PEACE CONGRESS DELEGATES

President Has the Selection of American Representatives Under Consideration.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The president has under consideration the naming of delegates to the czar's disarmament congress, which is to be held at The Hague, beginning May 15 next. Since the congress is to meet at The Hague, it is expected that the Netherlands government will issue invitations to the various powers, offering the official courtesies of the capital. Until then the names of the delegates may not be announced.

There has been little discussion in official quarters of individual names. The selection of Sir Julian Pauncefote as one of the delegates—largely because of his service in negotiating the Olney-Pauncefote treaty—has led to the mention of Mr. Olney's name as a possible American delegate. Another mentioned is that of John Bassett Moore, assistant secretary of state under Judge Day, and one of the moving figures in the recent peace negotiations with Spain. Mr. Moore's name comes up through his literary contributions to the subject of disarmament. He has recently completed a treatise on arbitration, comprising several volumes, published by the government, which is said to be the most exhaustive treatment of the subject ever attempted. The understanding also is that it would be agreeable to the friends of Archbishop Ireland if that eminent Catholic prelate were appointed. At first it was thought that Ambassador Charlemagne Tower might be designated to go from St. Petersburg to attend the congress, but this may be given up as appearing rather a perfunctory recognition of the czar's invitation.

The British delegates have not been announced, but Sir Julian Pauncefote will be one of them, and the other may be of even higher rank than ambassador. In case the continental powers select their foremost men Great Britain, it is understood, will likewise select from those who have been ministers of foreign affairs and heads of cabinets. In that event it is surmised in unofficial but trustworthy quarters that Sir Julian's associate at the congress might be Lord Rosebery, who headed the liberal ministry when Gladstone put aside the leadership.

WOLVERINE DEMOCRATS EAT

Many Speakers Play Alive Capitalistic Greed and the Administration's War Policy.

DETROIT, March 30.—Four hundred Detroit democrats, with a considerable number of ladies, enjoyed tonight the third annual banquet of the Mohawk club, the leading silver democratic organization of Michigan.

The large auditorium of the Harmonic club house, in which the dinner was served, was gay with patriotic decorations. Letters of regret from Bryan and others were read, with a telegram from Congressman J. Hamilton Lewis of Washington, who was to have been one of the speakers. He stated that he had just returned to Washington, D. C., from Cuba, and was ill with jungle fever.

Hon. T. E. Tarsney, president of the club, introduced Mayor Maybury as toastmaster. In his opening remarks the mayor paid his respects to the trusts by saying that he was ever so dangerous to the people's interests as the capitalistic greed which is eliminating today, when great aggregations of capital are seeking to lower cost of production, particularly at the expense of the laborer. The mayor predicted that the time is coming when the advantages being taken for the enrichment of the few will be turned to the benefit of the many.

Hon. Thomas E. Barkworth, democratic candidate for justice of the supreme court (the bench which is occupied wholly by republicans), responded to the toast, "Partisanship and the Judiciary: Are They Always Separable?"

Mr. Barkworth said that real partisanship is the devotion of freedom and democracy to ideas in an autocracy. The contest of ideas is fruitful of progress; minorities are not merely protests, but active factors in the control of affairs. Entire separation of the judiciary from the executive and legislative is neither desirable nor desirable. Partisanship is as commendable in a judge as in a citizen, but some manifestations of its power are reprehensible, both in home and foreign. A tolerant partisan is not in danger of denying to others the right to fight for himself. But intolerance is always and everywhere a menace to liberty. The cornerstone of democracy is none too secure. The old time prejudice against manhood suffrage is now wholly destroyed.

There is no trend of popular thought away from self-government. Only those gratified with privileges invidiously granted are restive under its restrictions. By all views known to us, the people are being lulled into fancied security those whom they would enslave. Courts are not just to their pleadings and these pleadings are encouraged by their mandates. Courts are but approximation to an apparatus which is a bipartisan one. If some practical plan could be devised to preserve its permanency in every court of last resort greater respect would be paid to their decisions. The chief justice of the supreme court, who has been reached it will not be through partisan actions of an intelligent people.

The principal address of the evening was the response by Congressman John J. Lentz of Ohio to the sentiment, "Reform and Truism First, and the Philippines Afterward."

Other responses were those to "American Liberty," by Charles S. Hampton, secretary of the democratic state committee, and "The Enhancement of the Trust," by Stanley R. Parkhill, candidate for regent of Michigan university.

KANSAS DEMOCRATS FEAST

Leaders of the Southwest Touch Upon the Party Policies for 1900.

BRYAN DENOUNCES MILITARISM AND TRUSTS

Declaration is Made that Democrats Who Got Out of the Field Are Being "Fought Back Again"—Other Speakers.

TOPEKA, Kan., March 30.—The Democratic convention and banquet under the auspices of the democratic state central committee was held in this city this evening. Prominent speakers, including Governor William J. Stone of Missouri, William J. Bryan of Nebraska, Champ Clark of Missouri, Allen O. Myers of Ohio and Sidney Clark of Oklahoma, were present. Covers were laid for more than 1,000 guests. The new library hall, where the banquet was held, presented a brilliant scene with thousands of incandescent lights and decorations of natural roses, flags and bright colored bunting.

The meeting was in the nature of a conference of the democratic leaders, the policy of the party in the campaign of 1900 being touched upon. Mr. Bryan himself was given the most prominent place, his subject being "Democracy."

Mr. Bryan stood out squarely for the Chicago platform and said that there had been no retreat from the positions taken in 1896. "We are not only holding our own," he declared, "but we are gaining back those democrats who left us when we fully understood the nature of the struggle."

"Sometimes we hear pleas for harmony from those who opposed the party in 1896," continued Mr. Bryan, "but harmony, instead of being a thing hoped for is at last a thing realized. It is a pretended harmony between those who are united in their principles, but an actual harmony between those who are united in a common purpose against a common enemy. The democratic party was never more harmonious and its harmony can only be disturbed by admitting within its fold those who are at variance with its principles and aspirations."

Adhere to the Platform of '96. "The democratic platform of 1900 will be written by those who stood upon the platform of 1896, not by those who tried to overthrow the democratic party in that campaign."

"The failure which attended those who organized the gold party and wrote the Indianapolis platform ought to restrain them from proffering their services as platform makers for some years to come."

Mr. Bryan declared that events have been vindicating the policies proposed by the democratic party in 1896. He passed on to the subject of trusts and characterized them as the products of republican methods. He gave this warning: "If the republican party goes into the next campaign upon a platform defending the trusts it will antagonize sentiments which are rapidly growing against them, even in the ranks of that party."

Mr. Bryan closed with a denunciation of militarism and what he termed the tendency of the present administration toward imperialism. He said: "The republican party came into existence in an attempt to apply the Declaration of Independence to the black man; it seems likely to go out of existence for its refusal to apply the same principles to a brown man—only half black."

Champ Clark of Bowling Green, Mo., had for his subject "Prosperity—Past, Present and Future."

The toast responded to by Sidney Clark of Oklahoma City was "Oklahoma, the Next Star in the Flag of the Union."

HOWLING SPRING BLIZZARD

Middle West is Treated to Another Touch of Winter Weather.

IOWA HAS A FOOT OF SNOW IN PLACES Missouri is Touched Up, Kansas Has Two Feet of the Beautiful and Some Snow Falls in Nebraska.

BURLINGTON, Ia., March 30.—(Special Telegram.)—For the first time this year the street cars in Burlington were unable to run on account of a terrific snowstorm which began for over fifteen hours, beginning at midnight last night. Over a foot of snow has fallen and in places the drifts are several feet high. The storm was accompanied by a high wind and severe old weather. Coming unexpectedly it is causing much suffering to unprotected stock and to poor families in the city. Business was suspended all day. Railroad trains had much difficulty in keeping to the schedules.

LAMONT, Ia., March 30.—A snowstorm commenced here last evening about 9 o'clock and continued until noon today, covering the ground to a depth of four inches.

MUSCATINE, Ia., March 30.—A heavy snowstorm has been in progress during the last twenty-four hours, delaying trams and tying up the street railways. The storm subsided this evening.

QUINCY, Ill., March 30.—One of the worst snowstorms for years raged here today. Six or seven inches have fallen and street cars and other traffic is blocked.

Wild Weather in Missouri. KANSAS CITY, March 30.—The snow which had fallen successively here since midnight, accompanied by a strong north wind and a falling temperature.

Reports from the southwest indicate that the storm is general and exceeds in severity that of Wednesday, which was a record breaker. Chillsie reports the worst snow storm in northern Missouri in many years, with a fall already exceeding a foot in depth on the level and the storm still raging.

Atchison, Kan., reports heavy snow from there to Omaha, which is being drifted by a strong wind.

The Missouri Pacific, expecting blockades, have equipped engines at different points with snow plows. That road reports from six to twelve inches of snow from Atchison to Greenleaf, and two feet at Blue Rapids and Waterville, Kan. At Leavenworth street car traffic has been impeded.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., March 30.—One of the worst snow storms of the season has been raging here since last night. The wind is blowing and the snow is so badly drifted that street cars have been unable to run. Railroad trains are irregular and some have been abandoned. The temperature is 72 degrees. The storm is the worst experienced here in many years so late in the season.

Heavy Snow in Chicago. CHICAGO, March 30.—This afternoon and evening Chicago was visited by a heavier snowstorm than prevailed at any time during the regular winter months. The snow, although not over four inches on the level, was badly drifted by a forty-mile wind, which drove it through the downtown streets in clouds. During the late afternoon several

STATISTICAL TRADE CONDITIONS

Business Outlook Improves as Political Disturbances Settle.

LONDON, March 30.—The statist this week takes an optimistic view of the business outlook here and in America. It points out that the activity of trade throughout the world is due to calmer political conditions, and referring to America, says: "Speaking broadly, the world is feeling marvellously and is likely to continue to grow unless the new crops prove very bad indeed, or something altogether unforeseen."

There is more uncertainty respecting the probable course of the money market than politics or trade. The probability appears to be that there will be no such rise in rates in the New York market as will lead to the shipment of much gold from Europe to the United States before summer. Of course, the rate of interest in the United States is not quite redressed. The United States is still employing money in Europe, especially in Germany, and that money can be withdrawn whenever it seems desirable, but it is not probable that money will become so dear in New York that it will be recalled to Europe. Money is now employed from Germany and ship them across within the next few months. It will be different when the crops begin to be moved. If money continues to be controlled in Germany on anything like the scale it is now employed it will be withdrawn when rates the much and Germany will be compelled to draw from England and France and later, if the stringency in New York increases, gold may be shipped from Europe in considerable amounts.

CAST-OFF SISTER OF A BARONESS

Story of Wretched Neglect is Told in London Police Court.

LONDON, March 29.—A woman, accompanied by a pretty 3-year-old girl, applied at the New Street police court today for assistance. She said that three years ago the Baroness de Euphras, alleged to be a relative of the late Empress of Austria, brought to the applicant's home a young woman 16 years of age, who the baroness said, was her sister. Later the latter was confined near St. James' Park with the nurse. The girl's mother and sisters, who, according to the applicant, were living in an expensive house in the west end of London, refused to take the child and told the nurse to send it to a foundling hospital or do what she liked with it. The applicant, however, was not willing to accept the child, and a paper and kept it. But now, she (the nurse) was in such straitened circumstances that she was unable to keep it any longer.

The applicant also said that when the lady was a year old the family went to San Francisco, where the applicant knew the family lived.

The judge advised the nurse to write to the parents of the child and to notify them that if they did not support it the child must be sent to the workhouse.

SOCIALISM AMONG WORKMEN

Authorities Fear that it is Becoming a Power in Russia.

VIENNA, March 31.—The Arbeiter Zeitung announces that it has obtained from a Russian newspaper a secret report made by the chief of the Moscow police to the governor of Moscow, giving details as to the spread of socialism among the workmen there, due to socialist activity in labor disputes. The police reports, it seems, prove that socialism is becoming a real power in Russia and suggest as a remedy that the workers should be placed under strict police surveillance.

American Fleet to Sail from Kingston KINGSTON, Jamaica, March 30.—The American fleet, which sailed from the harbor at daylight for La Guayra, Venezuela, with the exception of the training ship Essex.

The sailors who were wounded in the fighting among themselves ashore are recovering.

The Atlas line steamer Allegheny, Captain Lowe, which touched here on the way from Port Limon tonight, reports that one of the passengers, Louis Muller of New York, bound for that city, committed suicide this morning for some unknown reason.

FRANCE PROPOSES TO RAISE CUSTOMS

PARIS, March 30.—It was proposed at yesterday's meeting of the customs commission to raise the duties on certain articles.

The minister of commerce, however, opposed the increase on the ground that the taxation of articles of American produce would interfere with the negotiations in progress between the United States and France. He urged the commission to postpone a decision in the matter until the close of negotiations, remarking that he expected these would result in an agreement beneficial to French commerce.

Admit the Word of Don Carlos. LONDON, March 31.—The marquis di Corralbo, the chief agent of Don Carlos, has gone to Venice, according to a despatch to the Daily Graphic from Paris, to report to the pretender and receive his final instructions.

The Graphic's correspondent says that the Carlists claim to have abundant funds and ammunition and to be confident of success in the present campaign. They claim the signal for the overthrow of the Alphonse dynasty.

Chinese Attack German Officers. KAO CHAU, March 24.—(Via Shanghai, March 30.) The reputation of the Chinese navy (the bench which is occupied wholly by republicans), responded to the toast, "Partisanship and the Judiciary: Are They Always Separable?"

Boy Returns Promptly After a Trip of Several Thousand Miles.

LONDON, March 30.—William Thomas Jagers, the British messenger boy who was recently sent from London by Richard Harding Davis to deliver messages ahead of the mails to friends of Mr. Davis in New York, Philadelphia and Chicago, arrived in this city on his return trip at 10 o'clock this morning, some hours before the mails of the American line steamer St. Louis, in which vessel Jagers sailed from New York, were delivered. Mr. Davis and a party of friends awaited the messenger at Waterloo railroad station and presented Jagers with a silver medal inscribed "Richard Harding Davis to William Thomas Jagers."

TEXANS TACTICS ENACTED ON FLOOR OF BELGIUM PARLIAMENT

BRUSSELS, March 30.—There were some exciting scenes in the Chamber of Deputies in connection with the discussion of the recent expulsion from Belgium of a former priest named Charbonnel, a native of France, whose lectures on socialism the authorities considered objectionable.

The socialist members interpellated the government and the rightist deputies attempted to close the debate. This led to violent socialist protests, during which the speakers attacked the king and government generally, leading to much uproar. Eventually the president of the chamber declared the sitting closed and the socialists and leftists in a body rushed toward the rightists, flourishing their fists.

Though actual fighting was avoided the uproar was deafening. The most abusive epithets were shouted and the chairman ordered the galleries to be cleared. Thereupon the spectators appealed to the socialists, who told them to remain. This caused some of the spectators to resist the ushers and soldiers had to be summoned to clear the galleries, resulting in a series of exciting conflicts.

Meanwhile the deputies on the floor continued to vituperate, but the house was eventually cleared and the sitting was suspended for an hour, during which M. Bethune, a member of the right, and M. Journeux, socialist, exchanged challenges to fight a duel.

AN EXPLANATION

San Francisco Examiner: "John" said the funny man's wife interined, "did you write this horrid mother-in-law joke in the Weekly Snicker?"

"Yes, my dear," replied John humbly, "but—"

"Well, I think you are just too mean for anything. I have my mother always treated for you like her own son."

"Yes, love, I know she has, but then—"

"I don't try to excuse myself. If I had ever supposed you capable of such baseness, I never should have married her. I don't see how you will be able to look her in the face when you are getting into bed."

"You don't understand," said John despondently. "She told me that joke herself, and it will tickle her to death to see it in print."
