

SITE FOR PACIFIC SCHOOL

Bids for a Number of Locations Are Offered the Board. MATTER REFERRED TO A COMMITTEE

No Discussion of the Offers Indulged in by the Members—Armstrong Investigation Will Go Ahead This Week.

Quite a number of real estate propositions for a school site near the Pacific school were read by Secretary Gillan at the meeting of the Board of Education last night.

Potter & George company—Either lots 1, 2, 3 and 4, block 290, including a twenty-foot strip, total frontage of 284 feet on Mason street and 132 feet on both Eleventh and Twelfth streets, $19,500; or lots 2, 3 and 4, 198x122 feet, the southeast corner of Twelfth and Mason streets, $13,000; or lots 3 and 4, 132 feet square, same corner, $7,500.

W. J. Connell—Lots 1, 2 and 3, block 248, with twenty-foot strip adjacent, 218x132 feet, $21,140. C. C. Shiner—Lot 1, block 249, adjoining present school, 60x132 feet, $13,000.

All the bids referred. At the suggestion of Mr. Burgess, President Jordan appointed as a special committee to see that the matter of the Hickory street grade went through at the meeting of the city council tonight all right Messrs. Burgess, Buchanan, Van Gilder, Kiewit and Dennis. Mr. Jordan explained that the board put up $14,500 two years ago to have the grade made, but nothing had since been done.

Chairman Thomas announced that the committee on heat and ventilation, before which is pending the matter of the appointment of the janitor for the Pacific school, would have a meeting next Saturday night. Mr. Burgess wanted to know whether Messrs. Cockerill, Harris and Miller would be entitled to get a hearing as well as the other gentlemen of the Old Soldiers' Republican club on the charges which Mr. Hess had preferred against George H. Armstrong, the applicant.

An invitation was extended by Secretary Gillan on behalf of the Transmississippi Educational convention to have the board attend the convention on June 28, 29 and 30, also the reception to be given on the 29th in the courts of the city hall and The Bee building.

Mr. Grafton endeavored to have the name of Miss Ella Perrine added to the list of teachers, saying that it had been omitted, whereupon Superintendent Pearce suggested that Miss Margaret Boyd, but Mr. Van Gilder adding that the name of Miss Ella Perrine was not on the list.

The meeting abruptly adjourned in the midst of a protest Mr. Van Gilder was making against what the committee on exhibit had been doing. Mr. Thomas, the chairman, explained that all was being done that could, but Mr. Van Gilder said he had not been given a chance to attend the committee meetings and the committee was expending $200 a month without the sanction of the board.

AMUSEMENTS

The second week at the Trocadero opened with an entire change of bill but still maintaining the standard for high class vaudeville which the proprietors set out to furnish the people of Omaha. There is no more performance not the least pleasing program of the opening week and less monotonous to the betterment of the evening's entertainment. In the eight numbers which constitute the bill there are represented some very clever artists. The opening introduces the Wilsons, an exceedingly taking "coon" performance, not the least pleasing portion of which is the pickaninies. Miss Bessie Phillips contributes some vocal selections and La Petite Adelaide an exceptionally dainty and graceful dance. Edna Collins, the whistler, renders in an artistic manner several different operatic numbers and John Carball and Adria transport a collection of dialect songs, those in the Irish brogue being particularly good. Lillie Western succeeds in producing acceptable music from a variety of instruments and Carrie Exler follows with some lively airs and impersonations. The vaudeville section of the performance, conducted by the clever dancing by Sam Kittle and Clara Morton. The regular performance concludes with an open air concert by the orchestra. The same bill will be presented throughout the week.

The Cascauden Concert company gave an entertainment last night in Old Fellows' temple for the benefit of the Old Fellows' information bureau. The company is composed of R. H. Cascauden, violinist; Miss Helen M. Burnham, soprano; Mrs. Jussen-Donnely, speaker, and E. C. M. von Dworak, pianist. The opening number was Invocation, by Handel, by the company. Burnham, Mr. Cascauden and Mr. von Dworak. Mr. von Dworak followed with an improvisation of Liszt's rhapsodies and each of the other members of the company contributed several numbers to the program, closing the evening's entertainment with a finale by the entire company.

The performances given at the Trocadero this week are far in advance of anything of this kind ever offered in Omaha. "High class vaudeville" is implied in many instances to mislead the public, and particularly in Omaha has been greatly misused. It can be said without fear of contradiction that the Trocadero is the only first-class vaudeville theater in Omaha, and it is a pride of the management to cater to none but the representative citizens. Its aims are to encourage the elite to attend and perpetuate its existence. The erection of this palatial theater fills a long-felt want and when it is considered that this city is provided with what no other city has west of New York City it should be gratefully appreciated.

An Excursion to New York. By way of Niagara Falls, Thousand Islands, Rideau river, Ottawa river, Montreal, Hudson Champlain and George and the Hudson river, returning through Philadelphia, Washington and under the experienced guidance of Mr. Woodworth Allen, leaves Omaha June 30. Descriptive leaflet can be had at the Burlington office.

Those who contemplate an eastern trip this summer should inquire about this excursion. This they can do either by calling on or addressing J. B. Reynolds, city passenger agent, Burlington route, 1502 Farnam street, Omaha.

Pass Fishing. Seymour lake is now open for the season for bass fishing. Trains leave Omaha for Deerfield at 8:35 a. m. on the B. & M. or 9:30 p. m. on the Missouri Pacific. Passengers can return at 7:30 p. m. on the B. & M. Fare 25 cents each way. Boats, bait and fishing rods furnished on the grounds.

Charles Comiskey and the St. Paul base ball club are quartered at the Barker. William Worthington of Oakley, Idaho, is spending a week with Omaha friends. Charles Fowler of the Detroit Medical college has arrived home for the summer holidays.

San Morton, Kittie Morton and Clara Morton of Denver, Colo., are stopping at the Barker. G. N. Walden and wife just arrived at the Murray from Cynthia, Ky., to look over the exposition.

Miss Rose Phillips of San Francisco and Miss Carrie Ezier of New York City are at the Barker. Lieutenant William H. Wiley of the Second Nebraska Infantry is among the recruiting officers who are in the city.

Dr. F. A. Davis and wife, Dr. W. Johnson and wife and Dr. J. A. Williamson and wife, all of Pawnee City, are in Omaha. Members of the Iowa commission who are in the city are: H. Malley of Charleston, Frank N. Chase of Cedar Rapids and J. E. E. Markley of Mason City.

John L. Hulme and daughter are stopping at the Murray. Mr. Hulme is chief mechanic of the Pullman shops at Chicago. George W. Dickinson, formerly general superintendent of the Northern Pacific, is being buried in the city with his brother, E. Dickinson. Miss Clara Hammel of Dubuque, Ia., has returned home, after a pleasant visit with Miss Sophie Schmidt and enjoying the beauties of the exposition.

CONTEMPT CASES ON TRIAL

Judge Scott has the Midway Matter in His Court Again. COURT INSISTS ON HEARING THE MATTER

Defendants Decline to Plead, Acting on Their Attorney's Advice, and the Judge Pleads Not Guilty for Them. The case wherein the proprietors of the Streets of Cairo seek to prevent the proprietors of the Streets of All Nations from exhibiting camels and donkeys and from giving camel and donkey rides monopolizes the time of Judge Scott.

The real issues in the Midway cases have been lost sight of for the time being, as contempt cases have taken their place. The first case called was that wherein Guston Akoun and Marchoe Zitone, proprietors and managers of the Streets of All Nations, were charged with violating the order of the court in not obeying the injunction issued some days ago, ordering them to turn their camels and donkeys out of the village. This case also included A. L. Reed of guilty Bureau of Concessions and his assistant, S. B. Wadley.

When the case was called, Attorneys Hall, Montgomery and McCullough for the defendants, objected to the court taking any action in the premises, contending that by reason of the fact that the May term of the district court adjourned last Saturday, the judge had no jurisdiction. The objection was overruled and the information was read to each of the defendants. Acting upon the advice of their attorneys, they stood mute and refused to plead. The judge on his own motion entered a plea of guilty in each case. This, however, was done over the objections of the attorneys.

It took nearly all of the time of the morning session to read the information and adjournment of the court ordered all of the defendants into the custody of the sheriff, informing them if they desired their liberty until the convening of the afternoon session they would have to give bonds in the sum of $500 each. Bonds were given and none of the parties were in court at the afternoon session.

The contempt case against La Belle Rosa and fifteen other witnesses who were called last Saturday were dismissed, Attorney Montgomery explaining that it was his fault that the witnesses were not in court at the time called.

At the afternoon session of court the pleadings were read and again an objection to the jurisdiction of the court was raised. This was overruled, and Harry O'Brien, manager of the Streets of Cairo, was called as a witness. He said that upon a couple of occasions since June 1 he had visited the Streets of All Nations and had seen parties riding camels and donkeys, which he thought was a violation of the injunction issued by Judge Scott.

A Clever Trick. It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can try it, who has Lame Back and Weak Knees, Malaria or nervous troubles. He may as well give himself right away by taking Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to Liver and Kidneys, is a blood purifier and cures all it cures Constipation, Headache, Fainting Spells, Sleeplessness and Melancholy. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative, and restores the system to its normal condition. Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c a bottle at Kuhn & Co.'s Drug Store.

CASE AGAINST SUDBOROUGH. Andy Hunt Testifies That Express Company Money Was Used in Political Campaign. The case of the State against T. K. Sudborough, charged with embezzling the funds of the Pacific Express company while serving in the capacity of chief clerk or assistant auditor, occupied a greater portion of the time of Court Judge Baxter. Andy J. Hunt, the former clerk, was on the stand for several hours, testifying that during the campaign when Sudborough was a candidate for the state legislature the sum of $2,000 was used to advance his political interests, the money being that belonging to the express company.

At the afternoon session ex-President Morsman of the Pacific Express company was called as a witness for the state. He related the methods employed in the conduct of the affairs of the office, detailing the fact that T. K. Sudborough was, as such official he approved certain bills and ordered the payment of money.

Mrs. Rose Phillips of San Francisco and Miss Carrie Ezier of New York City are at the Barker. Lieutenant William H. Wiley of the Second Nebraska Infantry is among the recruiting officers who are in the city.

Dr. F. A. Davis and wife, Dr. W. Johnson and wife and Dr. J. A. Williamson and wife, all of Pawnee City, are in Omaha. Members of the Iowa commission who are in the city are: H. Malley of Charleston, Frank N. Chase of Cedar Rapids and J. E. E. Markley of Mason City.

John L. Hulme and daughter are stopping at the Murray. Mr. Hulme is chief mechanic of the Pullman shops at Chicago. George W. Dickinson, formerly general superintendent of the Northern Pacific, is being buried in the city with his brother, E. Dickinson. Miss Clara Hammel of Dubuque, Ia., has returned home, after a pleasant visit with Miss Sophie Schmidt and enjoying the beauties of the exposition.

Mrs. Alma E. Keith, long a resident of Omaha, now of San Francisco, is in the city for a short visit and enjoying the exposition. She is accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Keith, who resides in the Midwinter fair.

A fishing party consisting of Ralph Mueller, Harry Tukey, Arthur Welbans and Roy Stone, has returned from the Nebraska river, where they were entertained on the farm of Count Lindquist. Rev. J. Edward Reilly of Escanaba, Mich., has accepted a call to the pastory of St. Matthias' Episcopal church, Tenth street and Worthington Place, and will begin his work in Omaha about September 1. A. J. Elliott, wife of Chicago, are here visiting the Transmississippi Exposition and are stopping at the Murray. Mr. Elliott is in the general freight department of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway. Ex-Governor Dr. Alonzo Garcelon and daughter of Lewiston, Me., are looking over the Transmississippi Exposition and incidentally attending the medical meetings of this week. While the doctor is in the city of age, he is well and hearty and attends to his daily practice. They are stopping at the Murray. Nebraskans at hotels: J. H. Morrison, Superior; H. S. Fisher, C. V. Clay, Hastings; Frank Hutchinson, Nelson; A. C. Prosser, F. H. Bentley, Bancroft; C. W. Wallis, Norfolk; Oliver Rodgers, J. C. Dalway, W. J. Bryan, P. W. Plank and wife, Lincoln; F. J. CALLS A COUNTY CONVENTION

Douglas County Republican Committee Holds a Very Secret Session on Saturday. The Douglas county republican committee held a meeting Saturday afternoon at Washington hall, at which a call was ordered for primaries and convention to select delegates to the republican state convention, which meets at Lincoln August 10. The meeting seems to have been arranged with a due regard to secrecy, and was therefore attended by but few outsiders, while quite a number of the committee were also absent. Chairman Williams presided.

The day set for the primaries was next Friday, June 24, and the convention is to be held on Saturday, June 25. The arguments used in favor of so early a date, which will leave nearly two months between the time when the delegates meet in Omaha and the time the state convention meets, is that it is desirable to get in ahead of Lancaster county and enable Douglas county candidates to use the delegation to patch up fences in other parts of the state. While there was some objection, everything seemed to be prearranged, and the program for an immediate primary went through. The committee reduced the relative voting strength of the county precincts in the convention by increasing the number of delegates for each city ward in Omaha from ten to ten and giving South Omaha sixteen delegates, to be elected by wards.

"Bob" Wright and John Day, alias Spencer, two of the most adept confidence men who have visited Omaha this summer are in the hands of the police, as are the devices used in their swindling operations. Wright and Day, who have criminal records dating back twenty years, confine their operations to farmers visiting in the city. The latter poses as a farmer who has shipped by freight to Omaha a large quantity of farm produce. He becomes acquainted with some bona fide farmer on the street or at a hotel and finally gets to be intimate with him. When the farmer is ripe to be swindled, Wright, in the guise of a freight agent, calls on him when he is sure he is in a bad humor, and demands that Day pay the freight on his produce and take it away from the depot. Day tenders him a check for $100 as payment, but Wright refuses to accept a check. Day then turns to his farmer friend who in nine cases out of ten cashes the check, which of course is a worthless one. Day then pays Wright and later disappears.

The Right Kind of a Friend. I was muchly afflicted with a cough for several years, and last fall I was more severe than ever before. I have used many remedies without receiving much relief, but I have recently tried a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, by a friend, who, knowing me to be a poor wretch, gave it to me. I tried it, and with the most gratifying results. My cough has been relieved very much and the second bottle has absolutely cured me. I have not had as good health for twenty years. Mrs. MARY A. "Stumpy" Smith Escapes. "Stumpy" Smith, the police character who was subjected to such brutal punishment by the police Thursday, became desperate last evening and made a bold and successful dash to liberty. It was while Smith and other prisoners were being driven like sheep into their cells that Smith made his bold move. He had and passed through the iron doors that protect the entrance to the jail when he made up his mind to escape. With set face he turned about in his place and crashed for the door, knocking the prisoners down in his flight. Falling through the iron gate he clanged it shut in the face of his guards. The display of revolvers by the officers, and their efforts to halt spurred Smith on to greater effort. After leaving the station by the rear he ran down the alley in a westerly direction.

KING OF SQUATTERS FLEES

Brutally Beats a Woman and Eludes Parents After Narrowly Escaping Lynching. The quiet of Sunday in the little colony of squatters on the lands owned by the Omaha & Southwestern railway was broken yesterday by a feud of long standing which almost culminated in a lynching. Edward Genitz, who, by his mammoth proportions is looked upon as the king of the colony, has snatched a large portion of the land upon which the settlement is founded. Yesterday the railway company ordered a widow named Rosina Kaschub to move her shanty from its site onto some of the land held by Genitz. The latter resented this, and told the widow he would kill her if she attempted to move on his premises. About 4 o'clock she, with a gang of men, started to move the building. This infuriated Genitz, and he rushed at the woman brandishing an axe. She defied him, and he made a vicious swing at her head with the axe, but she dodged it and grappled with him. During the struggle the axe was wrested from Genitz's grasp and he turned on the woman and brutally beat her with his fists. Her cries attracted the attention of the people of the colony and the mob portion surrounded Genitz and would have lynched him had not wiser counsel prevailed.

After the trouble Genitz disappeared and cannot be found. Mrs. Kaschub was badly beaten. Several of her teeth were knocked out and her face was badly bruised. She swore out a warrant for the arrest of Genitz yesterday. Orphans' Home Festival, Fremont, next Sunday, June 26. Train leaves U. P. depot at 8:10 a. m. and departs from Fremont at 6:30 p. m. Accident Was Unavoidable. In the case of Augustus Wallace, the little colored boy who was killed by a motor car on Twenty-fourth street near Indiana avenue Saturday afternoon, the coroner's jury brought in a verdict exonerating the motorman and conductor of the car. An Honest Crash

If you want a Crash Suit at all you want an honest one. Cotton isn't crash. The store that would sell you cotton for linen would just as soon sell you cotton for wool. We sell you a good honest all linen—pure linen—suit for $2.50. That's less than anybody gets for as good a suit. We have some at $2.50, $3.00 and as high as $4.50, and they are all honest, all linen—all straight crash. We have nothing at all against cotton when sold as cotton, but we have against cotton sailing under false colors. It's a trick. We don't like tricks. We would call your particular attention today to a line of crash suits we are selling at three dollars. They are good suits. They are made up by a good house and will give as good satisfaction as the average $4 or $5 crash. Light weight, dark color—not too dark, but dark enough to look clean a good deal longer than if the color was light. That's a point to be considered when buying a crash suit.

Suits of Crash $1.35, $1.90, $2.00, $2.25, $2.50, $2.75, $3.50. The 1st Nebraska Regiment Responsible for the Rise in Crash Cloth. The expedition to Manila, with the Nebraska regiments, caused crash cloth to advance 57 per cent. Who don't believe it? The soldier boys will wear crash suits on the Philippines. Isn't that sufficient ground for a 57 per cent raise? Just think what a marvelous foresight we have. Eighteen months before Devey conquered Manila we bought a shipment of crash suits. You are cruel not to believe that. Perhaps some other store could make you believe that crash suits could not be had at less than $2.50 a suit. Please believe it until you see our $2.00 linen crash suits. Couldn't be sold less than $2.50 anywhere. Quite right. It takes 50c more profit to run a high toned and desirably located establishment than a side-street, away-from-town simple store. Cotton Crash Suits are but $1.35 here—a profit of a dime is good enough. It will reach as far toward paying expenses of this store as a half dollar at a pretty big store. Just why no other clothing store brags or bellows well suits at $1.35 and how much cheaper they can buy things than we do. Our $2.50 Cash Suits are likely the same you pay $3 to $3.50 for everywhere. Crash Pants, 39 to 50 inch waist measure, 65c. Fancy Ducking Pants, 39 to 50 waist measure, 65c.
