Dublin Takes a Holiday to Attend the Laying of the Cornerstone. THOUSANDS OF EXCURSIONISTS PRESENT

Come from All Parts of the World to Honor the Memory of the Hero of the Rebellion of s Century Ago. DUBLIN, Aug. 15 .- The whole city is en fete today in connection with the laying of the foundation stone of the monument in memory of Wolfe Tone. The municipal offices and many business houses are closed. Thousands of excursionists are arriving and delegates are in attendance from America, Australia, France and Italy. There was an immense procession to the site of the monument. It included representatives of all the civic and trade societies, who followed a memorial car containing the foundation stone, which was decorated with flags presented by the Daughters of Erin '98 Association of New York City.

Theobald Wolfe Tone, whose memorial is the central feature of the festivities in Dublin today, was the real originator of the Irish movement that culminated in the rebellion of 1898. He founded the United Irishmen. Tone was a Protestant, but he had imbibed socialist ideas and was bitterly hostile to the priests of that day, whose influence counteracted his own. In Wexford, where the insurrection went farthest the ablest leaders were priests, but the acted against their church. Tone offered his services to William Pitt, but they wer declined. He left a most interesting account of his Parisian adventures, and his tornb is still the object of an annual pligrimage.

tending physician, made a verbal statement as to his opinion of the deaths. He said the candy eaten by the women was poisonous. No post-mortem was held, the physician saying that on account of the frequent vomiting there was nothing the in the stomachs to analyze. After viewing the bodies the jury adjourned to meet subject to the call of the coroner. A verdict will not be rendered until after the candy has been analyzed. The funeral of the two victims of the poisoning took place this afternoon and was largely attended.
