Extra Meeting of the Delegates Last Night to Facilitate Business.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS OCCURS TODAY

Lively Fight is on for the Presidency with the Chances in Pavor of the Present Incumbent,

When the program for the convention of the Travelers' Protective association was made out it was not intended that a meeting should be held on last night, but at the last moment it was decided to hold a preliminary business meeting in order that the session today could be devoted entirely to matters of importance. The meeting was devoted entirely to organization and reports Joseph Wallerstein, naof committees. tional president of the association, called the meeting to order and the report on credentials was read and accepted. committee on rules offered a report, which was adopted, and the convention was declared to be organized and ready to trans-

Chairman Cohen of the legislative committee offered a report regarding legislation which the committee was trying to secure that would be of great advantage to commercial travelers in the matter of rates. Chairman Gray of the Board of Directors reported on the condition of the order and offered some suggestions as to the investment of the funds belonging to

R. F. Hodgin of the local arrangement committee announced that an error was made in the printed program of the convention and that the visiting women would be taken to visit Liminger's art gallery at 9:30 a. m. today instead of 9:30 p. m., as stated in the program. Mr. Hodgin also extended an invitation to the convention to pay a visit to the South Omaha packing houses as guests of the local travelers and the convention accepted the invitation and agreed that the vistt could be made some time during Friday afternoon. The meeting adjourned to meet at 9 o'clock this morning. The big fight of the meeting is scheduled for today, when the annual election of officers takes place. The contest centers chiefly about the election of president, but to all appearances the re-election of President Wallerstein is assured. The Virginia delegation is making his campaign for him and he has a number of other delegations, like Iowa, Texas and Minnesota, instructed for him. His antagonist is Mr. Duffin of Indiana, who was defeated by President Wallerstein a year ago.

The minor offices will most of them have several candidates for each. The only complication in the election arises from the numerous bidders for the next convention, a question also to be decided today.

MANY VICTIMS OF THIEVES

Pickpockets Ply Their Trade in Crowded Cars and Along the Sidewalks.

The criminal element that has been quietly gathering in Omaha for several weeks past in anticipation of beginning their harvest on the opening of the exposition showed its hand yesterday. The thieves began reaping their harvest with a success about the same as the democrats. It was that augurs well for a long continued and prosperous season unless some method is adopted to call a halt on them. Eight complaints were lodged with the police by people who had lost valuables through the efforts of pickpockets. One stranger showed Police Captain Haze a gaping hole in his shirt front that once contained a big diamond valued at $125. From the other victims sums ranging from $20 to $50 were taken. Many other like thefts were committed, but were not reported to the police. The favorite field yesterday was the crowded street cars to and from the exposition grounds.

Several men were arrested on suspicion of being pickpockets, but the victims of the velvet-handed touchers could not identify Another class of criminals whose work has been very much in evidence during the last week is the "grafter" who inveigles his unsophisticated and unsuspecting victim into some disreputable resort or into some game and relieves him of his money. Police court records show that nearly $3,500 was secured by these people during the last ten days. One man alone lost $700 in bills and another $120 in gold inside of twentyfour hours. A great many have been robbed In this manner who never report their loss to the police, preferring to stand the loss of the money to the notoriety attending the report of its loss.

N. J. Roundy, an exposition visitor fron Panama, Ia., was robbed of $100 and valuable paper on the grounds some time during yesterday afternoon. The money was contained in a purse in his trousers pocket, over which he had purposed to keep particular guard. In the crowd gathered about Administration building, however, a thief extracted the pocketbook almost from between Roundy's fingers. Besides the money the pocketbook contained a draft for $1,200 on the First National bank of Counci Bluffs, Ia., and other papers connected with its owner's live stock business.

A. D. Baker of Blue Hill, Neb., had his pocketbook taken while in the Government building yesterday. There was no money

Another victim of overconfidence in the stranger's safety in Omaha yesterday was W. H. Neff of Audubon, In. His pocketbook was taken from an inner vest pocket during his presence on the grounds in a manner for which he is unable to account. The wallet contained $65, a note for $500 and transportation over the Rock Island railroad, with which he is connected.

He Visited Mary Coleman J. O. Iverson arrived yesterday from Blair, Neb., and included the house of Mary Cole-man, on Capitol avenue, in his tour of sightseeing. On his departure a pocketbook con taining $50 was missing and the wome has been arrested on the charge of larceny

Three Men Held for Assault.

Julius Jones, John Wells and Frank King inveigled 16-year-old Hattie White of Twenty-fourth and Hickory streets into a vacant room on the fourth floor of the Ware building Tuesday night, and after partially her attempted to criminally assault her. Her screams attracted the atten-tion of occupants of the building and they went to her assistance. The police were no-tified and the three men were arrested. All of them are employed in the building. Wells and King are elevator conductors and Jones, who is colored, is porter for a lodge of Elks. The latter is the one who ad-ministered the drug to the girl in a glass of wine. He claims he was prompted to do it by his two companions, who, when the girl was stupefied, carried her into the place where she was found.

STATE COMMITTEE MEETINGS Democrats and Free Silver Repub-lienns to Hold Sessions in Omaha This Evening.

The Nebraska democratic state committee will meet in Omaha this evening for the transaction of some routine business. None of the members of the committee who were in the city last evening were willing to say they knew exactly what would be done, but they say something in the line of fixing the time for the holding of the state convention will be attended to. It is thought the committee will make the call, leaving the day and place vacant, to be filled in by the chairman as soon as the populists have settled on their date and place. This is in order to repeat the three-ring performance l last year.

The silver republican state committee will also have a meeting and its program is originally intended that the populists should meet here today, but that meeting was postponed until the national committee meets

Death of Mrs. Hunt. Charlotte Hunt, mother of Colonel C. M. Hunt and Mrs. Peter Cockrell, died yesterday at Peter Cockrell's residence, Twenty-fifth and J streets. At the time of her death Mrs. Hunt lacked less than a month of being 89 years of age, having been born in Green county, Pennsylvania, in 1809. For the last five years the deceased has lived in this city with her son and daughter, although her home was at Columbus, O. On Monday last Mrs. Hunt contracted a slight cold and pneumonia set in, which is given as the cause of death.

After brief services at Captain Cockrell's residence yesterday afternoon the remains were taken to Columbus, O., for interment Kay W. Hunt, son of Colonel Hunt, accompanied the body east.

Arrange an Armour Celebration Northwestern and Allen B. Smith of the Friday afternoon the committee appointed y Mayor Ensor to consider the advisability of celebrating the opening of the Armour packing house will hold a meeting at Exchange hall. The idea seems to be growing in favor and it is thought that a creditable celebration can be arranged. As yet no details for the proposed celebration have been worked out, but it is thought that there should be a monster parade with a barbecue or something of that sort on the side. A one worth taking, as the plant will be as near perfection as possible.

> Rusiness Suspended. Business was generally suspended here resterday afternoon and the city wore a deserted look. The banks and most of the business houses closed at noon, while the majority of the offices at the exchange closed shortly after that hour. With the exception of Swift's, the packing houses shut the employes might have a half holiday. The street car service to Omaha was much time and the patrons of the line were well

> Work on the Ensor Buildings. Work on Mayor Ensor's new buildings at Twenty-fourth and K streets commenced yesterday. Tuesday afternoon the city en-gineer staked out the lots and workmen commenced digging for the foundations right and early yesterday morning. The ouildings will be of frame, one story high. with a frontage on Twenty-fourth street of sixty feet and a depth of sixty feet. It is he intention to divide the block into three store rooms, one portion being reserved by the mayor for an office and labratory.

> Closing School Exercises. The closing exercises of the eighth grade schools will be held at the First Methodist Episcopal church this evening. An interesting program has been prepared for the oc casion. About fifty pupils of this grade will pass into the High school.

On Friday evening at the same place the graduating exercises of the High school will take place. The class this year consists of seven pupils, two boys and five girls.

GAMBLERS MAKE A MISTAKE appers Guide Detective Savage Into

ge for one of their ilk this morning, and he keeping up the deception, was conducted o their headquarters, in the rear of the Bijou saloon on Fifteenth street and Capitol avenue. Here he found wheels of fortune, roulette and chuck-a-luck games in full operation, with crowds of eager players betting their money.

Excusing himself for a moment, Savage sent for the patrol wagon, and when it arrived, loaded the paraphernalia of the gamblers and the latter themselves into the wagon and took the load to police headquarters. Several men, known to be interested in the games, made their escape when the pairol wagon clattered up to the door. The principals, however, Thomas Connors and James McMaurice, were captured. HOW A WAR IS FOUGHT.

The Changes in the Mode of Wartare Illustrated by Pictures. If you wish to properly understand the war news, if you wish to have a definite knowledge of naval affairs and the events that are occurring in the East and West Indies you can secure no better, no more reliable source of information than the official photographs of the United States navy, just issued by the Omaha Bee. The price is only 25 cents, and more valuable and timely information was never offered for the money. It is on sale at The Omaha Bee counting-rooms, or will be sent to any address on receipt of price. The book consists of nearly 200 pages of views made by E. H. Hart, naval photo-grapher, and the list of subjects embraces everything of interest pertaining to our navy, of which every American is justly proud. First within the covers of this interesting work comes a map sixteen times as large as the book itself, showing on one side the Spanish possessions, and all adjacent territory, while on the other side the East Indian possessions are similarly treated. Steamship lines, with the distances intervening between different points, are shown, and a close study of these maps will give one a thorough understanding o this territory, in regard to which the in-terest of the American public is now at fever heat.

Then follow more than 200 rare pictures of the navy, its officers and equipment. The views are all authentic, and are the latest official photographs of our torpedo boats, torpede boat destroyers, cruisers, ships, gunboats, monitors, rams, dynamite cruisers, dispatch vessels, and other war craft, the whole embodying an authentic portrayal of the American navy as it exists today. A complete description of the construction, displacement size, speed, bat teries, armor, crew and cost of each boa will enable the reader to form an accurat estimate of our fighting strength. Included with these are photographs of the leading Spanish men-of-war, also fully described. By far the most interesting portions of the book are views of the Maine, taken before the disaster in Havana harbor, showing the life and discipline aboard a battleship, to gether with portraits of the officers and crew, supplemented by photographs taken after the explosion, depicting the divers at work, and other incidents in connection with this sad and memorable event.

This work can be obtained by cutting coupon from page two, and bringing it to The Bee office, Omaha, The Bee building; South Omaha, Twenty-fourth and N streets; Lincoln, 1026 O street; Council Bluffs, 10 Pearl street. By mail 4 cents extra for postage. Address Navy Photograph Department, Omaha Bee.

To men of all nations

Who are in Omaha today-to the Americans-the English, the French, the Scotch, the Irish, the Turks, the Russians, the Skandinavians, the others-for there are others—we want to say a few plain matterof-fact words. This is a peculiar store. There is not a store anywhere, that is more anxious for your money, but no store in existence will give you more for it and no store in existence will do as much to protect its customers as this store. We are not the only honest store in Omaha, but we go to extreme lengths with our honesty and we do so simply and solely because it pays. We have no smart clerks, no small tricks, no petty misrepresentation or humbugs, and our constant study is to sell only good reliable goods and to sell them as near the actual cost of production as it is possible to do. We don't want your money until you are satisfied you are getting more for it than you can get anywhere else and you can have it back anytime that you call for it. You don't even have to tell us why you want it back. It is enough for us to know that you do.

If you want to do business with that kind of a store drop in today and get acquainted. A good thing to fasten the acquaintance is the fine worsted serge suits we are selling this week at 6.50 a suit.

Exposition Notice

We desire to announce to our regular patons as well as visitors to the city-that notwithstanding the greatly increased traffic in drugs and medicines, incident to the Exposition-we shall hold ourselves in readiness to execute all orders-and comreadiness to execute all orders—and compound all prescriptions with our accustomed promptness—We have nearly doubled our clerical force since Jan. I. 1898, and shall between the hours of 7 a. m. and 11 p. m. run a DRUG STORE THAT IS A DRUG STORE.

Our patrons who wish goods delivered will CONFER A FAVOR by getting in their orders as carly in the day as possible—but we shall always respond with prompt deliveries for emergencies.

NOTE—Partles desiring prescriptions REFILLED should bring the original containers (bottles or boxes)—and not expect us to "remember" what their prescription was.

Stranger! What better do you expect than an all wool suit for $5.00? And where on earth can you buy an all wool black clay worsted suit You will find such bargains here.

and we most emphatically repeat ONLY IN THIS STORE. Want to know the reason why? Small store rent-small expenses require small profit. Big stores with a heap of all sorts of expenses must get big profits to live. Isn't that plain enough? We are located out of the circle of where rents make prince of the landlord and pauper of those that feed him. We are located a couple of blocks north of the main market. If you take the trouble to look us up, you will be royally repaid for your trouble. Besides, we guarantee everything you buy here. It must be good and as low priced as possible or your money back, at any time. Every transaction is honorable and honest as a new-born babe.

But our prices. No deviations to anyone; no discounts; no throwing in things; no clown trickery or perniclous trade catching.
