WORK OF BOLD HIGHWAYMEN

Two Tough Citizens Hold Up a Hanscom Park Street Car.

GO THROUGH THE POCKETS OF CONDUCTOR

Secure Twenty-Six Dollars and Make Their Escape in the Darkness—Wild Gun Play by One of the Robbers.

A bold and successful holdup occurred on a Hanscom park street car shortly before midnight last night. A Twenty-six and Dupont street, the southern terminus of the line. The train crew, consisting of Conductor W. H. Walker and Motorman Louis Hanson, had turned the car around and were awaiting their scheduled time of departure on the trip home.

MAKING NEW FIGURES

and barley. The corn, however, is his pride and joy and he is showing some that makes that big corn from Texas feel small. Stalks nineteen feet high are shown. They are well cared, some of the ears starting out as high as ten feet from the ground.

Governor Northern's Notion.

Governor W. J. Northern of Georgia writes an interesting letter to the Atlanta Constitution in which he discusses some of the ideas that he gathered at the exposition. In his opinion one great purpose of the show is to solve the question how best to seek investments and he comments on the great variety of methods adopted by communities and individuals to get their wares before the public.

To Help Poor Children.

The Board of Women Managers is considering a plan to give a day's holiday at the exposition to the children of Lincoln and one or two other large cities who could not afford to take advantage of the children's excursions. It has been suggested that aside from the big crowd of children that was brought up from Lincoln Thursday there are several hundred youngsters in that city who were unable to come because they did not have the money. It is now proposed to give them a free trip some time next month. The expense will not be great and it is believed that with very little effort enough funds can be raised among the business men of Lincoln to carry the purpose. President Sawyer and Secretary Ford of the women's board will take the matter up as soon as the pending excursions are out of the way and with a trifling assistance from the Lincoln people they believe the idea can be successfully carried out.

Close Up the Old Plantation.

The Old Plantation, the darkey show on the Midway, is in the hands of the exposition and the voice of the pastor of Mount Nebo chapel is no longer heard in the land. The grand finale came yesterday afternoon when the concessionaire refused to square his account that has been running during the last two months.

Man Assaulted and Robbed

Oscar Lundstrom is Knocked Down and Relieved of His Money, Amounting to $25.25.

Oscar Lundstrom, 913 South Thirteenth street, was assaulted and robbed at 1 o'clock this morning as he was passing along the railroad tracks between the Tenth and the Thirteenth street viaducts. Lundstrom had spent the evening with friends near Tenth and Harney streets and was walking home alone. He crossed the Tenth street viaduct to the Union Pacific depot, where he took a short cut along the tracks. He had only gone a short distance when he met two men, who sprang upon him without ceremony. Lundstrom was thrown to the ground and one of the footpads held him while the other rifled his pockets, securing $25.25. In return for the slight resistance he had made the robbers then kicked Lundstrom brutally in the stomach and head until he became unconscious. When he regained consciousness Lundstrom's assailants were nowhere to be seen and he painfully made his way to the police station to report the occurrence. His shirt was torn and he covered with dust and scratches from his struggle among the cinders. There were also severe bruises on his body.

Library Board's Business.

The matter was referred to the book committee.

HAYDEN BROS.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN.

Ch. C. Chapman of Minneapolis, president of the Chapin Publishing company, is in the city on a flying trip to the exposition, with a view to preparing a special article on the big fair. Mr. Chapin is one of the old time newspaper men of the Flour City, having "done time" on most of the dailies of that section for over thirty years.

Man Assaulted and Robbed

Alexander Majors, an old time Nebraskaan, but now making his headquarters at Denver, is visiting in the city. If he lives till October 4 he will be 84 years of age. He came to the city on the Missouri river when a boy and looked over the city as it was when St. Louis, which was then a town of about 4,000 inhabitants, with the river ferried by a flat boat manned by three Frenchmen. A few years ago he visited the spot again and a fashionably dressed man came by. Mr. Majors spoke to him and told of his experience there in the years ago and was told that with the development which had since taken place the traffic now carried over the river in one day could not be handled by the three Frenchmen with their flat boats in 100 years.

Personal Paragraphs.

Albert Kinsler left yesterday on a short northern trip. Walter Johnson, editor of the Rock Island Union, is in the city visiting the exposition. Judge Kirkpatrick of Lincoln is in the city to attend a meeting of the State Fish commission. George P. Phillips of Reading, Pa., who is largely interested in the mines of that state, is in Omaha.

He Wanted to Get Married.

"Is there a justice of the peace here?" was the anxious inquiry of a man made of C. W. Allen, the court messenger at the old postoffice building.

Too Much Water in Ponce.

PONCE, Porto Rico, Aug. 26.—A deluge from the mountains today flooded the rivers and the bridge between the town and fort was destroyed. This will prevent General Miles' attending a reception given in his honor by Ponce citizens at the leading club tonight and will probably cause much inconvenience to transportation of troops which are returning home. Several camps were washed out.

himself as the foster father of Colonel Cody. The latter came to Mr. Majors when 9 years old, looking for work, and was employed as a messenger, in which service he gave eminent satisfaction, so much so that the two men have been fast friends to the present day.

Nebraskans at the Convention.

Major A. R. Anderson, ex-congressman from Iowa, but now residing at Hot Springs, S. D., stopped over in Omaha on his return from the republican state convention at Mitchell, S. D. Mr. Anderson is now an enthusiastic republican and thinks there is a bright prospect for redeeming his state from the populists. He said a letter was read at the convention from H. L. Loucks, the father of the populist party in South Dakota, in which he declared his opposition to fusion with the democrats and his intention to support the republican nominees. Mr. Loucks said he had given up none of the principles for which he had been fighting for years, but having tried the democratic route through fusion and finding they were not to be trusted, he had decided to work with the republicans to bring about such reforms as he thought were needed. He also assured the convention that many of the old farmers' alliance populists would be with him in this action.

Nebraskans at the Convention.

J. H. Sessions of Minneapolis, Minn., general sales agent of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal and Iron company, has been in the city during the week visiting Frank L. Gregory, local agent for the eastern firm. He is more than delighted with the exposition and remained three days longer than he had intended in order to see the entire show. Mr. Sessions said that he came here with the idea that it was along the line of a state fair and his surprise at the grandeur and successful equipments of the exposition was beyond his greatest expectations. He said if eastern people only knew what it really was and could get cheap rates that the city would be filled with easterners every day.

Personal Paragraphs.

Baxter, chief clerk at the customs office on the exposition grounds, with his wife, has returned from a visit to Denver where they have been spending the summer. Mrs. De Forrest Richards of Douglas, wife of the republican candidate for governor in Wyoming, is a visitor in the city and is regarded as the Millard. Edward Swobe, formerly of Omaha and now a resident of Chicago, is in the city on his way to Denver to attend the wedding of Lester Bridgman, who used to reside here.

Personal Paragraphs.

Mr. Harry Molling, a prominent young business man and senior member of the firm of Molling Bros. of Alliance, Neb., is enjoining a brief sojourn to the Exposition City. Euclid Martin has gone to Chicago to meet the members of his family who are returning from North Weymouth, Mass., where they have been spending the summer. They will reach home today. Robert Oberfelder of Sidney, Neb., is in the city to attend a meeting of the Nebraska fire commission. He will leave for New York and other eastern points on Saturday. He says he is more delighted with the exposition every time he sees it. Senator Allen left yesterday for Washington to attend some departmental work which has been accumulating on his hands, and will return to Nebraska about September 6, after which he will remain in the state till the campaign is over. John A. Shevilly of Joperville, Ill., a democratic senator in that state, and one of those who voted for the appropriation for an Illinois exhibit at the Transmississippi Exposition, is in the city visiting the exposition, seeking justification for his legislative action. J. Stewart Jackson, M. S. Graser, A. L. Whitney, J. M. Porter and W. G. Chambers are a party of Denver dentists who have arrived in Omaha to attend the exposition and the dental meetings which are to be held during the coming week. They are stopping at the Millard.
