L. Smith and Coombs & Brennan. None of the efendants appeared to plead and the injunctions were granted by default, all Shea having to do being to prove the fact that ntoxicating liquors are sold as alleged. The decree of permanent injunction carries in each case with it $25 attorney fees and the costs of the suit. Under the old law the decree carried $100 attorney fees. Shea has a number of similar suits still pending in which he has not as yet proved up. In all the suits that Shea has brought at different times against the saloon keepers of this city he has never yet put the injunctions granted in force. Some of the saloon keepers have gone out of business, but the majority have paid the costs of the suits and the attorney's fees and have gone right along selling as before.

ROBBERIES ARE NUMEROUS Aberdeen Thieves Appear to Be Par-tial to Bicycles and Hides.

ABERDEEN, S. D., Aug. 6.—(Special.)— Considerable stealing has been going or here recently, showing that a very lawless class infest the city at the present time. Two bleycles have been stolen in the past few days. One was taken from the porch of Mr. Stebbins' residence while he was eating dinner. Several bundles of hides were stolen from H. Rockingham, evidently taken by the same parties who have been stealing bides at other points near here. A series of three games of ball between Webster and Aberdeen closed this week. The first game was a tie-7 to 7. The next Webster won by a score of 15 to 5. The last game resulted in a victory for Aberdeen by a score of 10 to 7. The next series of games will be played on the Webster diamond, probably next week.
