

SAINTS NEARLY KILL PAPA

Make Six Hits and Seven Runs in the Ninth Inning Off Fisher.

SLAMBANG WINDUP FOR A HOT GAME

Omaha Almost Had 'Em Licked When the Catastrophe Came Off—Details of the Disaster as Far as Known.

After dallying with the babes on the lot for eight innings yesterday afternoon the Saints rubbed it into them by the score of 11 to 4. The Saints are some ball tossers after all.

It was a hard game to lose. It was 1 to 1 to the fourth, when they made it 3 to 1. In the next we went them one better and made it 4 to 3. They saw us in the eighth and didn't do a thing in the ninth except raise a clean out of sight when we were not expecting it.

Hard luck. That was, and with Fisher in the box, too. At that was an interesting sort of game for an unprepared audience, but you could not find that in the heads of the home rosters with a pickax. If we had turned around and made those seven runs in that fatal ninth wouldn't we have been some pumpkins on the vine? You bet we would.

They'll not get the third on Danny Daub, who is awaiting a chance to retrieve himself, and you redoubt had all better come out this afternoon and see the Saints cooked.

Burke—they called him Spanish out on the bleachers and he stood for it, too—made a hit, but he pitched back at him. He was sacrificed to second by Miller, started to steal second just as Glenavlin banged the ball for an infield grounder and never stopped running until he came home.

He was a ball player, Mr. Burke. Glen was put out at first and Glascock turned up his toes likewise.

We worked along the same lines. Fleming biffed one that came within an ace of being an error for Colonel Shugart and got to second on Estuase's sacrifice. Then Roat wanted out one of those three-baggers on the fourth and ninth.

He was a ball player, Mr. Burke. Glen was put out at first and Glascock turned up his toes likewise.

We played horse with them for a while in the sixth and when that was over it looked something like a cinch for us.

Estuase Hits a Homer.

McCauley got a base on balls. He reached second and hit a grand slam on Doggy Miller's dropping fly. Fleming struck out. Then Estuase came up. He did not do much, Oh no.

Mr. Estuase rapped that ball an awful bang and it whizzed off as if it was never coming back. It did not come back until McCauley, Fisher and Mr. Estuase all three scored.

After that Roat made a hit and Doggy Miller dropped another fly. Pick's this time, but Lyons and Preston both went out to Glascock.

A tally did not come within a mile of us in the rest of the game, but they were not through yet because the score was against them, 4 to 3.

They went out in one, two, three shape in the fifth, sixth and seventh and hope beat high in our breasts. But in the eighth they tied us. Burke hit Fisher for two baggers and after Doggy went out scored on Glenavlin's single. Glascock doubled up Glen.

They murdered Pa in the ninth. Gier made a hit. Shugart batted to Fish and the latter fired the ball to Roat, who was covering second. It was a wee bit wide, but he ought to have caught it. But he did not and before the ball was corralled again Shugart was on third and Gier second. Glen was given a press tick and a Spies brought both Gier and Shugart in on a two-bagger. Fricklen's single scored Glen.

Burke struck again and brought in Spies. Miller forced Fricklen out at third, but Glenavlin batted out a tri-socket and both Burke and Miller scored. Glascock died at first. At his second time up in the inning Gier whipped out a two-base hit and scored. After that the Brewer came from the side out by rolling one down to Lyons.

Wasn't that murder? In our end of the ninth McCauley beat out a bunt hit, but was doubled with Fisher and Fleming hit at first. Score: Saints 11, Omaha 4.

Local Railroads Resolve in Favor of the Brokers' Ordinance.

SAY SCALPERS MUST BE SUPPRESSED

Passenger Men Serve Notice That Unless an Effort Is Made to Enforce the Ordinance Low Rates Will Be Withdrawn.

At a meeting of the local passenger association yesterday the following preamble and resolution were adopted: Whereas, the railroad centering in Omaha, and in fact all lines in the west, appreciating the great importance to this city, state and the west of the magnificent expansion created by the coming money abundant of the people of Omaha and the west, have responded to all requests of the exposition management by making low fares, guaranteeing the purchase of tickets, and moderating for the benefit of the public; and

Whereas, At the solicitation of the management of the exposition and citizens, the city council of Omaha enacted an ordinance which was duly signed by the mayor and is now a law of the city, designed for the better regulation of the ticket brokers and scalping, the regulation of the same, and especially for the protection of the public against being imposed upon by irresponsible persons with fraudulent tickets, as well as giving the railroads protecting assurance in case they secured or made reduced rates on account of the exhibition; and

First—All persons so engaged, i. e., in the business of scalping or ticket brokering, were required to take out a license and secure suitable surety. Second—Prohibiting the sale or disposition of a second-hand ticket without wearing a badge. Third—Prohibiting or making it unlawful for any person engaged in ticket scalping or brokerage business to call out his business card.

Fourth—Guaranteeing the buying or selling of second-hand railroad tickets which are invalid in the hands of purchaser or in violation of the original contract of purchase and sale. Fifth—Requiring that any such ticket be accompanied by the original contract of purchase and sale.

Sixth—Requiring that any such ticket be accompanied by the original contract of purchase and sale.

Seventh—Providing that any persons or corporations engaged in the business of railroad ticket brokers or scalpers guilty of selling without a license are subject to penalty, etc., and that penalties apply for violation of an ordinance against such persons.

Eighth—That such ordinance was duly passed, approved and became effective from and after April 13, 1898, and

In consequence of the work of the women of the hospital association in canvassing the city for members and subscriptions, Rev. Irving P. Johnson, rector of St. Martin's Episcopal church, sends the following communication to the press:

As I understand that the women of the South Omaha hospital are beginning a canvass of the city for memberships and subscriptions I would like to call the attention of the public to a few facts which will be helpful in determining the reception that they will receive at the hands of our citizens.

This hospital is the only charity supported solely by the citizens of South Omaha and it is the charity which ought to come first in our consideration.

Such an institution is absolutely necessary for a city of this character. When the public and other kindred spirits organized this institution they did so because there was absolutely no place to take men injured at the stock yards, who had no one to care for them.

Resolved, That in failing to execute the above law, whereby the public and the railroad should and could be protected, the directors and the city fathers are neglecting their duty and the success of the exposition.

RAILROADS RESORT TO A POOL. Only Method Apparent for Settling Live Stock Rate War.

CHICAGO, June 22.—Executive officers of the western railroads have this session here today trying to reach a settlement of the live stock rate war.

The question as to whether the railways should ship live stock at the old rate or at the new rate is being discussed at a meeting, owing to the inability of the railway attorneys to agree on a report.

All of these conditions and their causes are promptly cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It brings back the keen edge of appetite, makes the digestion perfect and the liver healthy. It makes rich, red, pure blood filled with the life-giving elements of the food that build healthy tissues, firm flesh, strong muscles and vibrant nerve system. It invigorates and vitalizes the whole body, and imparts mental power and elasticity. It cures 98 per cent of all cases of consumption, strengthens weak lungs, stops bleeding from lungs, spitting of blood, obstructive lunging coughs and kindred ailments.

Costiveness, constipation and torpidity of the liver are surely, speedily and permanently cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules, which are so gentle on the stomach and intestines, and two a mild cathartic. They grippe, they stimulate and strengthen the jaded organs until a regular habit is formed and they may then be discontinued without a return of the trouble. They stimulate, invigorate and regulate the stomach, liver and bowels. Medicine stores sell them, but buy no other pills that "are just as good."
