

SULTAN'S LION THE VICTOR

Wins Four Falls from Baldwin and Hillbrand with Ease.

DOES IT IN LESS THAN HALF AN HOUR

Omaha's Strong Pollockman, However, Gives the Turk a Little Tussle—Rather Tame Boxing Matches—Wind Up the Entertainment.

Hal Adali, alias "The Sultan's Lion," mingled with a couple of Omaha heavyweight wrestlers on the mat at Creighton hall last night and brought them to the conclusion that he marks in the wrestling line. Dan Baldwin, the heavy policeman, and Jack Hillbrand, the German Sandow, were the victims of the gorilla-shaped and bullet-headed Turk and they met their fate in little less than one-half the scheduled time. Adali was to have thrown each man on both shoulders in an hour and he performed his task in exactly twenty-eight minutes and fifty seconds without turning a hair.

But although there was never any doubt that his two opponents were nothing more than chieftain pieces in the fight for the burly Mussulman, the event was interesting enough. It was worth the price of admission alone to watch the big Turk scoop his plucky contestants with the falls that swung from his shoulders and then lie down upon them with his eighth-of-a-ton weight until they were willing to throw out the banner of defeat. A crowd that absolutely filled every bit of space in the hall witnessed the performance. Lew Houseman, acting as the director of the scene.

Of the two who tackled the Turkish colossus, Dan Baldwin alone succeeded in giving the crowd a chance to whip it up. He was strong enough to have withstood the Turk's attention, but he was unable to bear up under the burden of flesh and bone for a time at least. His agility enabled him to slip away from a number of (lethal) situations, too, particularly in his second and third rounds, and he was able to escape the crowd howling their horses. Dan also essayed once to take the offensive, but the Turk shook him off his back as a duck would water. Adali won the two falls from the policeman in the time of one hour and twenty-five minutes and eleven minutes and twenty-five seconds respectively, both times through the medium of a half Nelson.

MEAT RATION UNFIT FOR USE IN TROPICS

At Its Best It Is Unpalatable and at Its Worst Unbearable—The Refrigerated Article Said to Be Much Better.

NEW YORK, March 25.—The army court of inquiry, investigating the charges made by General Miles that the beef furnished the soldiers in the Cuban campaign was unfit for use, convened in this city today. Before the hearing began Major Lee said he believed Governor Roosevelt would be the only witness heard. The court is expected to adjourn to Governor's mansion to hear the testimony of officers of the Thirteenth infantry, stationed there. Any other witnesses will probably be called to Washington, where the court sits again on Monday.

Upon his arrival Governor Roosevelt shook hands with several members of the court and then took the stand, after Colonel Davis had administered the oath. The governor described the organization of the Rough Riders at San Antonio, Tex., and told of the issuance of rations.

"I was the first complaint you heard of the rations?" asked Colonel Davis. "May I answer that in my own way?" asked the governor. "Well, it was aboard ship at Tampa. I saw a man—I think his name was Ash. I know he came from Kentucky—throwing away a can of the so-called roast beef. I asked what was the matter and he said he could not eat it. I thought he might be a good time and ought to be able to take what came. I thought no more of the matter until I heard that complaints were being made on all sides. Then I made inquiries and was told that the roast beef was part of the regular ration and that only the volunteers were complaining. I spoke to Colonel Wood about it and he said it was the regular ration. I tried a mouthful or two myself, but I could not eat it."

SOUTH OMAHA NEWS

A mass meeting of citizens and members of the South Omaha Commercial club was held at the council chamber last night for the purpose of discussing the Prout bill, which passed the senate yesterday. This bill pertains to the withdrawal from the municipality of the stock yards and packing houses. The sense of the meeting was expressed in the following resolution:

Resolved, That as taxpayers and citizens we have all the advantages of city taxation have all the advantages of the stock yards and packing houses. The sense of the meeting was expressed in the following resolution: Whereas, A bill has recently passed the senate, known as S. P. No. 279, otherwise known as the Prout bill; and Whereas, By the provisions of said bill parties owning real estate in a city may at any time withdraw from the same for the purpose of escaping the payment of municipal taxes by an application to the district court and without the consent of the city; therefore, in order to protect and preserve the best interests of the city, we resolve that we will oppose the passage of said bill.

Few Complaints Are Made.

Governor Roosevelt spoke of the issue of the canned beef in Cuba and said that although he did not like the beef and his men would not eat it, he never heard any one say it was an "unfit ration."

City Campaigns in Nebraska. KEARNEY, Neb., March 25.—(Special.)—At the last meeting of the city council it was decided to submit the question of license and anti-liquor to the voters at the April election. It is generally conceded that the republican nominee will be aided by the voice of the people as expressed at the polls. In three wards candidates are out on petition. They are: William Faye in the First ward, James C. Boyd in the Second ward, and Robert Schickel in the Fourth. The Anti-Saloon league is supporting the republican nominees.

Boy Accidentally Shot. WATFORD, Neb., March 25.—(Special Telegram)—Roy McClintock, a lad whose parents live in the south portion of town, was accidentally killed while out hunting this afternoon. It seems that he had sat down on one of the large stones forming the western abutment of the Union Pacific bridge just east of town and while in the act of setting his gun down it was accidentally discharged. His left thumb must have been over the muzzle at the time, as the bullet was blown off the head, tearing a portion of the back away. Death must have been instantaneous, as the body lay back in a natural position. His head was found several feet from the spot where he shot. The coroner was notified, but there were no indications other than of an accidental death. The parents took charge of the remains.

PLATE ON A RAMPAGE

HASTINGS, Neb., March 25.—The Plate river at Doniphan is reported out of its bed and is threatening the water works along the tracks of the St. Joseph & Grand Island railroad. The northbound passenger train on that road is delayed here on account of the endangered bridges. A heavy snow storm is in progress here tonight, two inches of snow having fallen since 6 o'clock this evening.

ICE BRIDGE IS ABANDONED

NIORARA, Neb., March 25.—(Special.)—The last heavy loads crossed the ice on the Missouri river here yesterday, the melting snow causing the ice to float and making the approaches on the river banks impassable. It was estimated that a flood will follow the late cold weather, and that in the lowlands are watching the movements of the river ready to get to safe quarters in time.

EL CANEY REPRODUCED

WYMORE, Neb., March 25.—(Special.)—"El Caney" is the title of a play which will be produced here by local talent in the near future. The play will take its characters from the participants of the late war and contains a clever plot. The cast includes several soldiers who were enlisted in Nebraska regiments, among them J. V. Craig, who recently came home from Manila.

This does NOT apply to watches repaired or sold by COFFEY, the jeweler. He is very CAREFUL to TEST all watches before HE allows them to depart from his counter care. They MUST look over the TRUTH—they must be NEAT and STYLISH in appearance. And his prices are VERY REASONABLE. He is NOT selling them below COST nor has any JOBS LOTS—but if you want a reliable honest watch with a good guarantee behind it, GO TO COFFEY. Will cost nothing to investigate. Services were held at the home of Mrs. George Chase, 2306 N. Street, instead of at Mrs. Banner's, as previously announced.
