadly. It was good for two bases and Connaughton and Slagle both came home. Then Wilson sent a liner into right field which Fisher misjudged as badly as Burnett did his. McVicker came in on it. By the time Fisher returned the leather to the diamond Wilson was making streaks for third. Reat tried to catch him and threw low to Eustace, and the ball bounded to the bleachers. The Kaw catcher scored on the play. O'Hagan struck out.

Five runs were scored, whereas there should not have been more than one andthis made the scorers mighty weary-the misplays, with the exception of Roat's, were so blundersome that there was no place tu the score for them.

In the sixth, following Williams' strikeout, Frishee made a hit. Viox fouled out, but Pardee singled. The latter, however, was caught napping on first by McCauley. Hard hitting and misjudgments in the outfield gave the Cowboys a couple in the seventh. A hit by Slagle, two-baggers by Connaughton and McVicker and a single by Wilson did the work, the next three men

Two more came in in the eighth. Daub tracked Viox in the ribs. Pardee was thrown out at first by Daub. Slagle got his base on four wide ones. Daub nabbed Connaughton on first, but by this time the runners were on second and third and both were brought in on McVicker's fourth his Wilson went out on a liner to Roat. Score: OMAHA.

Parke Wilson is a great backstop. He is a good sticker and every foul or fly that comes into his territory is a goner. The team left the city at 10 o'clock last night for Kansas City, where the first of a series of four games will be played this afternoon.

Mrs. Burnett, wife of Left Fielder Hercules Burnett, arrived in the city from Louisville yesterday and watched the game from a box.

McCauley watched the bases like a hawk and threw like a fork of lightning. He caught Pardee asleep on first and nabbed two more at second.

Two of the spectators were President Schuman of the club and President Ban Johnson of the league, who had been called here by the cause in court.

here by the cause in court.

Williams gave a sensational finish to the game by retiring the Babes in the ninth by jumping several feet in the air and gobbling Holly's hot line fly.

Daub was much in evidence in the field, eight of the grounders coming to him. He accepted all the chances. In the second he retired three successive men at first.

Signs were posted about the bleachers and the grandstand that loud and profane remarks would not be allowed. A batch of rooters on the east bleachers were joshing Fisher and Policeman Kelly warned them to be quet. A score or more of the fans grew highly indignant and returning to the gate demanded their money back or permission to yell all they wanted to. After some minutes' squabbling they went back and watched the game out.

and Lard.

CHICAGO, May 11.-The bulls on the Board of Trade today transferred their attention from the wheat pit to provisions. Assisted by heavy outside buying, July pork was advanced 80 cents per barrel; July lard 65 cents a tierce, and July ribs 45 cents per hundred pounds. The advance 'n lard was attributed to heavy buying by Armour and Cudahy. Heavy sales by packers to the government for army use was at the bottom of the bull movement. Closing figures were at the top for the day. July wheat at the close showed a loss of 31/2 cents, and May 6 cents. NEW YORK, May 11.-The local provision market was in a mild state of excitement today over a sensational uplift in hog products at Chicago. Pork there maintained an advance of seventy-five points and ribs forty-five points. In sympathy the price of cash lard here was rushed up to $6.80 per 100, closing strong at that figure. This rep-

Mennonites Are Worrfed.

NEWTON, Kan., May 11.—(Special.)— The Mennoultes of Kansas, Nebraska and Oklahoma will meet in convention in this city on Tuesday, May 17, to discuss the attitude the Mennonite church shall take in the war with Spain. It is against the religious principles of the church # for any member of it to engage in warfare or to make any resistance to any enemy, however great the provocation. This has caused them much trouble in the past. On account of it they were compelled to leave Russia as there they were compelled by law to serve in the army. The younger members of the church, however, are chafing under the restriction and many of them as American citizens desire to join the army and assist the United States in the present war. The main question to be discussed will be whether a member of the church should show greater alleglance to his church than he should to his country. It is expected there will be a large number present at the convention and the subject will be warmly liscussed. The older members of the church will make a fight for allegiance to the church, while the younger members will be in favor of doing away with this restriction. The meeting was brought about by the decision of Attorney General Snelling. when he decided that the law exempting Mennonites from military duty in this state referred only to those who have year after
