

FAST TRAINS ARE NOW A FACT

Rock Island Road the Last to Put On a Flyer.

CARRIES BOTH MAIL AND PASSENGERS

Burlington and Northwestern Mail Trains Come in from Chicago, Both Beating the Schedule Time as Carded.

All railroads leading in and out of Omaha are being attacked with fast train spasms and the first month of 1899 will go down in the history of western lines as one in which more records were broken and more fast schedules introduced than for any years.

The Burlington and Northwestern flyers came in ahead of time again yesterday, having made their third race across the 500-mile stretch from Chicago to Omaha without a hitch.

The Northwestern arrived at 8:12, three minutes ahead of the schedule, and the Burlington reached the transfer at 7:50, five minutes before its schedule called for the arrival of the train.

Neither company had any special incidents of the trip to report and all employees in the operating departments of the two roads are as if a passenger every forty seconds consumed is an every-day affair.

But the event that is calculated to complicate matters in western railroad circles more than even the race against time between the Northwestern and the Burlington lines is the published plan of the Rock Island to bring a new train into Omaha carrying passengers as well as the eastern fast mail nearly two hours ahead of present passenger schedules between Omaha and Chicago.

Will Be a Flyer. Sunday night the Rock Island will start its train from Chicago at 7:55 o'clock, putting it into Omaha at 8 the next morning. This train will make connection enroute at Englewood with the Lake Shore and get its share of the fast mail, as well as bringing a passenger equipment along. The train will be the Chicago-Omaha flyer.

Other trains out of Chicago for the Missouri river points leave at 6 and 6:30, giving the Rock Island a clear lead of one hour and twenty-five minutes over present schedules of trains carrying passengers.

For a long time, by common consent, the Chicago-Omaha line has consumed fourteen and fifteen hours between Chicago and Omaha. No positive agreement on this time was ever in existence, but each company regarded a reduction in that time in the nature of a cut in rates and abstained from a change of schedule that would require faster time.

The representative of one Chicago-Omaha line said that his company would probably reduce the time of its regular Omaha evening train to meet the time of the proposed Rock Island train. Agent Rutherford of the Rock Island is very enthusiastic over the departure of his company and asserts that in future the Rock Island will be an active factor in the fast mail service between the east and west, as well as continuing in the bunch of leaders for fast passenger service.

It is no secret that each of these Chicago-Omaha lines can make this time with ease and a general reduction of the time of the passenger trains of those lines is likely to follow the Rock Island's change.

LIKELY TO BECOME GENERAL. Opinion that Fast Mail Trains Will Be on All Routes. The fast trains from the east brought in the biggest mail that has been carried since the new service was inaugurated. It was found necessary to put on a number of additional clerks to handle the mail out of Omaha. Three extras were added to the force of the Union Pacific and two to that of the Burlington.

It will not be surprising if something of this sort occurs on the lines between St. Paul and Chicago, and between St. Louis and various other terminal points. The west is whispered that the Northern Pacific is getting fixed to mix it up with the Union Pacific for the haul to the coast and although the prospects are for some lively times unless the roads decide to get together.

One effect of the new service is to secure an earlier delivery of registered mail in Omaha. The registered matter that has previously been delivered on the following morning is now delivered in the afternoon of the day on which it is received.

LARGELY A MATTER OF FORM. Corporations that Are Adjuncts to Union Pacific Elec. Co. A number of the Union Pacific adjuncts held their annual elections yesterday and went through the form of re-electing their old officers. In each case some individual cast all the proxies and the routine was not disturbed.

The Omaha & Republican Valley company and the Omaha & Elkhorn Valley company, two consolidated corporations, elected these directors: Winslow S. Pierce, Otto H. Kahn, E. H. Harriman, Lawrence Greer, W. D. Cornish and Horace Burt. They succeed the old directors of the Union Pacific railway company.

The Union Elevator company named the following directors: N. Merriam, W. D. Cornish and William Wallace of Omaha and Lawrence Greer, E. H. Harriman, Otto H. Kahn and Winslow Pierce of New York City. The New York men succeed the old Union Pacific officials, Mink, Anderson, Clark, Doane and Conder.

KIERSTEAD GAINS TWO VOTES

Result of the Re-count of Ballots in Commissioner Contest Does Not Result in Any Great Changes.

The recount of the Eighth ward in the Kierstead-Connelly election contest has been completed and notwithstanding the few changes Connelly's majority for the ward still remains seventy-seven. Connelly gained altogether five and lost eight, while Kierstead gained one and lost four, each suffering a net loss of three. The old figures were: Kierstead, 703; Connelly, 890. The new totals are: Kierstead, 706; Connelly, 877.

Judge Baxter noticed that there were a many ballots on which Connelly had received votes, but on which the straight republican ticket had been voted from top to bottom by the voter putting his cross in the circle at the head of the column. As the intention of the elector to vote for Connelly was considered as indicated, the judge held that the votes rightly belonged to him. There were no fustionist votes for Kierstead marked in this manner.

Kierstead's gain was in the Second precinct. He lost one in each of the Fourth and eighth and two in the Sixth. Connelly gained two in each of the First and sixth and one in the Fourth and his losses were three in the Second, two in each of the Third and Eighth and one in the Seventh.

The first two precincts of the Ninth ward were also re-counted. Connelly lost a vote in each. At the hour of adjournment this left a net total gain to Kierstead of two, allowing to Connelly the two votes in the First precinct of the Eighth ward, over which there is a dispute because of the discrepancy between the number of the ballots and the number of names on the poll book.

MAY BRING ABOUT DISCORD

Politicians Not All Pleased with the Selection of Assistants to County Attorney Shields.

The refusal of County Attorney Shields to appoint Thomas Lee as one of his assistants, it is said, will stir up some dissatisfaction. The Creighton-Smith end of the local democracy wanted young Lee to have the place, but the desire of the Jacksonian club was to have had the ponderance of influence. Dunn was the choice of the Jacksonian club. Mr. Lee for some time past had been telling his friends that he would get a deputyship and he has been industriously making a study of the duties required.

Mr. Shields is expected to have a fourth deputy in Lee Helsey if the county commissioners will allow it. It is the intention to have Helsey look after the work in the police court.

Shields hopes to get a fustionist in the place of Helsey. John Norberg, president of the Garfield Republican club, Norberg's position is that of a court bailiff. He has been used by the county attorney to look up evidence. An application has already been put in by Shields to have W. Gausala appointed to this position. Judge Schlaug has the ground that the appointment of the bailiff rests with the court.

Announcements. There are only three more opportunities to see colored minstrel bill that the Creighton-Orpheum theater is offering this week. If you miss these three chances you are missing one of the greatest dog and monkey acts ever exhibited in this country or any other country. Then, again, you miss the act of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Milton Royle, which is one of the cleverest bits seen here in many a day. In fact you will miss not seeing the entire bill the best bill ever shown at this theater and certainly you will miss seeing the children to miss the dog and monkey act Saturday afternoon. It will cost but a dime to show them a performance that is especially appealing to them. On Saturday night the dog and monkey act will open the performance, as Prof. Macarte has to leave for Kansas City at 10 o'clock on Saturday at the Orpheum theater three Sunday afternoon.

An impression prevails in the minds of some that the majority of the twenty people who will present the act "Clowns" which depicts the origin of the cakewalk, which opens at this theater Sunday afternoon, are from the east and are the pick of the best colored cakewalkers and artists. They were selected by E. E. Rice, the extraneous organizer and manager, who recently held at Madison Square Garden, New York, are the stars of the company. It is one of the most talked-of acts in the vaudeville field.

No dramatic creation for years has awakened such a furor of admiration and popular applause as Edmond Costello's "Grand Berenger," which will be put on next week at the Boyd theater by the Woodward company, which Mr. Wilson Ems in the title role. This production entails considerable expense above the ordinary production, owing to the size of the cast and the manner in which it is put on.

"Under the Red Robe" will be presented at the Boyd theater this evening by the identical company, led by Mr. William Morris, which carried this superb romance drama to an unprecedented success in New York. This piece will be the card also for Saturday and Sunday, with a matinee in the afternoon of each of the latter days.

Will Investigate Before Signing. Mayor Moore has not decided yet whether to sign the ordinance giving the Omaha Bridge and Terminal company the right to lay its tracks along Fourteenth street and across other streets to Eighth and Capitol avenue. He will go over the route which the company proposes, and if the damage will be done to property. Mayor Moore has not signed the ordinance giving twenty feet of Fourteenth street to the Omaha road, nor will he do so until he examines the records to see whether or not the line has reverted back to the city, as is claimed.

RESOLUTIONS ARE ADOPTED

Implement Dealers Decide Not to Buy of Houses Selling to Consumers.

CATALOGUE MEN ARE TO BE AVOIDED

Plan of Mutual Fire Insurance is Endorsed by the Convention and Officers for the Year Are Elected.

The implement dealers had a lively session Thursday in disposing of two or three items of business. The commission question, which occupied so much time Wednesday afternoon, came up again, but was left unsettled because of three proposed solutions of the matter, none of which could command a majority of the members of the association.

The report of the committee on resolutions attracted a large degree of attention because of the matters touched upon. The resolutions pledge the members of the association not to buy goods of any wholesale house which sells direct to consumers, nor are they to handle any goods put out by those houses; men who deal with catalogue houses are to be published and avoided in business relations, and the principle of mutual fire insurance is endorsed.

The grievance committee made a report which involved lengthy debate. It seems that one of the Omaha wholesalers has been detected in retailing wholesaler goods at wholesale prices and the association demands that the house pay the commission to the nearest dealer or into the treasury of the association. This question will be referred to the Board of Directors to settle after the final adjournment of the annual meeting.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, C. O. Shumway of Lyons, Neb.; Vice President, J. E. Skadan of Missouri, Ia.; director for two years, J. B. Romans of Denison, Ia.; for three years, W. D. Gould of Hartington, Neb. The other officers will be chosen by the Board of Directors.

Topics Under Discussion.

Following the election of officers there was a program of short talks on various subjects. The first talk was by J. B. Staver of Chicago. The speaker sought to impress upon the retailers the fact that they must learn to face the evils in their business. Instead of trying to overcome them by resolving that they are bad, he said the retailer is largely responsible for the existence of catalogue houses, in that they are in the habit of taking too much of a profit on their goods. He argued that the best way to kill off an undesirable competitor is to ignore him and give support to one's own trade. He said the retailer can buy goods and sell them at a profit and yet compete with the catalogue houses, which he insisted have come to stay and are backed by ample capital.

C. C. Wright, who has a fine credit, said that retailers must do business on credit. Credit is based on confidence in the honesty of the dealer and in the community. The standard of honesty being shown year after year. He urged the retailer to ignore him and give support to one's own trade. He said the retailer can buy goods and sell them at a profit and yet compete with the catalogue houses, which he insisted have come to stay and are backed by ample capital.

Major W. R. Graham, assistant paymaster, who has been attached to this department for the last two months, has gone to Washington and New York enroute to his new station in Havana. The major is one of the best appointments, his home being in Iowa. He received orders to report to General Lee at Havana, and will serve under Major Smith, chief paymaster. After a short visit at Washington he will go to New York, from which point he will sail.

The condition at Fort Crook is still crowded and inconvenient. It is not believed now that any portion of the troops here will be transferred to another post, though it is expected the regiment may be ordered at any time to move to the Philippines. The opinion is expressed in headquarters that one battalion of the regiment may be embarked on the transport Ohio, which is now due at San Francisco.

Second Lieutenant William F. Creary of the Second infantry, who has just been promoted first lieutenant in the Tenth infantry, is in the city visiting his mother and sister. He will leave today for Jefferson barracks to join his regiment and his mother and sister will accompany him there and also to the Philippines.

SMALLPOX AT NEBRASKA CITY

Dr. Crummer Requested to Report the Conditions to Authorities at Washington.

The papers have contained so much concerning the smallpox at Nebraska City that it has finally reached the Washington authorities and Dr. B. F. Crummer has received a letter from Surgeon General Wyman of the Marine service, calling his attention to reports in Kansas City and Omaha of the situation in the eastern part of the state. Dr. Crummer has gone to Lincoln to hold another consultation, as the mayor of Nebraska City has asked for advice or a suggestion as to the best means to employ to keep the farmers living near that point from exposing themselves to the disease.

The attention of the city authorities was called to Jesse Layton at 311 South Eleventh street this morning, as it was believed that he had smallpox. It was found to be nothing more than the measles.

ONLY ONE CHANGE IS MADE

Pacific Express Company Holds Its Annual Election, But Succeeding Mink as Vice President.

The Pacific Express company held its annual directors meeting Thursday afternoon. There was no change in the old officers except the election of President Burt of the Union Pacific to fill the position of vice president, made vacant by the resignation of Oliver Mink, some time since. It was generally expected that James Moore, an eastern expert who has been employed in the offices several weeks, would be designated as auditor on this occasion, but such was not the case.

The officers elected are: James Eggleston, president; H. G. Burt, vice president; W. R. Carter, secretary and treasurer; E. B. Fryor, St. Louis, Directors, E. G. Merriam, St. Louis; S. B. Schuyler, St. Louis; E. T. Clapp, St. Louis; E. Young, Omaha.

NEWS FOR THE ARMY MEN Orders for the Twentieth Infantry to Start for the Philippines Have Been Received.

Orders were issued to the Twentieth infantry late Wednesday from the War department to leave Fort Leavenworth, on Wednesday next week for San Francisco. Upon its arrival in that city the regiment will go on board the transport Scandia at once, which is expected to sail about January 15.

Under this arrangement the first battalion of the regiment will leave Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock over the Burlington, the second battalion two hours later over the Rock Island and the third battalion at 11 o'clock Wednesday afternoon over the Missouri Pacific. With the third battalion goes the headquarters and band of the regiment. This division of time is necessary to provide for a proper embarkation of the command. The first battalions will meet in St. Paul, Minn., at 3 o'clock on Wednesday.

The regiment will be paid before its departure from Fort Leavenworth. The pay sent for and are expected by every man. Major Monaghan, who has been assigned the duty of paying off this post, hopes to get the rolls extended in time for him to leave Omaha Saturday night for Fort Leavenworth. As the regiment's force in this department is short of help just now the major will have to pay the Twentieth regiment and the four troops of cavalry which are now at this fort without assistance.

STOPS A STOCK TRANSFER

Passing of Kelley's Membership in South Omaha Live Stock Exchange is Enjoined.

Another restraining order pending a final hearing has been granted William Kelley and against the South Omaha Live Stock exchange and John Sullivan to prevent the transfer of Kelley's membership in the exchange to John Ralston.

According to a rule of the exchange if at certain date a member still has outstanding obligations due to other members, his certificate of membership may be declared forfeited and sold. Kelley had endorsed a note to Sullivan, but urged that it was compromised by the payment of a sum smaller than its face value. Sullivan had the note brought before the exchange and Kelley's membership was about to be transferred to Ralston, a third party, when the suit was brought.
