The bill of James P. Christensen for $455.55, being 10 per cent on $455.55 delinquent taxes from the years 1889 to 1897 that he had collected, was allowed. The county taxes of the Council Bluffs field club for 1897 were remitted, the city council having taken like action.

The bill of the state auditor for the care of Pottawattamie county insane patients at Clarinda for the quarter ending June 30, amounting to $1,059.25, was ordered paid.

Dr. F. S. Thomas and A. T. Flickinger, members of the county board, were appointed a committee to go to Clarinda and inspect the county patients there. The license for peddlers doing business in the county was fixed as before, which is $25 a year for one horse wagon and $50 for two horse wagon.

A request from Day & Hess that the board take some steps to enforce the collection of taxes for the years 1894 to 1897 inclusive, said to be due by the Lake Maquoket Railway company was referred to the county treasurer.

The board decided that it had jurisdiction in the matter of the petition of Peter Von Wynsberger and Bruno Von Moorley and ordered the auditor to notify Robert Smith, 124 1/2 Broadway, in this city, to appear before the board and show cause why the petition should not be granted. The petitioners set up that the road supervisor has, in building a grade, virtually made a dam which obstructs a waterway and members of the board on the land on this board when the petition was presented was doubtful if it had authority in the premises and declined to take any action until advised by the county attorney.

The board adjourned yesterday evening until Thursday morning, September 22.

SOCIETY IN COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Looking for a man who doesn't like oysters is like the old saying, "Looking for a needle in a haystack." And speaking of oysters, there is one place in the city where you can always find them when in season. That's Sullivan's, the grocer. New York oysters, per quart, 50c; shrimps, 40c per quart; catfish, 12c at Sullivan's.

Klein's fruits still lead all others. He buys picked goods.

J. W. Deming used Cole's Hot Blast heater last winter.

Deaths of the Week Just Closed. The most important function in social circles in Council Bluffs during the last week was the luncheon given Thursday by Miss Genevieve Baldwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Baldwin, at the Grand hotel, in honor of her guest, Miss Louise Elbert of Des Moines. Covers were laid for twenty.

The Mr. John Morgan, Jr., was married to Miss Nellie McGinn in the presence of a large company of friends and relatives. Both the bride and groom are well known young people of this city, where they have resided since childhood and have many wishes for their future happiness.

The Misses Pauline and Blanche Soing, who have been visiting at the home of Henry Paschel on Willow avenue, left for their home in Hartington, Neb., Friday evening. Miss Elsie Loper of Sixth avenue left yesterday for a two month's visit with relatives in Avoca, Ia.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Franks of St. Joseph, Mo., are the guests of Captain and Mrs. Lee B. Cousins.

Mrs. Stella Griffith, who has been the guest of Captain and Mrs. L. B. Cousins while visiting the exposition, returned to her home in Glendon, Ia., yesterday.

Mrs. E. E. Helms, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. O. W. Butts, will return to her home in Chicago this evening.

Miss Bessie Bene left Friday for Lake Forest, Ill., where she enters Ferry Hall academy.

S. H. Foster returned yesterday from California.

Two Men Killed in a Wreck.

Disastrous Result of a Freight Collision on the Burlington.

OTTUMWA, Ia., Sept. 10.—(Special Telegram)—Two men are dead and one badly injured as the result of a freight wreck on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad at 7:20 p. m. at the small station of Tyrone, four miles west of here. The dead are:

ENGINEER GEORGE MANN. FIREMAN THOMAS MILLHOUSE. The injured man is the head brakeman, Haynes, the extent of his injuries being reported as not serious.

Both the dead men are men of families, residing in this city. The wreck is one of the most serious that has occurred in the time that has occurred on the east Iowa division of the Burlington road in many years. The train was an extra freight bound west. While just passing Tyrone and going at a fast rate the engine struck a bunch of cars about 7 o'clock from marlaine and twelve cars were piled up in a heap. The engine turned over and pinned both the unfortunate men under it, killing them almost instantly. A wrecking crew and physicians have just left this city for the scene of the catastrophe.
