SITES FOR A HIGH SCHOOL.

Twenty-One Locations from Which a Selection May Be Made.

PROPOSALS FILED WITH SECRETARY ROSS.

Bids Are to Be Opened Next Tuesday Evening, When the Board of Education Holds its Meeting.

When the Board of Education meets Tuesday evening to decide on a location for the new high school building it will have before it twenty-one sites to select from, that number of proposals having been filed with Secretary Ross. Many of the properties offered will form excellent sites for a high school, being centrally located and affording ample ground for a building such as the board contemplates erecting.

As all the proposals are sealed no information can be secured as to the price at which the properties are offered, but this will not be a big figure when the board comes to make a selection. All the sites of the sites offered have been looked over by the members of the board none of them have expressed any preference and all decline to do so until the meeting Tuesday night. The sites are as follows:

Part of lot 5, Jackson's addition, situated immediately north of Third street and east of Third street, with frontage of 175 feet on Third street and either 200 or 300 feet on Story street as may be desired.

A tract east of lot 1, being lot 2, or the south 200 feet of out lot Folsom, having a frontage on Park avenue of 200 feet and being on east side of said street.

A tract across the street east from the John T. Stewart residence, having a frontage on Bluff street and on Third street of 208 feet, and on Fifth avenue of 215 feet.

The J. L. Stewart homestead with a frontage of 150 feet on Story street and 125 feet on Fourth street.

The old Folsom homestead, being lots 1, 2 and 3, in the subdivision of out lot 1, Jackson's addition. This ground lies immediately west of present high school site and has a frontage on Third street of 237 feet, a frontage on High School avenue of 355 feet, its south line is 560 feet in length.

The north part of out lot 1, Jackson's addition, having a frontage on Third street of 150 feet and a frontage on High School avenue of 343 feet.

The old R. P. Snow homestead, being lots 15 to 20, inclusive, of the subdivision, having a frontage of 201 feet on Bluff and Fourth streets and 115 feet on Fifth avenue.

The west part of lot 12, Keller's subdivision west part lot 228, original plat, having a frontage of 200 feet on Bluff street and running east 200 feet deep. This is situated between the Wallace residence and St. Peter's Catholic church.

The H. D. Harle homestead on Fifth avenue and Seventh street, with a frontage of 112 feet on Fifth avenue and 180 feet on Seventh street.

Lots 1, 2, 3, 4 and 8, block 5, Jeffries' subdivision, situated at the southeast corner of Fifth avenue and Seventh street, having a frontage on Seventh street of 181 feet and 100 on Fifth avenue, including the alley, which is twelve feet.

Lots 4 to 10, inclusive, block 15, Hyatt's subdivision, situated at the southeast corner of Seventh street and Eighth avenue, having a frontage of 131 feet on Seventh street and 284 feet on Eighth avenue.

Lots 4 to 9, inclusive, block J. Curtis & Ramsey's addition, situated on the west side of Seventh street between Sixth and Seventh avenues, having a frontage, including alley on Ninth street, of 272 feet and 165 feet on Sixth and Seventh avenues.

Lots 4, 5, 6 and 7, block E. Curtis & Ramsey's addition, situated at the northeast corner of Sixth avenue and Eighth street, having a frontage on Eighth street of 135 feet and 177 on Sixth avenue.

The W. C. James homestead, having a frontage of 144 feet on South Eighth street and 200 feet on Third avenue.

The Woodbury and Battin lots on First avenue and Seventh street, having a frontage of 160 feet on First avenue and 192 feet on Seventh street.

The P. A. Bly homestead at Second avenue and Tenth street, with 130 feet on Tenth street and 132 feet on Second avenue. In connection with this bid is offered the two lots adjoining, comprising the D. B. Dingley homestead, having a frontage on Second avenue of 132 feet. The aggregate frontage on Second avenue of the four lots in this bid is 264 feet.

The Maynard homestead on Washington avenue, next to corner of Sixth street, 200 feet.

SOCIETY HAS ANOTHER BUSY WEEK. Entertainments and Parties Help to While the Time Away.

The Calico Carnival given at the Grand Army of the Republic hall by the Women's Relief corps of Abe Lincoln post Friday evening was in every way a success. The costumes, to begin with, were decidedly fetching. The women all wore calico gowns and the men calico neckties. Eight members of the post distinguished themselves by their extremely elaborate neckwear, each one wearing eight yards of calico, which was afterward presented to the relief corps. Much fun was had finding partners by matching bits of calico. After that the entire company diligently sewed carpet rags. Miss Cora Getzler gave several recitations. Refreshments were served, everything on a bill of fare commencing with the letter O. The rest of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Jackson were delightfully surprised by about twenty of their friends Friday evening, the occasion being their 20th wedding anniversary. The evening was very pleasantly spent with cards and music. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson were the recipients of a very handsome plaque, Judge Walter I. Smith making the presentation speech. All of the guests were members of the Eastern Star.
