BOARD FILES ITS ANSWER

Another Feature Added to the High School Injunction Suit.

PURCHASE OF ONE OF THE SITES ADMITTED

Motion to Dissolve Temporary Restraining Order is Filed, the Allegation Being that Proper Notice Was Not Given.

The answer of the Board of Education to the injunction suit brought against it by Slack Peterson was filed Saturday in the district court. A motion to dissolve the temporary restraining order issued by Judge Green was also filed. The board in its answer, after admitting that the Oakland avenue property had been purchased as a site for the new high school and that a contract for the grading had been entered into, gives its reasons for desiring to pay the purchase price of the property out of the school house fund instead of out of the proceeds of the sale of the bonds. The election at which the bond proposition was voted and all subsequent proceedings relative to the board locating the school building are referred to at length. The grounds on which the motion for the dissolution of the restraining order is made are practically the same as those contained in the answer and on which a dismissal of the suit is asked. In addition the board alleges that the restraining order was made without notice being served on it. Try Klein's summer drinks. BUSY WEEK IN THE SOCIAL CIRCLES.

Many Weddings Celebrated During the Merry Month of May. One of the prettiest weddings of the early May season was celebrated Wednesday evening at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie on the Chautauqua road when their daughter, Miss Grace Elizabeth, was united in marriage to Mr. Shirley Brooks Prouty, Elder F. A. Smith of Lamoni, Ia., performed the ceremony. The bride was exquisite in a gown of white bengaline silk with bodice of liberty silk. She carried bride's roses. Mrs. Edward Hess, as matron of honor, looked charming in a toilet of lavender with garniture of red roses. Mr. Hess acted as best man. The parlor and library were profusely decorated in red roses and carnations. The bridal party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march and stood before a bank of palms with festooning of smilax and red carnations overhead. During the service the orchestra played softly the "Angela Serenade." A delightfully informal reception following the ceremony was held. Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hess assisted in receiving. The dining room was most artistic in pink roses and carnations. Miss Jacobs and Miss Williamson were assisted by the Misses Allworth, Lyons and Hepford, all of whom were gowned in pink in perfect harmony with the decorations. The presents displayed in the hallway on the second floor were numerous and beautiful. During the evening Miss Doris Gray and Miss Wagner of Omaha favored the guests with vocal solos. Mr. and Mrs. Prouty left amid a shower of violets and rice for an extended trip through the south. They cleverly eluded a number of young folks who had gathered at the depot to give them an appropriate farewell. Among the out of town guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Lloyd Prouty, O. S. Hubbard, Mr. Lovejoy, Misses Wagner, Ida and Otto Wagner. A pretty home wedding was celebrated Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Carse, when the daughter, Miss Jennie D. Carse, and Mr. Walter Charles Potts of Omaha were married. The nuptials were performed by Rev. J. M. Willson of Omaha. The bride was lovely in a gown of white over cream silk. She carried a bouquet of lilacs of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. A. J. Paul, and Mr. Paul acted as best man. After the ceremony a collation was served. In the parlor where the bridal party stood pink and white carnations with festooning of smilax and white ribbon were effectively used. The back parlor and dining room were prettily decorated in white and green, the tables being daintily in hyacinths and ferns. A number of beautiful presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Potts will be at home to their friends after May 15 at Twenty-fifth and Corby streets, Omaha. Mr. Samuel Bowley of Denver, Colo., and Miss Emma L. Carothers were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Henry Robinson, 412 Broadway, Rev. Phelps of Omaha, of whose congregation Mr. Bowley was formerly a member, officiated. Only relatives witnessed the ceremony. The bride was stately in a handsome gown of white. She wore lilacs of the valley and diamond earrings, the gift of the groom. At the conclusion of the ceremony an elaborate repast was served. The parlor was artistically decorated in American Beauty roses and palms. In one corner of the room where the bridal party stood palms and potted plants were banked with splendid effect. The table in the dining room was especially pretty. Pink carnations, lilacs of the valley and ferns were tastefully combined and the whole was lighted by roses in pink and green shades. Mr. and Mrs. Bowley left for Denver, their future home, where for the last few years Mr. Bowley has been extensively interested in gold mining. Dewey day was celebrated by the musical auxiliary of the Council Bluffs Woman's club on the evening of May 1 at Masonic temple. The hall was gaily decorated in flags and bunting and a picture of Admiral Dewey occupied a place of honor. An orchestra from Omaha gave a number of military pieces which were enthusiastically received. Others taking part in the program were: Misses Nellie Haworth, Grace Barr, McIntyre, Mrs. Mullis, Mr. Rigdon and Mr. Atchison. The accompanists were Misses Officer, Witter and Gleason. The second part of the program consisted of an exhibition drill by the High school cadets. The hall was tastefully decorated and an elaborate dance program in the colors of the order was issued as a souvenir. During the evening a juvenile cake walk, a May pole dance and a cake walk for the elder girls were given. The prizes in the juvenile cake walk were carried off by Pansy Otto and Jack Cady.
