DENVER, Colo., June 22.-Clubwomen with pleasure proclivities broke up an imeration this afternoon. After bumping up against parliamentary tactics until 4:30 p. m., the hour set for a free trolley ride, the delegates bolted in a body. Notwithstanding a thunder storm which soon broke loose Victoria of Wales to John Baring, the women clambered on the cars bound for a recention by the Northside Woman's club and incidentally ruined their best bonnets. Prior to this unexpected procedure, several important matters were considered chief of which was the curtailment of the delegates' power, it being decided one dele-As many women came to represent several clubs each, this decision precipitated much grumbling, particularly among delegates from smaller towns empowered to cast several votes.
