AGREE IN THE REVENUE BILL

Conference Committee Report the New Measure to Congress.

HOUSE ADOPTS IT BY VOTE OF 154 TO 107

It is Almost Sure to Become a Law as Most of the Important Senate Amendments Are Retained.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—The war revenue bill, as agreed upon by the conferees of the house and senate, which passed the house today, will no doubt become a law. The following is a complete abstract of the bill, giving every item and rate, and contains everything save details of administrative features. Summarized the bill is as follows:

It provides that the act shall take effect on the day succeeding the date of its passage, except as otherwise specially provided. A tax of $2 on all beer, lager beer, ale, port and other fermented liquors, brewed and manufactured and sold, or stored in warehouse, or removed for consumption or sale, for every barrel containing not more than thirty gallons, and as like rate for any other quantity or fractional parts of a barrel, with a discount of 1/2 per cent on all sales by collectors or investors of the stamps provided for the payment of the tax.

An additional proviso was adopted as follows by the conferees: That the additional tax imposed by this act on fermented liquors stored in warehouses, to which a stamp had been affixed, shall be assessed and collected in the manner now provided by law for the collection of taxes not paid by stamps.

Special taxes from July 1: Bankers employing a capital not exceeding $25,000, $50; employing a capital exceeding $25,000, for every additional $1,000, $10; in real estate in capital, the amount of such annual tax to be computed on the basis of capital and surplus for the preceding fiscal year. Savings banks having deposits of collaterals, whose business is confined to receiving deposits and loaning or investing the same for the benefit of their depositors and which do not other business of banking are not subject to this tax.

Brokers, $10, but any person having paid the special tax as a bank shall not be required to pay the special tax as a broker; pawnbrokers, $20; commercial brokers, $20; custom house brokers, $10; proprietors of theaters, museums and concert halls, in cities of more than 25,000 population, $100. This does not include hall and theater owners, occasionally for concerts or theatrical representations.

Crowds, $100. No special tax paid in one state to exempt goods from the duties in another state, though but one special tax is to be imposed for exhibitions within any one state. Proprietors or agents of all other public exhibitions, for show for money, not enumerated here, $10. Bowling alleys and billiard rooms, $5 for each alley or table.

Tobacco, Cigars and Snuff. In lieu of the tax now imposed by law a tax of 12 cents per pound upon all tobacco and snuff, however prepared, manufactured and sold or removed for consumption or sale. Cigarettes manufactured or sold or removed for consumption or sale, whose annual sales are to be paid by the manufacturer; $3.50 per 1,000 on cigars weighing more than three pounds per 1,000 and $1.50 per 1,000 on cigars weighing not more than three pounds per 1,000.

Provided, that in lieu of the two, three and four ounce packages of tobacco and snuff now authorized by law, there shall be packages thereof containing one and two-thirds ounces, two and one-half ounces and three and one-half ounces, respectively, and in addition to packages of such weight, there may be packages containing one ounce of smoking tobacco.

The compromise provision in regard to the taxation of the stock in hand is as follows: There shall be assessed, in addition to the exceptions hereinafter in this section provided for upon all the articles enumerated in this section which were manufactured, imported and removed for sale or custom house before the passage of this act, bearing stamps affixed to such articles for the payment of the taxes thereon and cancelled subsequent to the date of the passage of this act and intended for sale by the person, a tax of one-half the difference between the tax affixed to such articles at the time of removal from the factory or custom house and the tax levied in this act upon such articles.

Dealers having on hand less than 1,000 pounds of manufactured tobacco and 20,000 cigars on the day succeeding the date of the passage of this act, shall be exempt from the necessity of making returns and from the necessity of paying the tax.

For the expenses connected with the assessment and collection of the tobacco tax there is appropriated $100,000. The commission of internal revenue is authorized to employ internal revenue agents in addition to the number now authorized.

Insurance Policies. Life Insurance—On each policy for each $100, 10 cents on the amount insured. Policies on the industrial weekly plan, 40 per cent of the amount of the first $100 premium is charged. Fraternal, beneficiary societies and orders, farmers' and purely local co-operative companies engaged in making associations operated on the lodge system or local co-operative plan, "organized and conducted solely by the members thereof, for the exclusive benefit of its members and not for profit," are exempted.

Marine, Inland and Fire Insurance—Each policy, one-half of 1 cent on each dollar. Co-operative and mutual companies are exempted.

Fidelity and Guarantee Insurance—Each policy, one-half of 1 cent on the performance of the duties of any office, position, or other obligation of the nature of indemnity and each contract or obligation guaranteeing the validity of bonds or other obligations issued by any state, municipal or other public body, or guaranteeing titles to real estate or mercantile credits, executed or guaranteed by any surety company upon the amount of premium charged, one-half of 1 cent on each dollar.

Lease—Land or tenement, not exceeding one year, 2 cents; exceeding one year and not exceeding three years, 5 cents; exceeding three years, $1. Manifest for custom house entry or clearance of cargo for a foreign port, if the restricted tonnage of such ship, vessel, or steamer does not exceed 300 tons, $1; exceeding 300 tons and not exceeding 600 tons, $2; exceeding 600 tons, $5.

Mortgage of real estate or personal property, exceeding $1,000 and not exceeding $1,500, 25 cents; and on each $500 in excess of $1,500, 25 cents. Passage ticket from a port in the United States to a foreign port, if costing not exceeding $30, $1; costing more than $30 and not exceeding $60, $3; costing more than $60, $5.

Proxy for voting at any election for officers of any incorporated company, except religious, charitable or literary societies, public cemeteries, 10 cents. Power of attorney, 25 cents; not to apply to the collection of old soldiers' claims or to the collection of such claims on account of the military or naval service.

Protesting notes, bills of exchange, acceptance, check or draft, or any marine protest, 25 cents; warehouse receipts, 25 cents. The stamp duties on manifests, bills of lading and passage tickets do not apply to steamships or other vessels, either between ports of the United States and ports in British North America.

Patent Medicines. Medicinal Proprietary Articles and Preparations—Upon every packet, box, bottle, jar, tin, or other receptacle, whether in pills, powders, tinctures, troches, syrups, cordials, bitters, anodynes, tonics, plasters, liniments, salves, ointments, pastes, drops, waters (mineral and medicinal), essences, sprays, oils, and all medicinal preparations or compositions whatsoever, made and sold, or removed for
